Mirrors of the Divine Emily R. Cain, 2023 Mirrors of the Divine examines four early Christian authors Tertullian of Carthage Clement of Alexandria Gregory of Nyssa and Augustine of Hippo and analyzes their writings on vision and knowledge of God to show how they envisioned one's relationship to the world and how they imagined the unknown Emily R Cain explores how contradictory theories of sight shaped their cosmologies theologies subjectivities genders and discursive worlds and shows that early Christian arguments about the phenomenon of visual perception are deeply intertwined with broader debates about identity agency and epistemology A Concordance to the Poems of Robert Browning Leslie Nathan Broughton, Benjamin Franklin Stelter, 1925 Led by God Billie K. Fidlin, Richard N. Morrison, 2016-12-15 In a time when anxiety and brokenness have become hallmarks of so many institutions this small volume abounds with wisdom and insight for those who seek a better way Every page offers valuable perspectives on how leaders in the church and beyond can both value and benefit from the too often underappreciated gifts of our most valuable resource the people with whom we serve While the principles have been distilled into seven People Centric insights Morrison and Fidlin offer a path to transform entire human ecologies toward hope worth and productivity For many the language of Servant Leadership has become just another shibboleth in these pages are insights that liberate anew the understanding that in all our ministry and service all may gain in self worth and their true value to the community Philip Amerson President Emeritus Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary Richard Morrison and Billie Fidlin have proved that combining Christian ethics with modern business practice is not only possible but is a winning combination for the church Building upon their considerable experience in both secular and religious organizations they have shown us a management technique that is both compassionate and effective This is must reading for church leaders The Right Rev Kirk Stevan Smith Ph D D D Activate Human Capital Richard N. Morrison, 2017-01-30 Over the last half century college textbooks on management have taught the importance of valuing the human assets of a business and they have also focused on how to effectively and appropriately manage those assets And yet we look around and rarely see it practiced In Activate Human Capital author Richard N Morrison outlines the eight People Focused Principles of Management and he explains them in terms of the values that motivate people to want to do the work given to them And even more he shows how these values will actually get employees to initiate their work because they will see how it contributes to the overall purpose of the business Each principle such as giving people a purpose communicating widely accommodating change creating a culture of worth and hope and rewarding performance to name a few is linked to a component of human fulfillment and then through research personal experience and shared stories Morrison discusses how to activate each principle and demonstrates what it should look like in the workplace Eight simple principles can help enhance all business relationships and improve efficiency productivity and profitability if only managers are willing to change People focused management has been done is being done and will be done increasingly more often as more business leaders comprehend the potential in this empowering form of leadership When employees feel valued respected encouraged and fulfilled they will work harder and be more invested in their work and in the success of the business Crabb's English Synonymes George Crabb, 1917 Depression in Later Life Deborah Serani, 2016-06-09 The geriatric population defined as men and women 65 years and older is the fastest growing population in the world While gerontology the study of the aging process in human beings has brought insights about the physical emotional and social needs of this population little attention has been given to the mental health of the aging and often treatable disorders are overlooked entirely Depression is one of the leading mental disorders in any age group but among the elderly it is often viewed as a normal part of aging But it s not Depression at any age requires attention and treatment For sufferers and their families and caregivers this go to guide introduces readers to depression among the aging and elderly It looks at both sufferers who ve been diagnosed in their younger years as well as those with a new diagnosis and reviews the symptoms the diagnostic process treatment options including alternative and holistic approaches and long term care for those experiencing mild moderate or severe depression With real stories throughout the book illustrates the many forms depression can take and Serani offers a compassionate voice alongside practical advice for sufferers caregivers and families An extensive resource section rounds out the book Anyone suffering from depression in later life and anyone who cares for someone suffering will want to read this important guide to living well with depression in the golden years Research Awards Index ,1989
