Curtis IV, 2012-02-01 Many of the most prominent figures in African American Islam have been dismissed as Muslim heretics and cultists Focusing on the works of five of these notable figures Edward W Blyden Noble Drew Ali Elijah Muhammad Malcolm X and Wallace D Muhammad author Edward E Curtis IV examines the origin and development of modern African American Islamic thought Curtis notes that intellectual tensions in African American Islam parallel those of Islam throughout its history most notably whether Islam is a religion for a particular group of people or whether it is a religion for all people In the African American context such tensions reflect the struggle for black liberation and the continuing reconstruction of black identity Ultimately Curtis argues the interplay of particular and universal interpretations of the faith can allow African American Islam a vision that embraces both a specific group of people and all people In and Out of This World Stephen C. Finley, 2022-10-24 With In and Out of This World Stephen C Finley examines the religious practices and discourses that have shaped the Nation of Islam NOI in America Drawing on the speeches and writing of figures such as Elijah Muhammad Malcolm X Warith Deen Mohammad and Louis Farrakhan Finley shows that the NOI and its leaders used multiple religious symbols rituals and mythologies meant to recast the meaning of the cosmos and create new transcendent and immanent black bodies whose meaning cannot be reduced to products of racism Whether examining how the myth of Yakub helped Elijah Muhammad explain the violence directed at black bodies how Malcolm X made black bodies in the NOI publicly visible or the ways Farrakhan's discourses on his experiences with the Mother Wheel UFO organize his interpretation of black bodies Finley demonstrates that the NOI intended to retrieve reclaim and reform black bodies in a context of antiblack violence Children of Ezekiel Michael

Lieb,1998 Discusses the relationship between the biblical prophet Ezekiel's vision of wheels in the air and the present day end of time concept as seen in various religious sects Educational Leadership and Louis Farrakhan Abul

Pitre,2017-02-08 Drawing from Louis Farrakhan's decades of teaching on education and leadership this volume brings his ideas into the educational leadership discourse It explores through a critical framework the purpose of education disclosing how those in powerful positions have shaped educational policy to use schools and universities for their benefit The book inspires educational leaders to serve the best interest of those under their leadership In a spiritual tone it discusses the purpose of education leadership as love servant leadership transformative leadership and futuristic leadership In the 21st century leadership for social justice has become a major theme and in this volume Louis Farrakhan's many years of working for equal justice on behalf of historically underserved groups is applied to the practice of educational leadership in K 12 and higher education The Nation of Islam Martha F. Lee,1996-04-01 Covering the Black Muslim religion the Nation of Islam in America since the turn of the 20th century to 1986 this study documents the transformation of the Nation after the death of Elijah Mohammed into two quite different entities Heroes of Al-Islaam (Islam) in America Book 1: Understanding the works and mission of Noble Drew Ali (Sharif Abdul Ali) Hassan Shabazz,2020-02-10 This pamphlet or booklet is a humble attempt by the author to shine the light of Al Islaam the Holy Qur'an and the language of Imaam W Deen Mohammed on the teachings and lessons of one Noble Drew Ali It is my sincere belief that the Holy Scriptures are interconnected and that the Holy Qur'an is the last chapter and the key to understanding all scriptures I use the spelling Imaam for Imam Islaam for Islam because I believe it gives the novice a better sense of how the words should be pronounced In this booklet I use the name Sharif Abdul Ali for Noble Drew Ali in many instances
