Body-Line? Harold Larwood, 2018-10-01 Author's Preface I should like to state at the beginning of my book that what is stated in it on controversial matters is my own firm opinion except where in a few cases the views of other people are published and their names given I wish to make it clear that though there were and are sharp differences of opinion on the subject of Fast Leg Theory bowling between myself and some Australians there was always an atmosphere of complete cordiality between the teams on both sides Although we differ seriously over my Fast Leg Theory bowling I have done my best in the following pages not to disturb that atmosphere Until now my side of the matter has not been heard I have refused many tempting offers to break silence As a fast bowler and a hitter by nature I have written strongly because I cannot express myself otherwise I hope very much indeed that in doing so though I was one of the aggrieved parties in Australia I have given nobody half the offence from which I suffered so often on the last tour A belief exists that some of the things I have written about are not yet to be discussed Obviously I differ from that view I do so because I feel that in a matter of such vital interest to cricketers as the possible admission by legislation of such a far reaching principle as that bowlers may not bowl as they like no cricketer can keep silent I believe I have only written here what very many cricketers are saying But I have written supported by first hand knowledge For the many imperfections of style and language in my first book I beg the indulgence of my reader Yours Sincerely H Larwood Flying Magazine, 1936-05 The Story of Spedegue's Dropper Arthur Conan Doyle, 2024-01-01 A short story about a young man with a radical approach to the game of cricket from the creator of Sherlock Holmes While walking in the forest veteran cricket player Walter Scougall comes upon a young

schoolteacher named Spedegue practicing an unusual bowling delivery When Scougall attempts to have the man repeat his actions in public it yields entertaining results Originally published in the Strand Magazine in 1928 The Story of Spedegue's Dropper is inspired by a bizarre experience Doyle had with cricket when he was a young man The Story of Spedague's Dropper (Fantasy and Horror Classics) Arthur Conan Doyle,2014-12-03 Sir Arthur Conan Doyle the creator of detective Sherlock Holmes is the father of crime fiction This intriguing short story first published in the Strand Magazine in 1928 was based on a bizarre cricketing experience Doyle underwent as a young man Many of the finest English sport stories particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive We are republishing these classic works in affordable high quality modern editions using the original text and artwork One of a Kind Ashley Mallett,2010 From the moment he first stepped onto a test pitch cricket fans around the world were dazzled by Doug Walters red blooded strokes his immaculate timing and his great enjoyment of the game But they also loved him because he refused to be a star He drank he smoked he loved a punt The boy from Dungog was one of us In One of a Kind the ma Seminary Boy John Cornwell,2007-09-18 John Cornwell evokes a vanished time and way of life in this moving and at times troubling memoir of an adolescence spent in the isolated all male world of the seminary Born into a destitute family with a dominating Irish Catholic mother and an absconding father during World War II in London John Cornwell's childhood was deeply dysfunctional When he was thirteen years old he was sent to Cotton College a remote seminary for boys in the West Midlands countryside For the next five years Cornwell lived under an austere monastic regime as he wrestled with his emotional and spiritual demons In the hothouse atmosphere of the seminary he strove to find stable loving friendships among his fellows and fatherly support from the priests one of whom proved to be a sexual predator The wild countryside around the seminary the moving power of church ritual and music and a charismatic priest enabled him to persevere But while normal teenagers were being swept up by the rock n roll era Cornwell and his fellow seminarians continued to be emotionally and socially repressed Secret romantic attachments between seminarians were not uncommon on visits home they were overwhelmed by the powerful attractions of the emerging youth culture of the 1950s But when they returned to Cotton College the boys were once again governed by the age old traditions and disciplines of seminary life And like many young seminarians Cornwell struggled with a natural adolescent rebelliousness which in one crucial instance provoked a crisis that would eventually lead to his decision to abandon his dream of becoming a priest Written with tremendous warmth and humor Seminary Boy is a truly unforgettable memoir and a penetrating glimpse into the hidden world of seminary life Retreat Australia Fair and Other Great Australian Legends Frank J. Hardy,1990 Collection of humorous stories and yarns about Australians includes The legend of the black McNamara pp 73 77 Collected Works of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle (Delphi Classics) Sir Arthur Conan Doyle,2013-11-17 Finally the great literary giant Sir Arthur Conan Doyle receives the scholarly Delphi Classics treatment This comprehensive eBook offers the most complete edition possible Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's

Ntantala,1993-01-01 Like Trotsky I did not leave home with the proverbial one and six in my pocket I come from a family of landed gentry and could have chosen the path of comfort and safety for even in apartheid South Africa there is still that path for those who will collaborate But I chose the path of struggle and uncertainty from the Preface Born into the small social elite of black South Africa Phyllis Ntantala did not face the grinding poverty so familiar to other South African blacks Instead her struggle was that of a creative articulate woman seeking fulfillment and justice in a land that tried to deny her both The widow of Xhosa writer and historian A C Jordan and mother of African National Congress leader Z Pallo Jordan she and her family experienced a period of tremendous change in South Africa and also in the United States where they moved during the 1960s She discovers similarities in the two countries including the arrogance of power Anchored in history and culture A Life's Mosaic sharply reveals the world and the people of South Africa As the story of a political exile it represents the dislocations that have caused universal suffering in the second half of the twentieth century Phyllis Ntantala discusses the cruelty of racism the cynicism of political solutions and the hopes of those who live in both a world of exile and a world of dreams Night Fighter Over Germany Graham White,2007-03-28 This WWII memoir of an NCO Royal Air Force pilot offers a vivid personal account of wartime life and dangerous operations over Europe In 1941 Graham White was passing a Royal Air Force recruiting center and on the spur of the moment signed up As a non commissioned RAF pilot he went on to fly long range night fighters against the Luftwaffe White experienced badly designed and dangerous aircraft such as the Beaufighter with its Merlin engine But he also flew some of the finest planes ever built like the Wooden Wonder Mosquito In this candid memoir White offers a rare glimpse of what life was really like in that time of international crisis He pulls no punches as he describes the blinding errors made by officers who conceived impossible operations for young airmen to fly But he also shares tales of nights out on the town when crews could relieve the stress of combat The Game Plan Steve

Some ten thousand years ago Earth was visited by beings from another planet in the Barnard s Star system The Babylonians recorded that beings they called the Oannes were amphibious creatures who came to Earth for the welfare of the human race The historian Hellandus describes them as having fishlike features but the head feet and arms of a man They instructed humans in everything a civilized nation should know They built a city beneath Antarctica near the Davis Sea and have lived there peacefully and secretly ever since But now a rogue Dwarf Star called Zarama threatens the very existence of both Earth and the home planet Nazmos Their mythology predicts that a being from another planet will avert disaster Enter Ashley Bonner into this scenario He has been granted special gifts and the Oannes think he may be the predicted one Can Ashley really prevail against a star a third more massive than the sun This is the story of Ashley s development to manhood from age four to seventy and his ultimate sacrifice to save both worlds C J Harvey
