Life and Times of Charles Dickens:

Autobiographical Novels, Stories, London Society Sketches, Travel Memoirs, Letters & Biographies (Illustrated) Charles Dickens, 2022-06-12 In Life and Times of Charles Dickens Autobiographical Novels Stories London Society Sketches Travel Memoirs Letters Biographies Illustrated Charles Dickens offers an intricate tapestry of his life through a selection of autobiographical writings that span the breadth of his literary career Richly illustrated the volume combines narrative finesse with social critique showcasing Dickens's masterful ability to blend personal experience with acute observations of London society during the Victorian era This work serves not only as a memoir but also as a contextual lens into the societal dynamics and pressing issues of 19th century England illustrating how his personal hardships such as his troubled childhood profoundly informed his storytelling and character development Dickens born into a modest family in Portsmouth faced the adversities of poverty and child labor in his youth experiences that indelibly shaped his literary voice His career as a writer was marked by an earnest desire to expose social injustices and advocate for reform drawing from his own experiences in the gritty backstreets of London This collection reveals the man behind the pen reflecting his passion for storytelling as a vehicle for social change and empathy This essential volume not only enriches the reader's understanding of Dickens's oeuvre but also provides insight into the man himself making it perfect for scholars fans and newcomers alike It stands as a testament to Dickens's enduring legacy inviting readers to explore the intersections of life and literature in one of the greatest authors of the English language

Australian Patriography Stephen Mansfield, 2014-11-01 The Son's Book of the Father as Richard Freadman termed it is a rich field of relational autobiography offering a unique set of tensions and insights into modes of masculinity notions of identity and the ethics of representing another's life in writing one's own This study of modern Australian life writing by sons who focus on fathers places an emerging sub genre within its literary ancestry and its contemporary milieu Providing compelling readings of Raimond Gaita's Romulus My Father Peter Rose's Boys and many others this is the first study of its kind within Australian literature

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation Cosima Bruno, Lucas Klein, Chris Song, 2023-10-19 Offering the first systematic overview of modern and contemporary Chinese literature from a translation studies perspective this handbook provides students researchers and teachers with a context in which to read and appreciate the effects of linguistic and cultural transfer in Chinese literary works Translation matters It always has of course but more so when we want to reap the benefits of intercultural communication In many universities Chinese literature in English translation is taught as if it had been written in English As a result students submit what they read to their own cultural expectations they do not read in translation and do not attend to the protocols of knowing engagements and contestations that bind literature and society to each other The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation squarely addresses this pedagogical lack Organised in a tripartite structure around considerations of textual social and large scale spatial and historical circumstances its thirty plus essays each deal with a theme of translation studies as emerged from the translation of one or more Chinese literary works In doing so it offers new tools for reading and appreciating modern and contemporary Chinese literature in the global context of its translation offering in depth studies about eminent Chinese authors and their literary masterpieces in translation The first of its kind this book is essential reading for anyone studying or researching Chinese literature in translation

Time, Tide and History Brigid Rooney, Fiona Morrison, 2024-06-01 Time Tide and History Eleanor Dark's Fiction is the first book length edited collection of scholarly essays to treat the full span of Eleanor Dark's fiction advancing a recent revival of critical and scholarly interest in Dark's writing This volume not only establishes a new view of Dark's fiction as a whole but also reflects on the ways in which her fiction speaks to our present moment in the context of a globally fraught post pandemic

Anthropocene era Above all the revisiting of Dark's fiction is mandated by a desire to recognise the ways in which it anticipates vital debates in Australian literary and national culture today about settler colonialism and its legacies and with regard to the histories condition and status of Australia's First Nations people This volume interweaves varied topical themes from formal debates about modernism historical realism and melodrama to questions about modernity's time and space about gender and cultural difference and about the specifics of built and natural environments Time Tide and History intentionally loosens the conventions of literary scholarship by including other kinds of work alongside critical and scholarly readings a written dialogue between two contemporary historians about Dark's legacy and a biographical piece on the life and role of Eleanor Dark's husband Eric Payten Dark Bringing together the interwar fiction's feminist and modernist dimensions with the historical turn of The Timeless Land trilogy the essays in Time Tide and History collectively pursue ethical and political questions while teasing out the distinctive thematic formal and aesthetic features of Dark's fiction

Australia's China Lachlan Strahan, 1996 First published in 1996 Australia's China explores the multifaceted and dynamic Australian encounter with China from the beginning of the Sino Japanese War in 1937 through the Cold War to the Australian recognition of the PRC in 1972 Going beyond conventional policy studies it traces the patterns in Australian reactions to China from the grass roots to official circles highlighting the centrality of images concerning the exotic disease sexuality the frontier and China as a paradise anti paradise In responding to China Australians revealed something of themselves and this book maps the formation of Australian conceptions of identity in the context of a cross cultural encounter which was variously cooperative enriching baffling and antagonistic But there was no single Australian conception of China Rather competing perceptions jostled in a shifting dialogue Seeking Meaning, Seeking Justice in a Post-Cold War World Judith Keene, Elizabeth Rechniewski, 2018-03-27 The challenge for historians as for individuals and nations has been to make sense of the Cold War past without recourse to the obsolete frameworks of a dichotomous world The editors of Seeking Meaning Seeking Justice in the Post Cold War World Judith Keene and Elizabeth Rechniewski have brought together contributions that address the diverse modes by which the Cold War is being assessed with a major focus on countries on the periphery of the Cold War confrontation These approaches include developments in historiography as new intellectual and cultural frame are applied to old debates Authors also consider the universal principles and moral discourses including that of human rights on which judgements have been based and judicial processes instigated and the forms of memorialisation that have sought to come to terms and perhaps achieve reconciliation with a Cold War past Contributors are Ann Curthoys Philip Deery Katherine Hite Michael Humphrey Su kyong Hwang Perry Johansson Judith Keene Betty O'Neill Peter Read Elizabeth Rechniewski Estela Valverde Adrian Vickers and Marivic Wyndham Charles Dickens - The Man Behind the Classics: Autobiographical Novels, Stories, Memoirs, Letters & Biographies Charles Dickens, 2017-10-16 This unique collection of Charles Dickens The Man Behind the Classics Autobiographical Novels Stories Memoirs Letters Biographies has been
