Modernist Women Writers and American Social Engagement Jody Cardinal, Deirdre E. Egan-Ryan, Julia Lisella, 2019-03-15
Modernist Women Writers and American Social Engagement explores the role of social and political engagement by women writers in the development of American modernism Examining a diverse array of genres by both canonical modernists and underrepresented writers this collection uncovers an obscured strain of modernist activism Each chapter provides a detailed cultural and literary analysis revealing the ways in which modernists politically and socially engaged interventions shaped their writing Considering issues such as working class women s advocacy educational reform political radicalism and the global implications for American literary production this book examines the complexity of the relationship between creating art and fostering social change Ultimately this collection redefines the parameters of modernism while also broadening the conception of social engagement to include both readily acknowledged social movements as well as less recognizable forms of advocacy for social change

Modernist Women Writers and War Julie Goodspeed-Chadwick, 2011-01-01 In Modernist Women Writers and War Julie Goodspeed Chadwick examines important avant garde writings by three American women authors and shows that during World Wars I and II a new kind of war literature emerged one in which feminist investigation of war and trauma effectively counters the paradigmatic war experience long narrated by men In the past Goodspeed Chadwick explains scholars have not considered writings by women as part of war literature They have limited war writing to works by men such as William Butler Yeats s poem An Irish Airman Foresees His Death 1919 which relies on a male perspective a pilot contemplates his forthcoming flight his duty to his country and his life in combat But works by Djuna Barnes H D and Gertrude Stein set in wartime reveal experiences and views of war markedly different from those of male writers They write women and their bodies into their texts thus creating space for female war writing insisting on female presence in wartime and perhaps most significantly critiquing war and patriarchal politics often in devastating fashion Goodspeed Chadwick begins with Barnes who in her surrealist novel Nightwood 1936 emphasizes the actual perversity of war by placing it in contrast to the purported perverse and deviant behavior of her main characters In her epic poem Trilogy 1944 1946 H D validates female suffering and projects a feminist spiritual worldview that fosters healing from the ravages of war Stein for her part in her experimental novel Mrs Reynolds 1952 and her long love poem Lifting Belly 1953 captures her experience of the everyday reality of war on the home front within the domestic economy of her household In these works the female body stands as the primary textual marker or symbol of female identity an insistence on women s presence in both the text and in the world outside the book The strategies employed by Barnes H D and Stein in these texts serve to produce a new kind of writing Goodspeed Chadwick reveals one that ineluctably constructs a female identity within and authorship of the war narrative

Modern Sentimentalism Lisa Mendelman, 2019 Modern Sentimentalism discusses how the iconic modern woman as presented in interwar American literature It reveals how this literary figure carries the weight of sentiment and how the question of feminine feeling is central to modernism's preoccupations and styles     Sentimental Modernism Suzanne Clark, 1991     The Oxford Handbook of Global Modernisms Mark Wollaeger, Matt Eatough, 2013-10 The Oxford Handbook of Global Modernisms expands the scope of modernism beyond its traditional focus on English and Irish literature to explore the contributions of artists from countries and regions like the US Cuba Spain the Balkans China Japan India Vietnam and Nigeria     Catholic Women Writers Mary Reichardt, 2001-07-30 Women have been writing in the Catholic tradition since early medieval times yet no single volume has brought together critical evaluations of their works until now The first reference of its kind Catholic Women Writers provides entries on 64 Catholic women writers from around the world and across the centuries Each of the entries is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography of the author a critical discussion of her works especially her Catholic and women's themes an overview of her critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources Authors writing in all genres including fiction autobiography poetry children's literature and essays are represented The entries give special attention to the authors use of Catholic themes structures traditions culture and spirituality The writers surveyed range from Doctors of the Church to mystics and visionaries to those who employ Catholic themes primarily in historical and cultural contexts to those who critique the tradition An introductory essay places the writers within the historical and literary contexts of women's writing in the Catholic tradition and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography     The Feminine Middlebrow Novel, 1920s to 1950s Nicola Humble, 2004 Humble presents a study of the novels by and for middle class women that dominated the publishing market in the first half of the 20th century She studies the work of authors such as Agatha Christie alongside cultural products such as cookery books     Marianne Moore and the Cultures of Modernity Victoria Bazin, 2016-05-06 Victoria Bazin examines the poetry of Marianne Moore as it is shaped by and responsive to the experience of being a modern woman of living in the aftermath of the First World War of being interpellated as a modern consumer and of writing in the age of mechanical reproduction She argues that Moore's textual collages and syllabic sculptures are based on the cultural clutter or debris of modernity on textual extracts and reproductions on the phantasmagoria of city life revealing something modernism worked hard to conceal its relation to modernity more specifically its relation to the new emerging and expanding mass consumer culture Drawing extensively on archival resources to trace Moore's influences and to describe her own distinctive modernist aesthetic this book argues that it was her feminist adaptation of pragmatism that shaped her poetic response to modernity Moore's use of the quoted fragment is conceptualised in relation not only to Walter Benjamin's philosophical history but also to William James's image of the world as a series of partial stories As such this account of Marianne Moore not only contributes to a greater understanding of the poet and her work but it also offers up a more politicized and historically nuanced understanding of poetic modernism between the wars one that retains a sense of the formal complexities of poetic language and the poet's own ethical imperatives whilst also recognising the material impact of modernity upon the modernist poem This book will appeal therefore not only to scholars already familiar with Moore s poetry but more widely to those interested in modernism and American culture between the wars Feminism Beyond
