Serious About God:

Towards The Setting Sun... Andy Cowell, The God Exchange Criss Cross, 2015-10-28 It is time to evaluate your current value system How do you make decisions Do you base them on cultural references you find on TV or in movies Do you ask your friends and even strangers what they recommend Do some wrong ideas become so implanted in your mind that you need a bulldozer to clear them out Can the relationship between a pet dog and its owner tell us anything about our relationship to God Author Criss Cross The God Exchange uses everyday examples to look at how God created human beings and how it impacts our decisions We make decisions every day Some are big like buying a car or major appliance changing jobs or getting married Others are smaller such as those involving what we're going to wear and eat Every decision is made based on what we like and what we perceive as having good value Cross shows how the things we value and the people whose opinions we value influence our decisions and not always in good ways Many of us leave God completely out of the decision making process When that happens there are eternal consequences As you'll read in The God Exchange some wrong decisions can be really funny and amusing others are not They are all part of life and how God designed us as humans Once you're aware of what influences your decisions you can be on your way to making better ones The Real Win Colt McCoy, Matt Carter, 2013 In this motivating story driven journey for men of all ages NFL quarterback McCoy and his pastor Carter lay down the building blocks of positive character and help men embrace their full potential for strong tender gospel centered influence in home and community This We Believe Bishop William H. Willimon, 2010-05-01 For John Wesley the Bible is the joyfully consistent testimony of God's never ending grace and ever seeking love Likewise studying the Bible is more than merely knowing what Scripture says it is also about living every day as a child of God Beginning with the Core Terms found in the NRSV version of The Wesley Study Bible Bishop Willimon systematically lays out key Wesleyan tenets of faith so that you will have a fresh way to hear God's voice share in God's grace and become more like Jesus Christ This book can be used as an eight week small group study A Leader Guide is also available order 9781426708237 Let this book be your trusted companion to the NRSV version of The Wesley Study Bible as you grow to love God with a warmed heart and serve God with active hands Laws. Index Plato, 1924 The Works of ... Matthew Henry, being a complete collection of all the discourses, sermons, and other tracts, that were published by himself. Together with an account of his life and a sermon on John xiii. 36 preach'd on the occasion of his death; both by W. Tong Matthew Henry, 1833 The Declared Enemy Jean Genet, 2004 This posthumous work brings together texts that bear witness to the many political causes and groups with which Genet felt an affinity including May 68 and the treatment of immigrants in France but especially the Black Panthers and the Palestinians Genet speaks for a politics of protest with an uncompromising outrage that today might seem on the verge of being forgotten God Still Moves Rick L. Via, 2008-08 Stories of life transformation through the power of the Gospel Can God Be Trusted? John G. Stackhouse Jr., 1998-04-09 In a world riddled with disappointment malice and tragedy what rationale do we have for believing in a benevolent God If God is all powerful and all loving why is there so much evil in the world John Stackhouse takes a historically informed approach to this dilemma examining what philosophers and theologians have said on the subject and offering reassuring answers for thoughtful readers Stackhouse explores how great thinkers have grappled with the problem of evil from the Buddha Confucius Augustine and David Hume to Martin Luther C S Lewis and Alvin Plantinga Without brushing aside the serious contradictions posed by a God who allows incurable diseases natural disasters and senseless crimes to bring misery into our lives Stackhouse asks if a world completely without evil is what we truly want Would a life without suffering be a meaningful life Could free will exist if we were able to choose only good Stackhouse examines what the best minds have had to say on these questions and boldly affirms that the benefits of evil in fact outweigh the costs Finally he points to Christian revelation which promises the transformation of suffering into joy as the best guide to God s

Who Is God? A Devotional Journey Through Genesis and Exodus M.R. Hyde,2014-09-25

You Are Not Going to Heaven (and why it doesn't matter) Wes Bergen,2013-07-08 Honesty Humility The purpose and future of the church Useful and not useful parts of the Bible A doctrine of salvation that includes mosquitoes These are some of the topics dealt with in this controversial book Written for those who still have hope for the church as well as those who don t Wes Bergen s aim is to cast a vision of the church beyond divine fire insurance Bergen s contention is that salvation is something that either happens here and now on this earth or not at all Salvation is something that happens to bodies More importantly salvation is something that either will happen on this earth or we risk making the world uninhabitable by human beings Souls are irrelevant when the air is dirty the water is undrinkable and there isn t enough to eat These are the things that the Bible really cares about and form the building blocks for the salvation that God offers This is also why this book is not about heaven The Bible is not a manual for getting to heaven The Bible cares very little about heaven and neither should you Salvation is about what happens to bodies on Tuesday rather than what we do Sunday morning or what happens to souls after the body dies Forget about heaven Either you trust in God or you don t Now get to work helping salvation happen

American Ecclesiastical Review Herman Joseph Heuser,1935

Ah This! Osho,2017-11-12 The feeling that it is five minutes to midnight is known to many by now and is often referred to as the Doomsday Clock As the many crises faced by humanity and planet Earth gather and tumble toward an emergency some have even reduced the time left to two and a half minutes It is no wonder that we feel increasingly helpless and at a loss what to do Osho calls Zen not a teaching but an alarm to wake us up because as individuals we are all deeply asleep and this sleep has to be shattered For centuries you have been asleep Sleep has become your nature You have forgotten what awareness is what to be awake means He wants us to wake up before it is too late Zen more than any other religious or spiritual tradition is relevant to such times as these when none of our old approaches to solving problems will do Immediate urgent and direct Zen is not interested in answers or in questions not interested in teaching at all because it is not a philosophy As Osho begins here by quoting the great Zen master Dae All the teachings of the sages of the saints of the masters have expounded no more than this they are commentaries on your sudden cry Ah This In this series of talks Osho unfolds a selection of classic Zen stories and responds to questions Along the way we learn how the tools of Zen can be used to embrace uncertainty to be at ease with not knowing to act decisively and with clarity and awareness To get woke in other words so that we can use each moment between now and midnight for transformation is in line with the teachings of the first 300 years of Christianity Anyone who reads their appendix will come to understand that the teachings presented in this book were the orthodox consensus of the early Church for the first 300 years and that it was Augustine who introduced serious deviations into the mainstream orthodox Christianity of his time Forster and Marston begin by describing the battle that is being waged between God and the spiritual forces that oppose Him They examine the book of Job and see how this relates to the overall struggle Then the authors examine the 9th chapter of Romans to see if this book is dealing with election and individual destinies or God s actions within human history The authors do an excellent job of arguing for their opinion that this chapter is speaking about God s involvement in human history and it deals with God s choosing of one nation or individual over another nation or individual to accomplish His purpose Other sections of interest in this book are the sections on foreknowledge and predestination and the chapters on faith and works The section on faith and works was particularly interesting because it relies on much of the teaching of the new perspective which has shed much light on how a 1st century Palestinian Jew would have approached Scriptural issues The research argumenation and exegesis in this book are solid so every chapter is excellent but the ones mentioned above were two of my favorites Amazon com
