   Semiotics of Musical Time Thomas Reiner,2000 Semiotics of Musical Time investigates the link between musical time and the world of signs and symbols It examines the extent to which musical time is a product of signs sign systems and sign oriented behavior Sound is discussed as a potential sign of time and of musical time Inherent and recognizable temporal features are identified in a number of musical works Time as a compositional concern is examined in the case of Igor Stravinsky and Karlheinz Stockhausen A principal distinction between hearing associated with perception and listening associated with cognition provides the basis for the proposition that musical time is both unheard and imperceptible The role of concepts and their designations is investigated to demonstrate that consciousness of musical time involves semiotic processes   Musical scrapbook Andrei Pogorilowski,2018-04-07 Andr Pogoriloffsky was born in Bucharest Romania in February 1968 Starting with 1982 he studied music independently helped by several private professors In 1989 A P started to hear in his head a strange yet beautiful music that he was unable to notate Short excerpts were presented on the piano to his musician friends who confirmed that the temporal fabric of that music could not be rendered satisfactorily with help from the traditional bar rhythmical semiography Between that point and 1994 A P tried to formulate a theory and a notation for that music the first result being his first published book Energies of musical time essential studies of pulsatory functionalism In the late 90s A P discovered cognitive musicology and started to merge his own discoveries with the bulk of scientific contributions from this interdisciplinary domain After abandoning several approaches the final result a book called The music of the Temporalists The author is currently living in his hometown Bucharest along with his wife Simona and his daughter Ina
