The Botsotso literary journal started in 1996 as a monthly 4 page insert in the New Nation an independent anti apartheid South African weekly and reached over 80 000 people at a time largely politized black workers and youth with a selection of poems short stories and short essays that reflected the deep changes taking place in the country at that time Since the closure of the New Nation in 1999 the journal has evolved into a stand alone compilation featuring the same mix of genres and with the addition of photo essays and reviews The Botsotso editorial policy remains committed to creating a mix of voices which highlight the diverse spectrum of South African identities and languages particularly those that are dedicated to radical expression and examinations of South Africa's complex society With over seventy poets represented this is a bumper edition of the journal and given the number of interesting and accomplished poems received over the past two years since publication of Botsotso 17 we believed it worthwhile to break from tradition and dedicate this edition wholly to poetry Nights on the Point Roland Blair, 2014-12-01 Nights on the Point is the story of three friends who light out for the territories because life is in the doing Out on the road Jack Nikki and Weston find power and magic they had never dreamed of And gliding alongside unseen is the Bear the first of their companions from the other side As the journey continues the computer generated world of the future collides with the timeless mythology of a land before language interrupted periodically by whiskey reality burgers fist fights with crazed carnies Zen trances and country songs The two sides of consciousness move closer and closer until out of gas in the desert our three travelers come face to face with their other world counterparts The journey nearly ends forever in New Orleans with a poker game an arrest for murder and the disappearance of Nikki Reunited on a stolen sailboat in Mobile Bay the players embark on a final cruise down past Mile Zero to Key West And it s happy ever after right Hot winds and heartbreaks skinheads and shotguns write a different story as Jack and Weston face the inevitable end of their journey But is this really the end or just the beginning of another journey Will the circle be unbroken Bye and bye Lord bye and bye There is no there there
