Lost Ground is a richly textured novel set in contemporary South Africa The murder of a beautiful woman shatters the rural village peace of Alfredville and her husband the police station commander is jailed as chief suspect Her cousin Peter a freelance writer in London returns to South Africa for the first time in decades unsettled curious but also in search of a career defining story As Peter abandons the neatly patterned story he had planned and is forced to participate in a community that he once despised he begins to reconsider his place in the world In search of Desir e s story he now starts to rewrite his own till events take an even more shocking turn Lost Ground explores questions of xenophobia and prejudice of national sexual and personal identity and what it means to be a foreigner wherever you go In Invisible Furies Christopher Turner returns to Paris after a thirty year absence He is here to extricate his best friend s son Eric from the mercenary machinations of some Parisian gold digger or so it is assumed at home in South Africa Christopher with melancholy memories of Paris is deeply ambivalent about the city and as for the young Eric Christopher remembers him as a brutish lout with little to recommend himself As Christopher comes to know and enjoy this ambiguous world he finds his moral categories challenged is beauty a trap for the innocent young or a self validating even ennobling attribute of a fully lived life Responding to the gentle appeal of Beatrice he feels ever more strongly that the young man s place is in Paris with her rather than on his father s farm in Franschoek But Eric has ideas of his own Exploring as in the widely applauded Lost Ground the tensions between the fatherland and a larger world Michiel Heyns turns an ironic eye on the most seductive city on earth and traces with humour and insight the invisible furies of the heart In A Sportful Malice a young South African literary scholar Michael Marcussi is offered via a Facebook contact a house in the Tuscan village of Gianocini and he accepts with alacrity this is just the space and quiet he needs to complete his study of Literary Representations of Tuscany But even before he has boarded his plane at Stansted Airport things start vexing him an obnoxious old man jumps the boarding queue and Michael is given the evil eye by a belligerent bovver boy covered in tattoos Nor is this to be his last meeting with these objectionable characters they turn up in unexpected places first in Florence and then in Gianocini itself with a frequency that cannot be purely coincidental In the meantime Michael is pursuing his own extracurricular agenda through the streets of Florence and the passages of the Uffizi then through the medieval alleys of Gianocini only to find himself the object of mysterious designs and the subject of some very disturbing paintings Add to this the innocent but curious Wouter the startlingly rude upper class harriidan Sophronia the beautiful but supercilious Paolo and a dog called Thanatos the Tuscan sun never shone on a more bizarre mix A Sportful Malice is a scintillating tale of love revenge and trippa Poet's Market 2019 Robert Lee Brewer, 2018-10-17 The most trusted guide to publishing poetry Want to get your poetry published There s no better tool for making it happen than Poet s Market 2019 which includes hundreds of publishing opportunities specifically for poets including listings for book and chapbook publishers print and online poetry publications contests and more These listings include contact information submission preferences insider tips on what specific editors want and when offered payment information In addition to the completely updated listings the 32nd edition of Poet s Market offers all new articles devoted to the craft and business of poetry including poets and collaboration dealing with problem editors increasing your odds of publication and more You will also gain access to Lists of conferences workshops organizations and grants Guidelines to more than 60 poetic forms you can use to diversify your poetic arsenal
