Persistent Forms Ilya Kliger, Boris Maslov, 2015-12-14 Since the mid 1980s attempts to think history and literature together have produced much exciting work in the humanities Indeed some form of historicism can be said to inform most of the current scholarship in literary studies including work in poetics yet much of this scholarship remains undertheorized Envisioning a revitalized and more expansive historicism this volume builds on the tradition of Historical Poetics pioneered by Alexander Veselovsky 1838 1906 and developed in various fruitful directions by the Russian Formalists Mikhail Bakhtin and Olga Freidenberg The volume includes previously untranslated texts of some of the major scholars in this critical tradition as well as original contributions which place that tradition in dialogue with other thinkers who have approached literature in a globally comparatist and evolutionary historical spirit The contributors seek to challenge and complement a historicism that stresses proximate sociopolitical contexts through an engagement with the longue dur e of literary forms and institutions In particular Historical Poetics aims to uncover deep historical stratifications and asynchronicities in which formal solutions may display elective affinities with other chronologically distant solutions to analogous social and political problems By recovering the traditional nexus of philology and history Persistent Forms seeks to reinvigorate poetics as a theoretical discipline that would respond to such critical and intellectual developments as Marxism New Historicism the study of world literature practices of distant reading and a renewed attention to ritual oral poetics and genre

Koerner, 2020-08-15 This volume brings together in 8 chapters what has occupied the author during his many years as editor of Historiographia Linguistica Namely how the history of linguistics has developed into a major field of scholarly research and that the discussion of questions of method and epistemology needs to be continued to avoid stereotypical practice The author takes up a number of subjects that often had been regarded as settled but which require a revisit This is shown in several chapters whether it appears subjects like analogy or the relationships between well known linguists like Saussure Hermann Paul and others Bloomsbury Semiotics Volume 3: Semiotics in the Arts and Social Sciences Jamin Pelkey, Susan Petrilli, Sophia Melanson Ricciardone, 2023-01-12 Bloomsbury Semiotics offers a state of the art overview of the entire field of semiotics by revealing its influence on a wide range of disciplinary perspectives With four volumes spanning theory method and practice across the disciplines this definitive reference work emphasizes and

The Spirit of Carnival David Danow, 2021-05-11 The world of literature responds to the spirit of carnival in ways that are both social and cultural mythological and archetypal Literature provides a mirror in which carnival is reflected and refracted through the multifarious perspectives of verbal art In his original wide ranging book David K Danow catches the various reflections in that mirror from the bright life affirming magical side of carnival as revealed in the literature of Latin American writers to its dark grotesque death embracing aspect as illustrated in numerous novels depicting the dire experience of the Second World War The remarkable meshing of these two diametrically opposed yet inextricably intertwined facets of literature and of life makes for an intriguing sphere of investigation for the carnival spirit is animated by a human need to dissolve borders and eliminate boundaries including symbolically those between life and death in an ongoing effort to merge opposing forces into new configurations of truth and meaning Expanding upon the seminal ideas of Mikhail Bakhtin carnival argues Danow is designed to allow one extreme to flow into another to provide for one polarity official culture to confront its opposite unofficial culture much as individuals engage in dialogue In this case the result is dialogized carnival or carnivalized dialogue In their artmaking Danow claims human beings are animated by a periodic predisposition toward the bright side of carnival matched by an equally strong far darker predilection Carnival forms of thinking are firmly embedded within the human psyche as archetypal patterns In this engaging exploratory book we are shown the distinctive imprint of these primordial structures within a multitude of seemingly disparate literary works

The Self as a Sign, the World, and the Other Susan Petrilli, 2017-07-28 Ostentation of the Subject is a practice that is asserting itself ever more in today's world Consequently criticism by philosophers psychologists sociologists and anthropologists has been to little effect considering that they are not immune to such practices themselves The question of subjectivity concerns the close and the distant the self and the other the other from self and the other of self It is thus connected to the question of the sign It calls for a semiotic approach because the self is itself a sign its very own relation with itself is a relation among signs This book commits to developing a critique of subjectivity in terms of the material that the self is made of that is the material of signs Susan Petrilli highlights the scholarship of Charles Peirce Mikhail Bakhtin Roland Barthes Mary Boole Jacques Derrida Michael Foucault Emmanuel Levinas Claude Levi Strauss Maurice Merleau-Ponty Charles Morris Thomas Sebeok Thomas Szasz and Victoria Welby Included are American and European theories and theorists evidencing the relationships interconnecting American Italian French and German scholarship Petrilli covers topics from identity issues that are part of semiotic views to the corporeal self as well as responsibility reason and freedom Her book should be read by philosophers semioticians and other social scientists
