Conflict, Terrorism and the Media in Asia Benjamin Cole, 2006-09-27 This significant study examines a wide range of sub national conflicts across Asia showing how despite their significant differences they share the role of the media as interlocutor and explores how the media exercises this role

The Ethics of Nanotechnology, Geoengineering, and Clean Energy Andrew Maynard, Jack Stilgoe, 2020-07-26 Nanotechnology clean technology and geoengineering span the scale of human ingenuity from the imperceptibly small to the unimaginably large Yet they are united by a commonality of ethics that permeates how and why they are developed and how the resulting consequences are managed The articles in this volume provide a comprehensive account of current thinking around the ethics of development and use within each of the technological domains and addresses challenges and opportunities that cut across all three In particular the collection provides unique insights into the ethics of noumenal technologies technologies that are impossible to see or detect or conceive of with human senses or conventional tools This collection will be of relevance to anyone who is actively involved with ensuring the responsible and sustainable development of nanotechnology geoengineering or clean technology

Routledge Handbook of Internet Politics Andrew Chadwick, Philip N. Howard, 2008-08-18 The politics of the internet has entered the social science mainstream From debates about its impact on parties and election campaigns following momentous presidential contests in the United States to concerns over international security privacy and surveillance in the post 9 11 post 7 7 environment from the rise of blogging as a threat to the traditional model of journalism to controversies at the international level over how and if the internet should be governed by an entity such as the United Nations from the new repertoires of collective action open to citizens to the massive programs of public management reform taking place in the name of e government internet politics and policy are continually in the headlines The Routledge Handbook of Internet Politics is a collection of over thirty chapters dealing with the most significant scholarly debates in this rapidly growing field of study Organized in four broad sections Institutions Behavior Identities and Law and Policy the Handbook summarizes and criticizes contemporary debates while pointing out new departures A comprehensive set of resources it provides linkages to established theories of media and politics political communication governance deliberative democracy and social movements all within an interdisciplinary context The contributors form a strong international cast of established and junior scholars This is the first publication of its kind in this field a helpful companion to students and scholars of politics international relations communication studies and sociology Nations, National Narratives and Communities in the Asia-Pacific Norman Vasu, Yolanda Chin, Kam-ye Law, 2013-09-05 Many states in the Asia Pacific region are not built around a single homogenous people but rather include many large varied different national groups This book explores how states in the region attempt to develop commonality and a nation and the difficulties that arise It discusses the consequences which ensue when competing narratives clash and examines the nature of resistance to dominant narratives which arise It considers the problems in a wide range of countries in the region including Indonesia Malaysia Singapore Hong Kong Korea Australia and New Zealand A Democratic Architecture for the Welfare State Victor A. Pestoff, 2008-10-27 The welfare state faces various challenges in Scandinavia and many European countries today including a poor work environment in the public sector a growing democracy deficit and demographic obstacles In this new book Victor A Pestoff argues that the state cannot resolve these challenges alone or together with the market rather it requires the active participation of citizens and the third sector in order to overcome them and become more sustainable and flexible in the future This book addresses the need for a more democratic architecture for the European welfare state opening new perspectives for developing alternative channels for direct citizen participation at the sub municipal level of governance Pestoff finds that neither democratic theory nor welfare state theory devotes adequate attention to the contemporary role of the third sector as a service provider or to greater direct citizen participation in the provision of welfare services He shifts the focus of analysis from the input to the output side of the political system and explores new ways to promote a greater role for the third sector and more citizen participation in the provision of universal tax financed welfare services Part 1 discusses social economy actors in Sweden and Scandinavia both from a historical and future perspective Part 2 explores major issues for the third sector and welfare state including the allocation of an organization's surplus or profit work environment and service quality in public services and the third sector consumer perspectives on the social economy democratizing medical and health care in Japan and co production of childcare services in eight European countries Part 3 revisits the third sector and state in democratic theory and welfare theory as well as recognizing major hurdles to the third sector and democratization of the welfare state Part 4 concludes by summarizing the politics of participation in the welfare state Governance, Politics and the Environment Maria Francesch-Huidobro, 2008-07-09 In the past two decades research on environmental issues in East and Southeast Asian countries has mainly focused on existing institutional mechanisms of environmental management the establishment of new environmental management structures the introduction of incentives to improve natural capital and foster environmental protection and the culture of environmental or green groups Virtually no rigorous research has been directed into the nature and significance of the existing relationship between government and civil society in individual country studies with specific reference to the environmental policy sector or into how this relationship may be evolving This book explores this connection in Singapore and what causes it to evolve through three case narratives Its rationale is to address this gap in the literature from a governance theory perspective that focuses on state adaptation to the external environment and new forms of coordination and collaboration between government and civil society to tackle new societal problems The application of the governance theory approach to specific case studies is itself a topic that deserves much greater study than what it has so far received

Comparative Politics Daniele Caramani,2020 Comparative Politics provides a comprehensive introduction to political systems around the world It covers methods and theories the nation state institutions actors and processes policies and recent changes

Chinese Politics in the Hu Jintao Era: New Leaders, New Challenges Willy Lam,2016-07-01 Drawing on hundreds of interviews with top Chinese officials parliamentarians scholars and businessmen Willy Lam a renowned journalist and writer on Chinese affairs presents a first hand multi dimensional account of twenty first century China and the impact of fourth generation leaders including President Hu Jintao and Premier Wen Jiabao Lam goes behind the glitzy facade of nouveau riche Beijing and Shanghai to examine how the Hu leadership has tried to extend the Communist Party s mandate of heaven by tackling an array of daunting problems the weakening legitimacy of the Party s leadership restive peasants angry workers political stagnation over the lack of reform foreign relations difficulties unreliable energy supplies resurgent nationalism and the increasingly dubious Chinese model of development The author assesses possible contributions that the new classes of private businessmen professionals and intellectuals as well as new ideas such as nationalism globalization and federalism will make to economic prosperity and political liberalization The book also includes a chapter on foreign policy which contains an insightful account of Beijing s evolving and sometimes difficult relations with the United States Europe Japan and other major countries and blocs as well as the role of the People s Liberation Army

Asianism and the Politics of Regional Consciousness in Singapore Leong Yew,2013-11-20 Over the last two decades Singapore has undergone a substantial degree of Asianization Apart from participating in the Asian values debate of the 1990s re-visioning itself as New Asia and a global Asian hub and establishing Asian identities for the commodities it consumes and produces Singapore has also repurposed its modernity cultures and ethos along similar regionalist precepts However even in recent times Singapore continues to vacillate ambivalently between identifying with and differentiating itself from Asia Responding to the challenges Singapore faces in coming to terms with its Asian identity this book examines the complex cultural social and political underpinnings that have shaped Singapore s mainstream discourse on Asia Indeed it argues that its legacy as a colonial port city the exigencies of managing the post independence nation state and the larger forces of imperialism and capitalism all contribute to its politics of Asianism Taking a thoroughly interdisciplinary approach that spans history cultural studies postcolonialism and cultural geography Leong Yew reveals how Asia has been used to narrate Singapore's beginnings revalidate Singaporean ethnic culture and to consolidate its practices of consumption and commodification This book will be welcomed by students and scholars working across a range of fields including Asian culture and society Asian politics cultural theory and postcolonial studies Ageing in Singapore Peggy Teo, Kalyani Mehta, Leng Leng Thang, Angelique Chan, 2006-09-27 Providing original critical discourse from Asian writers recording Asian voices this fascinating text is an invaluable resource giving an in depth analysis of the experience of ageing in Singapore
