Metaphysical Anthropology The Empirical Structure Of Human Life:

Metaphysical Anthropology Julián Marías, 1971 In this penetrating exploration of human reality written in a single mental movement of almost sixteen unbroken months of work Marías has produced the most personal and original and quite possibly the most important of his many books Its theme is its greatest novelty the discovery of the level of reality that represents the empirical structure of human life Metaphysical Anthropology brings to full development the course of Marías's thought over a period of twenty years and completes the interpretation of philosophical theory that began with his presentation of the philosophical past History of Philosophy and continued through his view of the theory of human life in its collective concreteness The Social Structure Metaphysical Anthropology will also appear in separate Spanish Portuguese and Brazilian editions as well as in other major languages The Metaphysical Anthropology of Julián Marías Alberto

Oya, 2024-07-15 This book provides a detailed account of Julián Marías's metaphysical anthropology with the ultimate aim of offering a coherent and systematic analysis of Marías's argumentation for claiming that the conscious hope for Christian salvation through resurrection and with it the hope that Jesus Christ did actually resurrect and more generally the hope that Christian revelation is true is justified not because the certainty or the likelihood that this salvation will as a matter of fact actually occur but because this hope amounts to a self-affirming exercise a conscious endorsement of human reality and as such a sign of authenticity

Human Life is Radical Reality Howard Nelson Tuttle, 2005 The twenty-first century needs a new paradigm for philosophy because both Anglo-American and Continental philosophy have ended in analytic sterility and deconstructive nihilism They have ignored the radical reality of human life which all other realities must presuppose Three European philosophers in the twentieth century Dilthey Heidegger and Ortega y Gasset began to develop this idea but never before has it been systematically conceptualized and adequately expounded With reference to the works of these philosophers this book examines the major categories and essential properties of human life as it is lived for example in time circumstance history and understanding

Personalist Anthropology: A philosophical guide to life Juan Manuel Burgos, 2022-04-05 Philosophical personalism has generated a very powerful field of study in the twentieth and twenty-first centuries but has not produced a systematic exposition This book fills this big gap by offering for the first time a full systematic personalistic vision of the human person This ambitious volume offers a pedagogical and integrated exposition of philosophical personalism answering vital questions about human identity and existence in a way that the reader or student can achieve an integrated view of the person The book points to the real life of each person so that by partially unraveling the mystery of the personal being it becomes a philosophical guide for life For these reasons the book can be used both for academic purposes as a manual of philosophy of man or for personal enlightenment Divided in five parts the first part of the book works as an introduction offering an overview of the human person and of the notion of person The second part describes the internal structure of the human being addressing topics as corporeity as a personal fact sensibility and the senses affectivity intelligence freedom understood as choice and self determination and finally the personal self The third part analyses the person in action and some special types of action such as work and language The fourth part deals with interpersonal relationships beginning with I You relationship friendship love and following with the family and the social structure Finally part five deals with the so called ultimate questions that is those that decide the final meaning of each person s life namely time death immortality and religion

Theology and Praxis Clodovis Boff,2009-10-01 In this book Clodovis Boff rigorously and passionately erects the methodological scaffolding that is necessary to construct a true theology of the political a true theology of liberation Much of the book is devoted to clarifying and articulating the boundaries of the relationships among theology the political the social sciences hermeneutics and praxis As an element of that constructive work Boff carefully points out the past and present theoretical shortcomings of political theology and the theology of liberation Thus the book fills a methodological void that has hampered the full development of a theology of the political and it blazes a path beyond what the author calls the first phase of liberation theology

Fragments Pedro Blas Gonzalez,2005 Eschewing hair splitting for the sport of it Gonz lez takes a fresh look at the notion of subjectivity and the nature of the self in seven essays With reference to Camus Cocteau Gabriel Marcel Ortega and Enrique Anderson Imbert he explores diverse topics from the aesthetic vision and moral courage to the absurd His nuanced and sensitive writing draws the reader on an introspective journey through a portal that subtly shifts the perception of human reality

Chatraw,Karen Swallow Prior,2019-07-09 How should Christians approach important contemporary issues like war race creation care gender and politics Christians in every culture are confronted with social trends and moral questions that can be difficult to navigate But the Bible often doesn t speak directly to such issues Even when it does it can be confusing to know how best to apply the biblical teaching In Cultural Engagement A Crash Course in Contemporary Issues authors Joshua D Chatraw and Karen Swallow Prior first offer a broadly accessible framework for cultural engagement and then explore specific hot topics in current Western culture including Sexuality Gender Roles Human Life and Reproduction Technology Immigration and Race Creation and Creature Care Politics Work Arts War Weapons and Capital Punishment Featuring contributions from over forty top thinkers proponents of various views on the specific topics present their approaches in their own words providing readers an opportunity to fairly consider options Unique in how it addresses both big picture questions about cultural engagement and pressing current issues Cultural Engagement provides a thorough and broad introduction useful for students professors pastors college ministers and any believer wanting to more effectively exercise their faith in the public square

Ontopoietic Expansion in Human Self-Interpretation-in-Existence Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka,2012-12-06 The societal web of life is underpinned by one concept that of Self and Other which emerged earlier in this century The concept has received a new formulation within the field of the phenomenology of life and the human creative condition finding a foothold a point of reference that radiates novel seminal insights It is nothing other than the creative fulcrum of human functioning The self individualisation of the human being as revealed in the present collection is existentially and vitally intertwined with that of the Other Tymieniecka's seminal idea of the trans actional is explored in this collection of essays which reveals a variety of significant perspectives weaving the cycles of the human universe of existence in an essential oscillation between the Self and the Other In this oscillation we throw out our existential tentacles trying to gain a living space with respect to each other all the while engaging in a mutual creative prompting and attunement

Grounding Critique Gökbörü Sarp Tanyildiz, 2024-10-28 Grounding Critique Marxism Concept Formation and Embodied Social Relations argues that marxism must have a robust understanding of embodied social relations such as race gender and sexuality in order to produce the knowledge necessary for transformative social change Tanyildiz subjects two important strands of marxist social theory marxist feminism and social reproduction theory to a methodological examination and demonstrates their shortcomings Focusing on these strands critiques of intersectionality as a moment of crystallization in concept formation Grounding Critique explores alternative ways of using Marx's method to understand contemporary human praxis A Watch Over Mortality Harold C. Raley, 1997-01-01 An in depth study of the thought of contemporary Spanish philosopher Julian Marias in the context of Ortega y Gasset and his times and twentieth century Spanish culture
