The Symbolist Roots of Modern Art Michelle Facos,2017-07-05 With the words A new manifestation of art was expected necessary inevitable Jean Mor announced the advent of the Symbolist movement in 1886 When Symbolist artists began experimenting in order to invent new visual languages appropriate for representing modern life in all its complexity they set the stage for innovation in twentieth century art Rejecting what they perceived as the superficial descriptive quality of Impressionism Naturalism and Realism Symbolist artists delved beneath the surface to express feelings ideas scientific processes and universal truths By privileging intangible concepts over perceived realities and by asserting their creative autonomy Symbolist artists broke with the past and paved the way for the heterogeneity and penchant for risk taking that characterizes modern art The essays collected here which consider artists from France to Russia and Finland to Greece argue persuasively that Symbolist approaches to content form and subject helped to shape twentieth century Modernism Well known figures such as Kandinsky Khnopff Matisse and Munch are considered alongside lesser known artists such as Fini Gyzis Koen and Vrubel in order to demonstrate that Symbolist art did not constitute an isolated moment of wild experimentation but rather an inspirational point of departure for twentieth century developments

Tragic Beauty in Whitehead and Japanese Aesthetics Steve Odin, 2016-05-19 The present volume endeavors to make a contribution to contemporary Whitehead studies by clarifying his axiological process metaphysics including his theory of values concept of aesthetic experience and doctrine of beauty along with his philosophy of art literature and poetry Moreover it establishes an east west dialogue focusing on how Alfred North Whitehead s process aesthetics can be clarified by the traditional Japanese Buddhist sense of evanescent beauty As this east west dialogue unfolds it is shown that there are many striking points of convergence between Whitehead s process aesthetics and the traditional Japanese sense of beauty However the work especially focuses on two of Whitehead s aesthetic categories including the penumbral beauty of darkness and the tragic beauty of perishability while further demonstrating parallels with the two Japanese aesthetic categories of y gen and aware It is clarified how both Whitehead and the Japanese tradition have articulated a poetics of evanescence that celebrates the transience of aesthetic experience and the ephemerality of beauty Finally it is argued that both Whitehead and Japanese tradition develop an aesthetics of beauty as perishability culminating in a religio aesthetic vision of tragic beauty and its reconciliation in the supreme ecstasy of peace or nirvana Interactive Storytelling John T. The Swedenborg Concordance John Faulkner Potts, 1895 Neurological Disorders in Famous Artists Julien Bogousslavsky, M. G. Hennerici, H. Baezner, C. Bassetti, 2010-01-01 The third part of Neurological Disorders in Famous Artists presents painters musicians and writers who had to fight against an acute or chronic neurological disease Sometimes this fight was without success e.g. Shostakovich, Schumann, Wolf, Pascal, but often a dynamic and paradoxical creativity of the clinical disorder was integrated into their artistic production e.g. Klee, Ramuz. Occasionally some even wrote the first report of a medical condition they observed in themselves like Stendhal who made a detailed report of aphasic transient ischemic attacks before dying of stroke shortly thereafter. In rarer instances a neurological disease was inaccurately attributed to an artist in order to explain certain features of his work, e.g. de Chirico, Schiele. Some chapters in this publication focus on neurological conditions reported in artistic work including descriptions by Shakespeare and Dumas. Bringing new light to both artists and neurological conditions, this book serves as a valuable and entertaining read for neurologists, psychiatrists, physicians, and anybody interested in arts, literature, and music. Text & Presentation, 2015. Graley Herren, 2016-02-04.

Bringing together some of the best work from the 2015 Comparative Drama Conference in Baltimore, this book covers subjects from ancient Greece to 21st-century America with a variety of approaches and formats including two transcripts, 10 research papers, and six book reviews. This year's highlight is the keynote conversation featuring Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright David Lindsay Abair. This volume is the twelfth in a series dedicated to presenting the latest research in the fields of comparative drama, performance, and dramatic textual analysis. Easels of Utopia, John Baldacchino, 2018-10-03.

Originally published in 1998, Easels of Utopia presents a discussion of art's duration and contingency within the avant-garde's aesthetic parameters which throughout this century have constructed, influenced, and informed our definitions of modernity. In this context, the book reads Umberto Boccioni's Futurism as reminiscent of Thomist realism, proposes Caravaggism's historical relevance to the election of individuality in post-war realism, and draws the reader's attention to the aesthetic implications in Carlo Carrà's metaphysical art and its reappraisal of the early Renaissance. Following a contextual analysis of the historic avant-garde in Part One, Part Two presents parallel discussions of Italian and British questions articulated by the works of Marino Marini, Francis Bacon, Renato Guttuso, and Stanley Spencer in their return to individuality within art's aesthetic construct. The author argues that this initiates a return to lost beginnings where form seeks knowledge, content regains an ability to anarchize, and art recognizes its contingent condition. Art and Intimacy in Modern Italy, Sharon Hecker, Teresa Kittler, 2025-02-20.

A much-needed corrective to the history of single authorship, this timely volume offers new insight into the lives and practices of the artist couples, friendships, and communities that shaped postwar art in Italy. Bringing together a series of essays from international scholars across a variety of subject fields, the volume considers a range of longstanding intimate working relationships. Questioning the extent to which exchange formed part of artistic production and the nature of such partnerships, the contributors explore a variety of underexplored case studies that opens to new readings of Italian art informed by key contemporary issues surrounding gender and sexuality, modern Italian identities, and transcultural exchange. In covering friendships, bi-racial, trans-cultural, and familial relations, the volume adds much-needed perspectives to modern Italy's social and political histories through case studies of well-known as well as overlooked figures.

and creative partnerships including Mario and Marisa Merz the de Chirico brothers William Demby and Lucia Drudi and Antonia and Ugo Mulas Three sections guide the reader through different working and affective dynamics Shadowy Presences Ins and Outs and Alliances The volume explores practitioners in the visual arts as well as art critics institutional figures screen and theatre writers designers and photographers Rather than merely a descriptive or celebratory account of couples and partnerships in postwar Italian art Art and Intimacy in Modern Italy asks what comes into view and what is left out when thinking about art history through this relational lens Every Man an Artist Brian Keeble, 2005-07-13 This anthology proves that it is the human norm for all people to participate in meaningful and purposeful art craft and work because this is part of human nature itself
