Mestizo Logics Anthropology Of Identity In Africa And Elsewhere:

Mestizo Logics Jean-Loup Amselle,1998 This work seeks to reverse the perspective and reasoning of anthropology and to develop an alternative mode of conceiving culture that would not automatically privilege the colonizing West That necessarily involves a critique of the ethnological reason that extracts elements from their context aestheticizes them and then uses their supposed differences to classify types of political economic or religious ensembles Such reason yields classical oppositions like the state versus segmentary societies market versus subsistence economies and Islam or Christianity versus paganism As an alternative the author opposes to exclusionary categories a mestizo logic that sees social phenomena as situated on a continuum and accentuates indistinction and the originary syncretism in all cultures and other ways of categorizing human life The book s rich source material is drawn from the author s fifteen years of fieldwork and research in West Africa The Spatial Factor In African History Allen M. Howard,Richard Matthew Shain,2005 In this collection authors apply spatial analysis to case studies of social economic and political dynamics in West Central and East Africa during the nineteenth and twentieth century Also included is a lengthy essay re interpreting tropical Africa 1800 1930 using spatial theory

Subnationalism in Africa Joshua Forrest,2004 This examination of the politics of ethnicity and nation building in Africa stresses the trend towards subnationalist autonomy and away from a singular state centric system based on the Western model Forrest ranges across the continent to explore a variety of subnational movements Issues in the Contemporary Politics of Sub-Saharan Africa G. Harrison,2002-06-19 Graham Harrison investigates contemporary African politics by privileging the dynamics of political struggle and resistance Through the analysis of peasant politics debt and structural adjustment democratization and identity politics the author shows the importance of resistance and agency Detailed studies of Mozambique Nigeria and Burkina Faso demonstrate how political organization and resistance have been closely ingrained in particular post colonial trajectories An original and refreshing approach to the study of African politics this will be a useful textbook for upper level undergraduates and postgraduate students General History of Africa UNESCO International Committee for the New Volumes of the General History of Africa,2025-10-18 The Study of Africa Volume 2: Global and Transnational Engagements Tiyaambe Zeleza,2006-06-15 This is the second of a two volume work taking stock of the study of Africa in the twenty first century its status research agenda and approaches and place It is divided into two parts the first entitled Globalisation Studies and African Studies and the second African Studies in Regional Contexts Topics addressed in part one include trans boundary formations and the study of Africa global economic liberalisation and development in Africa African diasporas academics and the struggle for a global epistemic presence and the problem of translation in African studies Part two considers African and area studies in France the US the UK Australia Germany and Sweden anti colonialism and Russian soviet African studies African studies in the Caribbean in historical perspective the teaching of African history and the history of Africa in Brazil African studies in India African studies and historiography in China in the twenty first century and African studies and contemporary scholarship in Japan Africa after Modernism Michael Janis, 2013-05-13 Africa after Modernism traces shifts in perspectives on African culture arts and philosophy from the conflict with European modernist interventions in the climate of colonialist aggression to present identitarian positions in the climate of globalism multiculturalism and mass media By focusing on what may be called deconstructive moments in twentieth century Africanist thought on intellectual landmarks revolutionary ideas crises of consciousness literary and philosophical debates this study looks at African modernity and modernism from critical postcolonial perspectives An effort to sketch contemporary frameworks of global intersubjective relations reflecting African cultures and concerns must resist taking modernism as a term of African periodization or master narrative but as a constellation of discursive and subjective forms that obtains upon the present moment in African literature philosophy and cultural history Africa after Modernism argues for a philosophical consciousness and pan African multiculturalist ethos that operate after the deconstruction of Eurocentrism beyond self other paradigms of exoticism or West Africa political ideologies in dialogue with postcolonial approaches to cultural reciprocity

The Study of Africa Volume 2: Global and Transnational Engagements Paul Tiyambe Zeleza, 2006 This is the second of a two volume work taking stock of the study of Africa in the twenty first century its status research agenda and approaches and place It is divided into two parts the first entitled Globalisation Studies and African Studies and the second African Studies in Regional Contexts Topics addressed in part one include trans boundary formations and the study of Africa global economic liberalisation and development in Africa African diasporas academics and the struggle for a global epistemic presence and the problem of translation in African studies Part two considers African and area studies in France the US the UK Australia Germany and Sweden anti colonialism and Russian soviet African studies African studies in the Caribbean in historical perspective the teaching of African history and the history of Africa in Brazil African studies in India African studies and historiography in China in the twenty first century and African studies and contemporary scholarship in Japan Sounds of Other Shores Andrew J. Eisenberg, 2024-04-02 Sounds of Other Shores takes an ethnographic ear to the history of transoceanic stylistic appropriation in the Swahili taarab music of the Kenyan coast Swahili taarab a form of sung poetry that emerged as East Africa's first mass mediated popular music in the 1930s is a famously cosmopolitan form rich in audible influences from across the Indian Ocean But the variants of the genre that emerged in the Kenyan coastal city of Mombasa during the twentieth century feature particularly dramatic even flamboyant appropriations of Indian and Arab sonic gestures and styles Combining oral history interpretive ethnography and musical analysis Sounds of Other Shores explores how Swahili speaking Muslims in twentieth century Mombasa derived pleasure and meaning from acts of transoceanic musical appropriation arguing that these acts served as ways of reflecting on and mediating the complexities and contradictions associated with being Swahili in colonial and postcolonial Kenya The result is a musical anthropology of Kenyan Swahili subjectivity that reframes longstanding questions about Swahili identity while contributing to broader discussions about identity and citizenship in Africa and the Indian Ocean world Ethnicity and the Colonial State Alexander Keese, 2015-11-30 Ethnicity and the Colonial State compares the choices of community leaders in three different West African groups Wolof Temne and Ewe with regard to selling their identifications to the colonial rulers The book thereby addresses ethnicity as a factor in global history
