Merely Players Portraits From Northern Ireland:

Merely Players Bobbie Hanvey, 1999-01-01 This collection features a selection of Bobbie Hanvey's portraits of personalities who have shaped or simply lived in Northern Ireland since 1970 'The Age-old Struggle Jack Hepworth, 2021 The Age Old Struggle analyses the internal dynamics of Irish republicanism between the outbreak of the Troubles in 1969 and the Good Friday Agreement of 1998 Drawing upon the words and writings of more than 250 Irish republicans this book scrutinises the movement's historical and contemporary complexity Yet it also examines the centripetal forces which connected republican organisations through decades of struggle Reconstructions Steafán Hanvey, 2018-10-22 World renowned Northern Irish photographer Bobbie Hanvey captured some of The Troubles most defining and devastating moments Bobbie is lauded as much for these photographs as he is for his iconic portraits of figures like Seamus Heaney Gerry Adams Brian Friel and Ian Paisley In Reconstructions these photographs take on even greater resonance when set in context by Bobbie's eldest son singer songwriter and poet Steafán Hanvey Inspired by the photographs he often witnessed coming to life in the darkroom Steafán's memories of a childhood less ordinary are presented in a lyric poetry filled with startling imagery and insights that capture the wit cadences anguish and dreams of the people of Northern Ireland Reconstructions daringly conflates the public and the private and acts as a timely reminder of just how futile and unnecessary internecine conflict really is But most of all Bobbie and Steafán father and son have produced a book that is a testament to the strength and resilience of ordinary people living through extraordinary times The Cabinet Portrait Gallery, 1892 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2002 Fellow Men Bridget Alsdorf, 2022-07-12 Focusing on the art of Henri Fantin Latour 1836 1904 and his colleagues Gustave Courbet Edgar Degas Edouard Manet Frédéric Bazille and Pierre Auguste Renoir Fellow Men argues for the importance of the group as a defining subject of nineteenth century French painting Through close readings of some of the most ambitious paintings of the realist and impressionist generation Bridget Alsdorf offers new insights into how French painters understood the shifting boundaries of their social world and reveals the fragile masculine bonds that made up the avant garde A dedicated realist who veered between extremes of sociability and hermetic isolation Fantin Latour painted group dynamics over the course of two decades from 1864 to 1885 This was a period of dramatic change in French history and art events like the Paris Commune and the rise and fall of impressionism raised serious doubts about the power of collectivism in art and life Fantin Latour's monumental group portraits and related works by his friends and colleagues from the 1850s through the 1880s represent varied visions of collective identity and test the limits of association as both a social and an artistic pursuit By examining the bonds and frictions that animated their social circles Fantin Latour and his cohorts developed a new pictorial language for the modern group one of fragmentation exclusion and willful withdrawal into interior space that nonetheless presented individuality as radically relational British Books, 1907 Alan Shearer: Portrait Of A Legend - Captain

Fantastic Euan Reddie, 2007-05-31 Alan Shearer was born in 1970 in Gosforth Newcastle A football mad youngster he captained his school side and wowed spectators with his already amazing skills Determined to make it in the world of football he decided to leave school at the age of 15 and headed to Southampton where he had been picked up by a professional scout Shearer quickly became a sought after talent as he moved on to Blackburn Rovers turning down a lucrative deal at Manchester United in the process and in a record breaking transfer deal he finally made it back to his beloved North East when he signed for Newcastle United He is a star player with dedicated leadership skills As captain of the Toon Army he inspired his team and proudly leads them out onto the pitch with determination to win Early in 2006 he equalled the club record of 200 goals set by Newcastle great Jackie Milburn A footballing legend and hero to the fanatical and faithful Magpies fans Shearer is one of the most important names in modern football This book charts his rise to first team fame and his happy homecoming to the proud North East

Cinema and Northern Ireland John Hill, 2019-07-25 Traces the history of film production in Northern Ireland from the beginnings of a local film industry in the 1920s and 1930s when the first Northern Irish quota quickies were made through the propaganda films of the 1940s and 1950s and on to the cinema of the Troubles
