Jean-Marc Fontan et al., 2023-11-09 In this edited volume the authors present rich case studies of place based philanthropy in the United States and Canada that make a strong conceptual and empirical argument for the importance and growing imperative of place based philanthropy in 2023 and beyond Offering a multidisciplinary theoretical grounding in the connection between philanthropy and place the case studies range from foundations engaged in disaster recovery a First Nations UNESCO site to a funder collaborative engaging seven philanthropies targeting 30 neighborhoods in Montreal and a private foundation developing a model for holistic change that is being replicated in underserved communities throughout the U S among others Collectively the case studies bring into the conversation the meaning that individuals bring to their spaces as members of diverse communities as public and private actors seeking to effect change in underserved communities and the tension that may result as place is redefined through philanthropic work The themes and lessons learned that emerge from the case studies offer insights for practitioners scholars and students of philanthropy *Look before ye Loup; or, a Healin' Sa' for the Crackit Crowns of Country Politicians. Rainbolt, 2006-07-08 Discussions of rights are ubiquitous One constantly hears things such as The Chinese are violating Tibetan rights Landlords have a right that their tenants pay their rent Students have a right to be graded fairly Animals have a right not to suffer merely to bring pleasure to humans Abortion violates a fetus right to life We violate the rights of future generations when we pollute the water These statements assert that Tibetans landlords students animals fetuses and future generations all have rights Tibetans landlords students animals fetuses and future generations do not seem to have much in common When one presses for clarity it is very difficult to say precisely what a right is What is it to have a right That is the question this book seeks to answer To paint with an overly broad brush previous answers to this question can be divided into two groups Some hold interest benefit theories of rights while others hold choice will theories of rights Perhaps the first person to propose an interest benefit theory was Jeremy Bentham Its most cited contemporary defender is Joseph Raz The seminal statement of the choice theory was made by H L A Hart Carl Wellman is perhaps the most able defender of a will theory of rights The debate between these two groups of theories has been a productive one
