Ward, Kristen Foley, 2023-04-14 The Emerald Handbook of the Sociology of Emotions for a Post Pandemic World offers a sociological examination of the lived impacts of the COVID 19 pandemic through culture s of emotion offering a refreshing contribution to a new and exciting sub discipline Personal Life Carol Smart, 2007-09-17 Offers a conceptual approach to understanding personal life which realigns empirical research with theoretical analysis This work emphasises ideas of connectedness relationality and embeddedness rejecting many of the assumptions found in theories of individualisation and de traditionalisation by authors such as Beck and Beck Gernsheim For Love of the Prophet Noah Salomon, 2016-10-25 For some the idea of an Islamic state serves to fulfill aspirations for cultural sovereignty and new forms of ethical political practice For others it violates the proper domains of both religion and politics Yet while there has been much discussion of the idea and ideals of the Islamic state its possibilities and impossibilities surprisingly little has been written about how this political formation is lived For Love of the Prophet looks at the Republic of Sudan s twenty five year experiment with Islamic statehood Focusing not on state institutions but rather on the daily life that goes on in their shadows Noah Salomon s careful ethnography examines the lasting effects of state Islamization on Sudanese society through a study of the individuals and organizations working in its midst Salomon investigates Sudan at a crucial moment in its history balanced between unity and partition secular and religious politics peace and war when those who desired an Islamic state were rethinking the political form under which they had lived for nearly a generation Countering the dominant discourse Salomon depicts contemporary Islamic politics not as a response to secularism and Westernization but as a node in a much longer conversation within Islamic thought augmented and reappropriated as state projects of Islamic reform became objects of debate and controversy Among the first books to delve into the making of the modern Islamic state For Love of the Prophet reveals both novel political ideals and new articulations of Islam as it is rethought through the lens of the nation

Continuity & Change Among Canadian Mennonite Brethren Peter M. Hamm,1987-03-09 More than 450 years after their birth in the Anabaptist movement 125 years after their secession from Russian Mennonitism and 60 years after their immigration to Canada the Mennonite Brethren exhibit specific and measurable signs of sectarian viability and religious vitality To explain the persistence of the sect Hamm analyses the process of sacralization within the Canadian Mennonite Brethren Church which safeguards identity a system of meaning or a definition of reality and the process of secularization which erodes boundaries dislodges stable structures and destroys identity It is an oversimplification the author argues to insist that the factors of continuity ethical and cognitive norms family solidarity ethnicity worship evangelism community and church structures and service agencies are solely integrative and that the factors of change urbanization education occupational change and economic affluence are solely disruptive Instead a complex dialectic between the two processes is at work that prevents restrictive rigidity within the sect and excessive accommodation to the host society According to the author this analysis of the Canadian Mennonite Brethren becomes a case study to test the utility of an identity theory of religion which hinges on the integration differentiation dialectic It is at the same time a serious self study in religious sociology by which the author seeks to gain a better understanding of the processes of growth and decline of continuity and change and of the ongoing tension resulting from the religious movement s confrontation with society
