Congress. House. Committee on Patents, 1926 Arts of Possession D. Vance Smith, 2003 An innovative work of both economic anthropology and literary history Arts of Possession draws on philosophical theoretical literary historical and archival sources and insights to situate the household at the center of the social and cultural imagination of fourteenth century England D Vance Smith argues that in a period commonly represented as precapitalist there actually existed a sophisticated economic discourse and that discourse underlies common forms of representation and the writing of literary texts His work provides a new historiography of capital and of the development of the relation between economic sophistication and cultural practices Smith reads well known and less appreciated works such as Winner and Waster Sir Launfal The Canterbury Tales and Piers Plowman for what they can tell us about the surpluses and economies that drew the medieval imagination and about the complex ethics of possession at the heart of the fourteenth century household In bringing this to light Smith's book itself becomes an eloquent meditation on the poetics and ethics of possession The House of Condulmer Alan M. Death as they strove for status and wealth over the course of the fourteenth and early fifteenth centuries The Condulmers experienced mixed fortunes in their efforts at social mobility Exiled after their participation in a failed revolt against the Venetian state they nevertheless managed to accrue a great deal of wealth in the period before the Black Death In the aftermath of the plague which ravaged Venice and wiped out many lines of the family the fortune of the Condulmers was concentrated in two main branches whose members are the subject of this book Through original research drawing on hundreds of unpublished archival sources Alan M Stahl traces the careers and changing personal circumstances of five members of the Condulmer family Jacobello who used his civic participation and donations to achieve noble status for himself and his descendants but impoverished himself and his family in the process Vielmo a moneychanger who paraded around in the trappings of wealth attempting to imitate the appearance of his noble cousins Franceschina who used her power over dowries to get noble husbands for her daughters and stepdaughters Simoneto who achieved great wealth through Mediterranean commerce but lost it in the crash of the bank in which he was a partner and Gabriele who would eventually become one of the most consequential and reviled popes of the Renaissance Eugene IV The House of Condulmer brings readers into the world of intrigue finance religion and plague in medieval Venice capturing the vicissitudes of life in the one of the wealthiest cities of the world on the eve of the Renaissance Merchants Record and Show Window, 1918
