Love Is a Radiant Light Hannah Skandar, 2019-03-20 A man who prays lives out the mystery of existence and a man who does not pray scarcely exists Thus writes St Charbel Makhlouf 1828 1898 a Maronite monk and priest from Lebanon whose reputation for sanctity spread widely during his life and whose heavenly intercession has worked countless miracles after his death St Charbel's homilies and proverbs are reminiscent of the sayings of the Desert Fathers simple homespun and direct yet shining and profound This holy monk speaks from a reservoir of silence about the fundamentals of the Faith and targets the temptations facing all Christians today the flight from suffering excessive attachment to comforts pride over accomplishments complacency factiousness substituting talk for action fear of proclaiming the truth in an age of hostile unbelief Alert to the reality of spiritual warfare St Charbel calls each one of us to hold fast to the Cross the center of the universe and the key to heaven and defy the devil who seeks our ruin This collection of some of the most beautiful words spoken by St Charbel is augmented by a short biography that will bring him to the attention of those who have not yet made his acquaintance or profited from his wisdom

When Someone You Love is Wiccan Carl McColman, 2008-05-21 The author of The Complete Idiot's Guide to Paganism offers an accessible introduction to one of the world's most misunderstood spiritual practices Today the spiritual traditions of Wicca and Paganism are enjoying a renaissance among the world's fastest growing religions. But for many years these life-affirming belief systems have been tragically misunderstood. Especially since so many Wiccan newcomers are young it is understandably a source of concern for many parents, friends, and associates of today's witches. In this accessible volume spiritual scholar Carl McColman dispels the common misconceptions about Wicca and Paganism. McColman offers an objective, honest introduction to this newly popular old religion while providing comfort to worried readers.

Arms and the Man, The Devil's Disciple, and Caesar and Cleopatra George Bernard Shaw, 2021. The three plays in this volume are some of George Bernard Shaw's most popular and frequently performed works. They demonstrate the development of Shawian comedy and contain early formulations of his idea of the Superman, an extraordinary individual who catalyzes the evolution of mankind. Arms and the Man (1894) was Shaw's first commercial success and the first public confirmation that he could make playwriting his profession. It is the first of what Shaw called his pleasant plays, comedies that critique idealism in general rather than specific social problems, as his earlier plays did. Specifically, Shaw undermines the romance of wartime courage, reckless heroism, and nationalist pride among British spectators while using the Serbo-Bulgarian War of 1886 as an exotic veneer. Shaw wrote The Devil's Disciple (1897) for William Terriss, an actor known for his swashbuckling roles who had requested a play that would contain every surefire melodramatic situation: mistaken identities, terrifying adventures, and last-second escapes, and frequent emotional outpourings. Caesar and Cleopatra (1898) is Shaw's revision of Shakespeare's Julius Caesar and Antony and Cleopatra, as well as a fusion of the pragmatism and unconventionality of the heroes of Arms and the Man and The Devil's Disciple into a portrait of jocular, morally serious leadership.

Marriage Is the Devil's Playhouse

Anne Stone, 2002-05-07. This is not a book to be taken lightly, nor is it intended to be sensational. It is a serious result of three decades of painful soul-searching. Neither is the book to be considered disparaging of the institution of marriage. In many ways, it can be regarded as a psychological study of domestic abuse. In a graceful and sometimes humorous manner, Ms. Stone shares her life experiences with the reader so as to give a realistic insight into those horrendous experiences of abuse which society in general prefers to regard as behind-closed-doors matters. The author apologizes for passages that the reader might consider indecent or obscene. This subject is an ugly and shameful part of our nation's heritage, and those accounts are needed to stress the obligation for change. Ms. Stone realizes that the problems of this question of marriage lie in the grey morass of the conflicts of STATE and CHURCH. She feels that if ever we are to have stable family lives, our representatives for study in this area must become more realistic, become more enlightened, and have the cooperation of the press and public.
