Matter Of Images Essays On Representations:

The Matter of Images Richard Dyer, 2013-04-15 Now published in a revised second edition The Matter of Images searches through the resonances of the term representation analysing images in terms of why they matter what they are made of and the material realities they refer to Richard Dyer's analyses consider representations of out groups and traditionally dominant groups alike and encompass the eclectic texts of contemporary culture from queers to straights political correctness representations of Empire and films including Gilda Papillon and The Night of the Living Dead Essays new to the second edition discuss Lillian Gish as the ultimate white movie star the representation of whiteness in the South in Birth of a Nation and society's fascination with serial killers The Matter of Images is distinctive in its commitment to writing politically about contemporary culture while insisting on the importance of understanding the formal qualities and complexity of the images it investigates

Representation Stuart Hall, 1997-04-08 This broad ranging text offers a comprehensive outline of how visual images language and discourse work as systems of representation Individual chapters explore representation as a signifying practice in a rich diversity of social contexts and institutional sites the use of photography in the construction of national identity and culture other cultures in ethnographic museums fantasies of the racialized Other in popular media film and image the construction of masculine identities in discourses of consumer culture and advertising and the gendering of narratives in television soap operas

Representations of HIV/AIDS in Contemporary Hispano-American and Caribbean Culture Gustavo Subero, 2016-04-08 Exploring the mechanisms and strategies used in different cultures across Hispano America and the Caribbean to narrativise represent and understand HIV AIDS as a social and human phenomenon this book examines a wide range of cultural artistic and media texts as well as issues of human phenomenology to understand the ways in which HIV positive individuals make sense of their own lives and of the ways in which the rest of society sees them Drawing on a variety of cultural texts from cinema television photography and literature the author considers the manner in which contemporary cultural forms have shaped a body of public opinion in response to the social and cultural impact of HIV AIDS re interpreting the condition in the light of advances in treatment With attention to both the temporality and spatiality of production this book examines whether heterosexual and homosexual and masculine and feminine bodies are narrativised in the same manner considering the question of whether representations foster discrimination of any kind The book also asks whether representations across Latin America are homogenous or varied according to national social or cultural context and explores the commonalities between the representations of HIV AIDS in Hispano America and the Caribbean and other global narratives A detailed study of the various representations of HIV AIDS and the construction of public opinion this book will appeal to scholars of cultural media and film studies the sociology of health the body and illness and Latin American and Caribbean Studies

Representations of Femininity in American Genre Cinema David Greven, 2011-04-25 The theme of female transformation informs the Hollywood representation of femininity from the studio

era to the present Whether it occurs physically emotionally or on some other level transformation allows female protagonists to negotiate their own complex desires and to resist the compulsory marriage plot A sweeping study of Hollywood from Now Voyager The Heiress and Flamingo Road to Carrie the Alien films The Brave One and the slasher horror genre this book boldly unsettles commonplace understandings of genre film female sexuality and Freudian theory as it makes a strong new case for the queer relevance of female representation Film Noir Jennifer Fay, Justus Nieland, 2009-12-04 The term film noir still conjures images of a uniquely American malaise hard boiled detectives fatal women and the shadowy hells of urban life But from its beginnings film noir has been an international phenomenon and its stylistic icons have migrated across the complex geo political terrain of world cinema This book traces film noir's emergent connection to European cinema its movement within a cosmopolitan culture of literary and cinematic translation and its postwar consolidation in the US Europe Asia the Middle East and Latin America The authors examine how film noir crosses national boundaries speaks to diverse international audiences and dramatizes local crimes and the crises of local spaces in the face of global phenomena like world wide depression war political occupation economic and cultural modernization decolonization and migration This fresh study of film noir and global culture also discusses film noir's heterogeneous style and revises important scholarly debates about this perpetually alluring genre The Craft of Criticism Michael Kackman, Mary Celeste Kearney, 2025-08-19 With contributions from 35 leading media scholars this collection provides a comprehensive overview of the main methodologies of critical media studies Fully revised and updated throughout the chapters in this second edition address various methods of textual analysis as well as reception studies policy studies production studies and contextual multi method approaches like intertextuality and cultural geography Film and television are at the heart of the collection which also addresses digital technologies and new research tools in such areas as software studies gaming and social media Each chapter includes an intellectual history of a particular method or approach a discussion of why and how it was used to study a particular medium or media relevant examples of influential work in the area and an in depth review of a case study drawn from the author's own research Together the chapters in this collection give media scholars and critics a complete toolbox of essential critical media studies methodologies Muslim Voices in School , 2009-01-01 This book is a collection of readable accessible compelling varied voiced passionate real textured multi faceted hybrid fearless fearful cautious bold modest and inspired accounts of living Islam in relation to mainstream schooling in the West The book helps to make the diverse experiences of Muslim students from elementary through university student through professor both contextual and complex The politics and education about Islam Muslims Arabs Turks Iranians and all that is associated with the West's popular imagination of the monolithic Middle East has long been framed within problematics The goal of this book is to push back against the reductive mainstream narratives told about Muslim and Middle Eastern heritage students for generations if not centuries in mainstream schools The chapters are each authored by Muslim acculturated scholars This book will be of interest to teachers administrators students and scholars As well the content is suited to fields of study including ethnic studies critical multicultural education anti oppression approaches to education curriculum studies social issues in education social contexts of education and qualitative research in education WINNER of the National Association for Multicultural Education s 2010 Philip C Chinn book award Fashioning Adultery David M. Turner,2002-08-15 This 2002 book provides a major survey of representations of adultery in later seventeenth and early eighteenth century England Bringing together a wide variety of literary and legal sources including sermons pamphlets plays diaries periodicals trial reports and the records of marital litigation it documents a growing diversity in perceptions of marital infidelity in this period against the backdrop of an explosion in print culture and a decline in the judicial regulation of sexual immorality In general terms the book charts and explains a gradual transformation of ideas about extra marital sex whereby the powerfully established religious argument that adultery was universally a sin became increasingly open to challenge The book charts significant developments in the idiom in which sexually transgressive behaviour was discussed showing how evolving ideas of civility and social refinement and new thinking about gender difference influenced assessments of immoral behaviour Gender, Race, and Class in Media Gail Dines,Jean McMahon Humez,2011 51 contemporary articles are new to this edition with 14 classic pieces retained from prior editions Ethics and International Marketing Marilyn Carrigan,Svetla Marinova,Isabelle Szmigin,2005 The aim of this e book is to provide diverse views on the complexity of ethical issues in the context of international marketing It is the outcome of the efforts and contributions of several authors and reviewers who are passionate supporters of the overwhelming need for international marketing ethics All papers included in the e book have been subjected to a rigorous review process by internationally renowned experts in the field andererseits - Yearbook of Transatlantic German Studies William Collins Donahue,Georg Mein,Rolf Parr,2023-06-22 andererseits seeks to provide a forum for unique and exciting research and reflections on topics related to the German speaking world and the field of German Studies Works presented in the publication come from a wide variety of genres including book reviews poetry essays editorials forum discussions academic notes lectures and traditional peer reviewed academic articles In addition contributions by journalists librarians archivists and other commentators interested in German Studies broadly conceived By publishing such a diverse array of material we hope to demonstrate the extraordinary value of the humanities in general and German Studies in particular on a variety of intellectual and cultural levels Contributors to this volume Yvonne Delhey Andreas Erb Bernhard Fischer R diger G rner Spencer Hawkins Steffen Kaup Selim zdogan Hugh Ridley Gertrud Maria R sch Peter Stamm Wim Wenders and others The Performative Representations of Masculinity in Quentin Tarantino's Cinema Justin Russell Greene,2023-08-22 In this book Justin Russell Greene examines how Quentin Tarantino uses his auteur identity to further cement the masculine tropes of Hollywood and ultimately society through language visual aesthetics and performative representations of masculinity in his films and media appearances Greene posits that the careful crafting of his auteur persona allows Tarantino to project a consistent version of what it means to be a writer director artist and that through his interview and speeches he reveals the deeper intensions behind the representations his characters present in his films However although he is valorized by audiences media personalities and peers as an artistic genius Tarantino traffics in many of the systemic issues embedded within the United States socio cultural environment Greene argues that although Tarantino promotes a political vision in his films and public appearances that illuminates the restrictions of hegemonic masculinity this is not sufficiently effective at truly disrupting entrenched ideologies about masculinity in U S culture due to how Tarantino hides his critical takes within genre stereotypes Scholars of film studies gender studies and popular culture will find this book of particular interest Chicano-Chicana Americana Anthony Macías,2023-02-07 This exciting new cultural history documents how Mexican Americans in twentieth century film television and theater surpassed stereotypes fought for equal opportunity and subtly transformed the mainstream American imaginary Through biographical sketches of underappreciated Mexican American actors this work sheds new light on our national character and reveals the untold story of a multicentered polycultural America Exploring Criminal and Illegal Enterprise Gerard McElwee,Robert Smith,2015-05-22 This book examines the illegal behaviour of entrepreneurs and discusses how criminal entrepreneurs acquire information learn from their entrepreneurial experiences and utilize acquired knowledge to develop their organizations Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren,2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included Keywords Re-oriented Joachim Gentz,2009 Television Toby Miller,2003 Fur Nation Chantal Nadeau,2005-07-05 Fur Nation traces the interwoven relationships between sexuality national identity and colonialism Chantal Nadeau shows how Canada a white settler colony bases its existence and its nationhood on a complex sexual economy based on women wrapped in fur Nadeau traces the centrality of fur through a series of intriguing case studies including Hollywood s take on the 330 year history of the Hudson Bay Company founded to exploit Canada s rich fur resources the life of a postwar fur fashion photographer a 1950s musical called Fur Lady the battle between Brigitte Bardot s anti fur activists and the fur industry Nadeau highlights the connection between fur ladies women wearing exploiting or promoting furs and the beaver symbol of Canada and nature s master builder She shows how in postcolonial Canada the nation is sexualised around female reproduction and fur which is both a crucial factor in economic development and a powerful symbol through which the nation itself is conceived and commodified Fur Nation demonstrates that for Canada fur really is the fabric of a nation Music Video and the Politics of Representation Diane Railton, 2011-07-07 How can we engage critically with music video and its role in popular culture What do contemporary music videos have to tell us about patterns of cultural identity today Based around an eclectic series of vivid case studies this fresh and timely examination is an entertaining and enlightening analysis of the forms pleasures and politics that music videos offer In rethinking some classic approaches from film studies and popular music studies and connecting them with new debates about the current state of feminism and feminist theory Railton and Watson show why and how we should be studying music videos in the twenty first century Through its thorough overview of the music video as a visual medium this is an ideal textbook for Media Studies students and all those with an interest in popular music and cultural studies

Locating Queerness in the Media Jane Campbell, Theresa Carilli, 2017-07-25 Locating Queerness in the Media A New Look examines how media images of the LGBTQ community create a universal consciousness about the existence of queer people ranging from tragic and villainous to upbeat and courageous In this book contributors explore how our media world invites a tension that marginalizes the LGBTQ community It examines what a queer sensibility means and how the queer community is creating new ways to study itself Throughout the book contributors explore specific media images that resonate throughout the media casting the community in a particular manner Ultimately its goal is to promote an understanding of the LGBTQ community
