Mather, Frederic Fairchild Sherman, 2006      Landscape with Figures Malcolm Goldstein, 2000-11-30 How did the United States become not only the leading contemporary art scene in the world but also the leading market for art The answer has to do not only with the talents of American artists or even the size of the American economy but also and especially the skills and entrepreneurship of American art dealers Their story has not been told until now Landscape with Figures is the first history of art dealing in the United States following the profession from eighteenth century portrait and picture salesmen in the colonies to the high profile jet set gallery owners of today Providing anecdotal and carefully researched biographies of the prominent dealers from more than two centuries of trade author Malcolm Goldstein shows how magnanimous personalities and social networking helped to shape the way Americans have bought and valued art These dealers range from Michael Paff whose enthusiasm often overshadowed his expertise but nonetheless helped him sell faux Old Master paintings to major collectors in the early nineteenth century to the imperious Joseph Duveen dealer to magnates like Henry Clay Frick to visionary Leo Castelli who helped to usher in a revolution in modern art during the 1960s by showing such avant garde artists as Jasper Johns Robert Rauschenberg and Andy Warhol Goldstein also shows that the American art trade while male dominated has been galvanized by female dealers including the inimitable Edith Gregor Halpert Peggy Guggenheim and Mary Boone Their fascinating stories unfold in the context of world art history the rise of major art institutions like the Museum of Modern Art and the Whitney Museum and the growing zeal of art collectors who would eventually pay millions for individual works of art Unprecedented and critical to understanding today's art world Landscape with Figures is a must for artists art history students and art lovers      Happiness or Its Absence in Art William Barcham, Ronit Milano, 2014-10-02

Sherman, 2011-11-15 For over a century the idea of primitivism has motivated artistic modernism Focusing on the three decades after World War II known in France as les trente glorieuses despite the loss of most of the country's colonial empire this probing and expansive book argues that primitivism played a key role in a French society marked by both economic growth and political turmoil In a series of chapters that consider significant aspects of French culture including the creation of new museums of French folklore and of African and Oceanic arts and the development of tourism against the backdrop of nuclear testing in French Polynesia Daniel J Sherman shows how primitivism a collective fantasy born of the colonial encounter proved adaptable to a postcolonial inward looking age of mass consumption Following the likes of Claude L. Vi Strauss André Putman and Jean Dubuffet through decorating magazines museum galleries and Tahiti's pristine lagoons this interdisciplinary study provides a new perspective on primitivism as a cultural phenomenon and offers fresh insights into the eccentric edges of contemporary French history

Art Held Hostage: The Battle Over the Barnes Collection John Anderson, 2013-09-03 Money pretension horrid behavior by cultured people New York John Anderson's tale delivers it all in fabulously juicy detail This is the story of how a fabled art foundation the greatest collection of impressionist and postimpressionist art in America including 69 Cezannes 60 Matisse's and 44 Picassos among many priceless others came to be and how more than a decade of legal squabbling brought it to the brink of collapse and to a move that many believe betrayed the wishes of the founder Dr Albert C Barnes 1872-1951 Art Held Hostage is now updated with a new epilogue by the author covering the current state of this international treasure and the endless battle over its fate

Picasso's War Hugh Eakin, 2023-09-26 A riveting story of how dueling ambitions and the power of prodigy made America the cultural center of the world and Picasso the most famous artist alive in the shadow of World War II Eakin has mastered this material The book soars The New York Times Book Review Editors Choice ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR Vanity Fair The New York Times Book Review The New Yorker In January 1939 Pablo Picasso was renowned in Europe but disdained by many in the United States One year later Americans across the country were clamoring to see his art How did the controversial leader of the Paris avant garde break through to the heart of American culture The answer begins a generation earlier when a renegade Irish American lawyer named John Quinn set out to build the greatest collection of Picassos in existence His dream of a museum to house them died with him until it was rediscovered by Alfred H Barr Jr a cultural visionary who at the age of twenty seven became the director of New York's new Museum of Modern Art Barr and Quinn's shared goal would be thwarted in the years to come by popular hostility by the Depression by Parisian intrigues and by Picasso himself It would take Hitler's campaign against Jews and modern art and Barr's fraught alliance with Paul Rosenberg Picasso's persecuted dealer to get Picasso's most important paintings out of Europe Mounted in the shadow of war the groundbreaking exhibition Picasso Forty Years of His Art would launch Picasso in America define MoMA as we know it and shift the focus of the art world from Paris to New York Picasso's War is the never before told story about how a single exhibition a decade in the making irrevocably changed American taste and in doing so saved dozens of the twentieth century's most enduring artworks from the Nazis Through a deft combination of new scholarship and vivid storytelling Hugh Eakin shows how two men and their obsession with Picasso changed the art world forever
