Theoretical Schools and Circles in the Twentieth-Century Humanities Marina Grishakova, Silvi Salupere, 2015-04-10 Schools and circles have been a major force in twentieth century intellectual movements They fostered circulation of ideas within and between disciplines thus altering the shape of intellectual inquiry This volume offers a new perspective on theoretical schools in the humanities both as generators of conceptual knowledge and as cultural phenomena The structuralist semiotic phenomenological and hermeneutical schools and circles have had a deep impact on various disciplines ranging from literary studies to philosophy historiography and sociology The volume focuses on a set of loosely interrelated groups with a strong literary linguistic and semiotic component but extends to the fields of philosophy and history the interdisciplinary conjunctions arising from a sense of conceptual kinship It includes chapters on unstudied or less studied groups such as Tel Aviv School of poetics and semiotics or the research group Poetics and Hermeneutics The volume presents a significant supplement to the standard historical accounts of literary critical and related theory in the twentieth century It enhances and complicates our understanding of the twentieth century intellectual and academic history by showing schools and circles in the state of germination dialogue controversy or decline in their respective historical and institutional settings while reaching simultaneously beyond those dense settings to the new cultural and ideological situations of the twenty first century      Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory Irene Rima Makaryk,1993-01-01 The last half of the twentieth century has seen the emergence of literary theory as a new discipline As with any body of scholarship various schools of thought exist and sometimes conflict within it I R Makaryk has compiled a welcome guide to the field Accessible and jargon free the Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory provides lucid concise explanations of myriad approaches to literature that have arisen over the past forty years Some 170 scholars from around the world have contributed their expertise to this volume Their work is organized into three parts In Part I forty evaluative essays examine the historical and cultural context out of which new schools of and approaches to literature arose The essays also discuss the uses and limitations of the various schools and the key issues they address Part II focuses on individual theorists It provides a more detailed picture of the network of scholars not always easily pigeonholed into the categories of Part I This second section analyses the individual achievements as well as the influence of specific scholars and places them in a larger critical context Part III deals with the vocabulary of literary theory It identifies significant complex terms places them in context and explains their origins and use Accessibility is a key feature of the work By avoiding jargon providing mini bibliographies and cross referencing throughout Makaryk has provided an indispensable tool for literary theorists and historians and for all scholars and students of contemporary criticism and culture      Christianity and the Eastern Slavs, Volume I Boris Gasparov,Olga Raevsky-Hughes,2024-07-26 This publication in three volumes originated in papers delivered at two conferences held in May 1988 at the University of California Berkeley and the Kennan Institute for Advanced Russian Studies in Washington DC Like many other conferences organized that year in the United States Europe and the Soviet Union they were convened to commemorate the millennium of the acceptance of Christianity in Rus This collection of essays throws light on the enormous truly unique role that the Christian tradition has played throughout the centuries in shaping the nations that spring from Kievan Rus the Russians Ukrainians and Belorussians Although these volumes devote greater attention to Russian culture the investigation of the issue in the history of Christianity in Ukrainian and Belorussian cultures occupies an important and integral part of the project Volume I Slavic Cultures in the Middle Ages Edited by Boris Gasparov and Olga Raevsky Hughes Volume II Russian Culture in Modern Times Edited by Robert P Hughes and Irina Paperno Volume III Russian Literature in Modern Times Edited by Boris Gasparov Robert P Hughes Irina Paperno and Olga Raevsky Hughes This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1993      Chrétien de Troyes Douglas Kelly,2002 The supplement to the 1976 original bibliography reflects the expanding scope of modern Chr tien studies including items from around the world with the assistance of an international team of scholars The Supplement builds on and completes the Chr tien de Troyes Bibliography first published in 1976 Together the two volumes constitute the fullest and most complete bibliographical source now available on this major medieval author Chr tien de Troyes bequeathed a corpus of highly original and widely influential Arthurian romances Indeed his direct or indirect influence continued throughout the middle ages and beyond into modern times The Bibliography permits students of medieval romance to quickly identify the areas in which Chr tien scholarship has been active Items are listed under twenty two topics with numerous sub sections under each topic and cross references for items that treat more than one of the topics The broad geographic and linguistic scope of modern Chr tien studies is evident in items not only from western Europe and North America but also from the growing body of medieval scholarship in eastern Europe Asia Africa South America and Australasia To ensure accuracy and completeness the editor has been assisted by scholars competent in the many languages in which Chr tien studies are now published most notably in Japanese Welsh Rumanian Hungarian and Polish as well as by other scholars and librarians who generously provided assistance and information in finding items difficult to access

Boris Pasternak Christopher Barnes,2004-02-12 This authoritative new biography of the Russian poet and prose writer Boris Pasternak is the first part of a two volume set covering the period 1890 1928 Drawing on archives and many eyewitness accounts Barnes study sheds light on currently unexplored aspects of Pasternak s character and family background and his artistic social and historical environment He combines biographical investigation with detailed textual analysis of translated quotations in verse and prose to reveal the source of Pasternak s extraordinary writings The book examines a wide range of topics that include his musical enthusiasm and relations with Scriabin his philosophical studies his activities in World War I and his response to the 1917 revolutions and his stance as a liberal artistic intellectual in the 1920s David B. Zilberman: Selected Essays David B. Zilberman,2023-11-10 This book is a selection of articles by David Zilberman a prolific author whose tragic untimely death did not allow to finish many of his undertakings Zilberman s work represents a fresh word in the way of philosophizing or philosophy building and the technique of modal methodology This book comprises of thirteen independent articles that are not related by content The point of thematic convergence of these articles is the way they reflect the new way of methodological thinking through the application and benefits of modalization or modal methodology that unfolds unbound possibilities of philosophic elaborations By shifting constantly from one position to another Zilberman disclosed the antinomicity of all types of thought Such an approach led him to outline for the first time his major attempt to start creating not systems but sums of philosophies so that the philosophical activity would be able to re emerge on the slopes of such sums The book can be used as a starting point of a discussion especially in study of philosophy We imagine it can be used in undergraduate classes on World Philosophies or Intercultural Philosophy courses With that it can serve as a useful resource for adding intercultural elements into Western centered courses The Nature of Culture Walter A. Koch,1989
