Matisse Jack D. Flam, Henri Matisse, 1986      The Biography Book Daniel S. Burt, 2001-02-28 From Marilyn to Mussolini people captivate people A E s Biography best selling autobiographies and biographical novels testify to the popularity of the genre But where does one begin Collected here are descriptions and evaluations of over 10 000 biographical works including books of fact and fiction biographies for young readers and documentaries and movies all based on the lives of over 500 historical figures from scientists and writers to political and military leaders to artists and musicians Each entry includes a brief profile autobiographical and primary sources and recommended works Short reviews describe the pertinent biographical works and offer insight into the qualities and special features of each title helping readers to find the best biographical material available on hundreds of fascinating individuals      Matisse, the Man and His Art, 1869-1918 Jack D. Flam, 1986 Weaves together interpretations of Matisse s art with the events of the artist s life tracing the development of the great painter s style and explaining how many masterpieces were created      Matisse on Art, Revised Edition Henri Matisse, 1995-07-24 Ed Brooklyn College and City University of New York Revised edition Includes new texts introduction biography overview      The Expanding Discourse Norma Broude, 2018-02-23 A sequel to the pioneering volume Feminism and Art History Questioning the Litany published in 1982 The Expanding Discourse contains 29 essays on artists and issues from the Renaissance to the present representing some of the best feminist art historical writing of the past decade Chronologically arranged the essays demonstrate the abundance diversity and main conceptual trends in recent feminist scholarship      Self-Portrait in Words Max Beckmann, 1997 One of the most important German artists of the twentieth century Max Beckmann was labeled a degenerate artist by the Nazis and chose exile His artistic production encompassed the realism and figural themes of his early works to the provocatively blunt portraiture critical urban views and richly layered symbolic works for which he is now universally recognized Although he was a prolific writer his written work has never before been collected and translated into English Beckmann is known for the depth pungency and tremendous sensuous force of his works only in the last twenty years have we come to learn more about his personal life Self Portrait in Words maps out Beckmann s life and draws attention to the occasions on or for which he produced his writings to the importance writing had for him as a form of expression and to both the contemporary and personal references of his ideas and images      Scribner's Monthly, an Illustrated Magazine for the People , 1914      Matisse's Poets Kathryn Brown, 2017-09-21 Throughout his career Henri Matisse used imagery as a means of engaging critically with poetry and prose by a diverse range of authors Kathryn Brown offers a groundbreaking account of Matisse s position in the literary cross currents of 20th century France and explores ways in which reading influenced the artist s work in a range of media This study argues that the livre d artiste became the privileged means by which Matisse enfolded literature into his own idiom and demonstrated the centrality of his aesthetic to modernist debates about authorship and creativity By tracing the compositional and interpretive choices that Matisse made as a painter print maker and reader in the field of book production this study offers a new theoretical account of visual art s capacity to function as a form of literary criticism and extends debates about the gendering of 20th century bibliophilia Brown also demonstrates the importance of Matisse s self placement in relation to the French literary canon in the charged political climate of the Second World War and its aftermath Through a combination of archival resources art history and literary criticism this study offers a new interpretation of Matisse s artist s books and will be of interest to art historians literary scholars and researchers in book history and modernism Picasso Michael C. FitzGerald, William Robinson, Pablo Picasso, William H. Robinson, Wadsworth Atheneum Museum of Art, Cleveland Museum of Art, 2001-01-01 A study of Picasso s depictions of the artist s studio in paintings drawings and prints throughout his career showing how he found there a profound expression of the creative focus Most of the book analyzes relevant paintings and drawings and there is an essay on the painting La Vie Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Art, V. 3 Mary M. Gedo, 2013-05-13 This new hardcover annual offers a unique scholarly format an interdisciplinary dialogue that it is hoped will foster the development of a sound useful methodology for applying psychoanalytic insight to art and artists The series provides a medium for those who study art those who interpret it and occasionally those who create it formally to explore the meaning of an artistic work as the direct reflection of the inner world of its creator Within each volume individual topics are addressed by either an art historian or a psychoanalyst with a response frequently tendered by an expert from the other field Reviews of important books of cross disciplinary interest are treated in a similar manner and include rebuttals by the authors themselves It is precisely this exchange of ideas among scholars with difference perspectives on the meaning of a work of art that sets PPA apart from the standard art history publication Its depth of scholarship coupled with its innovative format make it a fascinating addition to the burgeoning field of psychoanalytic studies of art history William Carlos Williams and the Ethics of Painting Terence Diggory, 2014-07-14 In Peter Brueghel s painting The Adoration of the Kings the depiction of Joseph and Mary suggested to William Carlos Williams a paradigm for the relationship between poem and painting reader and text man and woman that he had sought throughout his life to establish a marriage that can acknowledge and withstand infidelity Here Terence Diggory explores the meaning of this paradigm within the context of Williams s career and also of recent critical and cultural debate which frequently assumes violence and oppression to be inherent in all forms of relationship Williams s special attention to the art of painting Diggory shows put him in a position to challenge such assumptions In contrast to the ethics of reading deduced by J Hillis Miller from the premises of deconstruction Diggory illuminates Williams s ethics of painting by applying Julia Kristeva s concepts of psychoanalytic transference and nonoppressive desire The abstract or objectless space in which such desire operates is typified by modernist painting for both Kristeva and Williams but foreshadowed in the work of earlier artists such as Bellini and Brueghel Originally published in 1991 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905     Arts Digest ,1929     Modern French Art Russell Potter,1927     Poussin's Paintings David Carrier,1993     Art History, Narratology, and Twentieth-Century Chinese Art Lian Duan,2023-07-28 This study constructs a framework of narratology for art history and rewrites the development of twentieth century Chinese art from a narratological perspective Theoretically and methodologically oriented this is a self reflective meta art history studying the art historical narratives while narrating the story of modern and contemporary Chinese art Thus this book explores the three layers of narrative within the narratological framework the first hand fabula the secondary narration and the tertiary narrativization With this tertiary narrativization the reader author presents three types of narrative the grand narrative of the central thesis of this book the middle range narrative of the chapter theses and case analyses supporting these theses The focus of this tertiary narrativization is the interaction between Western influence on Chinese art and the Chinese response to this influence The central thesis is that this interaction conditioned and shaped the development of Chinese art at every historical turning point in the twentieth century The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history critical theory Chinese studies and cultural studies     The New International Year Book ,1928     Self-portrait Carla Lonzi,2020-01-01 Recorded and transcribed throughout the 1960s Carla Lonzi s Self portrait ruptures the linear tradition of art historical writing Lonzi first abolishes the role of the critic her own seeking change over self preservation by theorising against the act of theorising This is the voice of feminist experimentalism in Italian art and literature and here Lonzi speaks for herself in English Self portrait montages her verbatim conversations with fourteen prominent artists working at the time all men except one Lonzi s vital feeling that it was impossible to respond professionally to the political and existential problems embedded in the production and distribution of artworks drives the book s contingent structure Artmaking struck Lonzi as the invitation to be together in a humanly satisfying way This first English translation brings Lonzi s final work of criticism before her break with art to an international audience Her uncompromising enactment and pragmatic drop out discontinues the narration of postwar modern art in Italy and beyond     Cézanne to Picasso Rebecca A.
