Messy Activities And More:

Messy Activities and More Virginia K. Morin,1993 167 rambunctious activities for adults to share with children ages 3 to 10 More Instant Bible Lessons Pamela J. Kuhn,2000 More great lessons following up on our best selling series Instant Bible lessons From puzzles and games to crafts and snacks each interactive lesson provides teachers with flexibility as they shape the Bible message for kids ages 5 10 96 pages Early to School Sandra Brown,Shirley Cleave,2003-09-02 This very practical book offers advice for teachers The authors pinpoint the particular educational needs of four year olds and give advice on meeting them together with positive examples of good practice Areas covered include staffing space equipment and materials teaching styles and monitoring progress This is the essential aid to teaching four year olds Child-initiated Learning Ros Bayley,Sally Featherstone,2009-10-15 Sally Featherstone and Ros Bayley highly respected Early Years consultants and trainers have written this book for practitioners working with children throughout the Foundation Stage All the ideas are equally relevant in Nursery and Reception classes pre schools children s centres day nurseries and playgroups

More Than Fluency: the Social, Emotional, and Cognitive Dimensions of Stuttering Barbara J. Amster,Evelyn R. Klein,2018-04-27 More Than Fluency The Social Emotional and Cognitive Dimensions of Stutteringprovides a thoughtful and contemporary framework for speech language pathologists and others working with people who stutter The text focuses on the social emotional and cognitive realms of stuttering and offers new insights and applications based on research in the field It guides the reader through theoretical discussions about the social experiences emotional complications and cognitive interpretations that often influence the person who stutters The text also offers practical strategies for intervention from contributing authors who are prominent theorists researchers and practitioners in the field of fluency and stuttering In line with the current multifactorial view of stuttering More Than Fluency emphasizes the social emotional and cognitive aspects of stuttering drawing important connections between them The authors present a variety of therapeutic interventions and techniques along with practical guidelines that have been designed to alleviate distress in those who stutter Although these interventions differ in approach each offers their own roadmap to support and empower people who stutter The idea for this book grew out of the insights gained from listening to both clients and graduate students Clients wanted to talk about their life experiences as a person who stutters Graduate students often described their worry and uncertainty when dealing with the emotional and social issues of their clients who stutter Similarly many practicing speech language pathologists also have concerns about treating people who stutter especially regarding the social emotional and cognitive aspects of the disorder areas not typically taught in traditional coursework More Than Fluency was developed for practicing speech language pathologists and other professionals who evaluate and treat people who stutter It is also intended to be an academic textbook used in graduate courses on fluency and stuttering This text provides a collection of well thought out programs and approaches that help treat the whole person not just his or her stuttering The authors believe that this is best practice because successfully treating a person who stutters encompasses treating more than fluency There is a Season Margaret Pritchard Houston,2013-03-21 Would you like to plan liturgical celebrations that are accessible to children while remaining true to the riches of the Anglican tradition Then this book is for you Drawing on her experience as a children s worker and primary school teacher Margaret Pritchard Houston provides a whole year s worth of material to celebrate the church year with children The Once and Future Parish Alison Milbank,2023-09-28 Few other books have caused as much stir in the Church of England in recent decades as has For the Parish Twelve years on from its publication in the wake of the Covid pandemic and the Save the Parish movement much has changed but much has stayed the same In this follow up to this influential and controversial book new and already familiar themes are newly inflected in the debates of the present time principally minster hubs the Emerging Church programme and the Strategic Development Fund Alison Milbank challenges the ecclesiology models of theological anthropology and the analysis of secularism that are present explicitly or implicitly in these movements and offer a striking and encouraging vision of what the parish model could offer to our anxious world

Re-Shaping Learning: A Critical Reader Anne Boddington, Jos Boys,2012-01-01 Learning Spaces is an emerging field fuelled by a growing interest in the relationships between learning and spaces in which it takes place whether conceptual personal social physical and or virtual It is concerned with making learning spaces that can better meet the needs of 21st century learners academics and other related publics In post compulsory education this has opened up many interesting and important issues There remains a lack of any theoretical understanding as to how such spaces should be conceived or designed and hardly any critical discussion about effective frameworks for either the development of contemporary learning spaces or for assessing their impact on learning teaching and research At the same time there is much debate about what the purposes of post compulsory education should be as well as concerns about where and by whom it should be provided We therefore need to urgently improve our understanding of the interactions between learning and space It is essential that we not only share perspectives theories and methodologies but also critically reflect on our own different assumptions and work together to build better models for post compulsory education in the future To help in this process this book is designed as a critical reader that can enable researchers academics students and managers involved in Learning Spaces to share and engage with some key ideas issues and texts A central aim is to bring together some of the best research from across the many different disciplines concerned with learning spaces including education architecture anthropology human computer interaction estate planning and museum studies Reshaping Learning is thus intended for anyone interested in and wanting to think more about learning spaces whether as users clients or managers or who are want to better understand interactions between the social and the spatial Learn and Play Out Learning through Landscapes,2014-04-29 Do your children know how to grow potatoes where to see a dragon fly or how to fire a rocket Are you one of the 82% of teachers who thinks their school isn t making as much use of their grounds as they should Do you know how to make the most of your outdoor teaching and learning spaces Learn and Play Out is an inspirational accessible and pragmatic set of resources for making changes to Primary school playgrounds in order to provide high quality learning and play experiences Drawing on Learning through Landscapes experience in working with thousands of primary schools it provides practical support to improve the use design and management of your outdoor area More schools are seeing the benefits of their pupils spending longer periods of their school day outside with research showing that this improves attainment behaviour motivation and self esteem For many schools however the environment of their grounds does not meet the needs of their pupils This toolkit helps them assess what they already have work through what their needs are and inspires them to take the next steps forward to make physical and practical improvements to their grounds Featuring downloadable resources with a comprehensive and fully adaptable audit tool plus activities and case study resources to support your work the handy toolkit provides An overview of what your school grounds can do for you A step by step process to work through Advice on how to involve the whole school community in planning changes Guidance on managing your school grounds project Practical activity ideas to involve children and adults This illustrated resource which contains over 140 full colour photos will make it as easy as possible for teachers parents and school governors to plan and manage a playground improvement project involving children at the core of the work and linking the process and improved school grounds to curriculum learning objectives
