The Routledge Handbook on Ecosocialism Leigh Brownhill, Salvatore Engel-Di Mauro, Terran Giacomini, Ana Isla, Michael Löwy, Terisa E. Turner, 2021-12-27 Building on the classical works that have propelled and shaped ecosocialist thinking and action and more recent political developments on the ground the volume will provide a reference point for international work in the field both directly political and academic The Handbook acquaints readers with the varied roots of and sometimes conflicting approaches to ecosocialism It does not attempt any unification of ecosocialist currents Rather it aims to provide a resource that is as comprehensive as possible with respect not only to theorization and ideological framing but also and especially to existing projects practices and movements and giving a sense of the geographical reach that ecosocialism so far represents This includes scholarship that extends Marxist foundations and reflects on more recent political developments The theoretical and practice oriented moorings are buttressed by discussions on movements frameworks and prefigurative processes as well as on social struggles occurring within institutional settings Together the collection offers a reference point for international work in the field in social movements and in institutional transformations Providing detailed but accessible overviews of the complex varied dimensions of ecosocialism the Handbook is an essential up to date guide and reference not only for researchers but also for undergraduate and graduate students in geography environmental studies development studies sociology and political science as well as for policymakers and activists
