Devil's Mile
Alice Sparberg Alexiou, 2024-07-02

Devil's Mile tells the rip-roaring story of New York's oldest and most unique street. The Bowery was a synonym for despair throughout most of the 20th century. The very name evoked visuals of drunken bums passed out on the sidewalk and New Yorkers nicknamed it Satan's Highway, The Mile of Hell, and The Street of Forgotten Men. For years, the little businesses along the Bowery—stationers, dry goods sellers, jewelers, hatters—periodically asked the city to change the street's name. To have a Bowery address, they claimed, was hurting them; people did not want to venture there. But when New York exploded into real estate frenzy in the 1990s, developers discovered the Bowery. They rushed in and began tearing down. Today, Whole Foods, hipster night spots, and expensive lofts have replaced the old flophouses and dive bars, and the bad old Bowery no longer exists. In Devil's Mile, Alice Sparberg Alexiou tells the story of the Bowery, starting with its origins when forests covered the surrounding area and through the pre-Civil War years when country estates of wealthy New Yorkers lined this thoroughfare. She then describes the Bowery's deterioration in stunning detail, starting in the post-bellum years. She ends her historical exploration of this famed street in the present, bearing witness as the old Bowery buildings and the memories associated with them are disappearing.

Play It On My Radio
Giselle Renarde, 1901

Join award-winning queer Canadian author Giselle Renarde for a year's worth of music and memories. As we listen to songs from a variety of genres, Giselle shares anecdotes about growing up in the 80s, being a teen in the 90s, and listening to the radio on those long and lonely nights in her first apartment. Accompany Giselle on a musical journey as she revisits the days of her youth through song. From the introduction to Play It On My Radio: "My name is Giselle and I'm your new best friend. Well, maybe not best friend. A best friend usually listens in addition to talking, but that's not me. What I will do is be here every day to share whichever song pops into my head. Why? What's the point? Well, here's the thing: I'm a writer. It's a pretty lonely job. Over the years, I've become increasingly socially isolated, and you know what? It sucks. It sucks bad. The truth of the matter is that a lot of us are socially isolated these days. And not just older people; younger ones, too. There are friendly visitor programs for seniors, but those of us under 65 are kind of lost at sea. I speak from experience. If you need a no-pressure visit every day, let me be your friendly visitor. I'll bring a song—whichever song pops into my head, gets stuck in my head, or seems relevant to something that day. As a person with chronic depression, music has helped me more than anything. It's magic. I swear. I hope my little musical visits will give you something to look forward to every day because they ll certainly do that for me
