Approaching East-Central Europe over the Centuries Marija Wakounig, Ferdinand Kühnel, 2020-05-30 During the 1970s the today's Austrian Federal Ministry of Education Science and Research Bundesministerium für Bildung Wissenschaft und Forschung BMBWF supported the founding of the Center for Austrian Studies at the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis and the Austrian Chair at Stanford University in California These foundations were the initial incentives for the world wide spreading of similar institutions currently nine Centers for Austrian and Central European Studies exist in seven states on three continents The funding of the Ministry enables to connect senior with young scholars to help the latter to participate and benefit from the scientific connection of the former as the Austrian say to sniff the scientific air and to get in touch with the respective national scientific community to avoid prejudices and to spread a better understanding and knowledge about Austria and Central Europe This volume contains the annual reports 2016 2017 of the Center Directors and the presented papers of their PhDs which discuss various topics on East Central European History from various perspectives and in different centuries

Panacea's Daughters Alisha Rankin, 2013-03-19 Panacea's Daughters provides the first book length study of noblewomen's healing activities in early modern Europe Drawing on rich archival sources Alisha Rankin demonstrates that numerous German noblewomen were deeply involved in making medicines and recommending them to patients and many gained widespread fame for their remedies Turning a common historical argument on its head Rankin maintains that noblewomen's pharmacy came to prominence not in spite of their gender but because of it Rankin demonstrates the ways in which noblewomen's pharmacy was bound up in notions of charity class religion and household roles as well as in expanding networks of knowledge and early forms of scientific experimentation The opening chapters place noblewomen's healing within the context of cultural exchange experiential knowledge and the widespread search for medicinal recipes in early modern Europe Case studies of renowned healers Dorothea of Mansfeld and Anna of Saxony then demonstrate the value their pharmacy held in their respective roles as elderly widow and royal consort while a study of the long suffering Duchess Elisabeth of Rochlitz emphasizes the importance of experiential knowledge and medicinal remedies to the patient's experience of illness

Art of the Royal Court Wolfram Koeppe, Anna Maria Giusti, Cristina Acidini Luchinat, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2008 In the royal and princely courts of Europe artworks made of multicolored semiprecious stones were passionately coveted objects Known as pietre dure or hardstones this type of artistic expression includes paintings in stone which were composed of intricately cut separate pieces that were made into magnificent tabernacles cabinets and wall decorations Other works included vessels and ornaments carved with virtuosic skill from a single piece of rare and brilliant lapis lazuli chalcedony jasper or similarly prized substance exquisite objects such as boxes clocks and jewelry and portraits of nobles sculpted in variously colored stones Derived from ancient Roman decorative stonework the art of pietre dure was developed in Renaissance Florence where the manufacture of such objects was enthusiastically sponsored by Medici princes Ideally suited for ostentatious display the works sent an unmistakable message of wealth and political might that was understood in centers of power everywhere From Italy the medium spread across Europe to Prague Madrid Naples Paris and later Saint Petersburg Precious and fragile pietre dure objects are rarely brought together in large numbers This richly illustrated catalogue contains more than 150 masterworks from across Europe dating from five centuries including almost every artistic use of semiprecious stone during this time as well as some of the finest examples of the medium Eight essays by European and American experts discuss the individualized development of pietre dure in every European region the latest developments in scholarship the interrelationships between art and dynastic politics and between cultures and a variety of techniques used to produce these luxurious masterworks Metropolitan Museum of Art website

Houghton,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2009 The Oxford Handbook of the Protestant Reformations Ulinka Rublack,2017 This Handbook takes a broad overview of the Protestant Reformations seeing them as movements which stretched far beyond their European beginnings Written by a team of international scholars of history and theology the contributions offer up to date perspectives on Reformation ideas and the lasting historical impact of Protestantism Miniature Monuments Helmut Puff,2014-09-23 Miniature Monuments Modeling German History offers a series of essays on small scale models of bombed out cities Created between 1946 and the present these plastic renderings of places provide eerie glimpses of destruction and devastation resulting of the air war This study thus permits fresh angles on post war responses to the compounded losses of WW II and it does so through considering these miniature monuments of among others Frankfurt Munich Schwetzingen Heilbronn and Hiroshima in a deep cultural history that interlaces the sixteenth eighteenth and twentieth centuries Three dimensional renderings in diminutive size have rarely been subjected to rigorous theoretical reflection Conventionally models whether of ruins or intact spaces have been assumed to be easily legible that is they have been assumed to be vehicles of the authentic Yet rubble and other models should be theorized as complex simulacra of abstract realities and catalysts of memories Miniature Monuments thus tackles a haunting paradox building ruins The book elucidates how utterly contingent processes of crumbling and collapse the English words for the Latin ruina came to command such great interest in modern Europe that tremendous efforts were taken to uncover render and most of all recreate ruins The Craftsman Revealed Jane L. Bassett,Peggy Fogelman,David A. Scott,Ronald C. Schmidtling,2008 A master of composition and technique De Vries was relatively unknown until the J Paul Getty Museum s groundbreaking 1999 exhibition Adriaen de Vries Imperial Sculptor which firmly established the artist s reputation and afforded a rare opportunity to study in depth a large group of bronzes This heavily illustrated volume presents the results of the technical study of twenty five bronzes from the exhibition Introductory chapters provide background on the artist and technical methodologies Subsequent chapters present case studies of individual statues revealing the methods and materials used in their creation Publisher s website The Poison Trials Alisha Rankin,2021-01-22 In 1524 Pope Clement VII gave two condemned criminals to his physician to test a promising new antidote After each convict ate a marzipan cake poisoned with deadly aconite one of them received the antidote and lived the other died in agony In sixteenth century Europe this and more than a dozen other accounts of poison trials were committed to writing Alisha Rankin tells their little known story At a time when poison was widely feared the urgent need for effective cures provoked intense excitement about new drugs As doctors created performed and evaluated poison trials they devoted careful attention to method wrote detailed experimental reports and engaged with the problem of using human subjects for fatal tests In reconstructing this history Rankin reveals how the antidote trials generated extensive engagement with experimental thinking long before the great experimental boom of the seventeenth century and investigates how competition with lower class healers spurred on this trend The Poison Trials sheds welcome and timely light on the intertwined nature of medical innovations professional rivalries and political power

Queen Hedwig Eleonora and the Arts Lisa Skogh,2017-07-05 As queen consort and dowager Hedwig Eleonora 1636 1715 held a unique position in Sweden for more than half a century As the dominant collector and patron of art and architecture in the realm she left a strong mark on Swedish court culture Her dynastic network among the Northern European courts was extensive and this helped to make Sweden a major cultural center in Northern Europe in the later seventeenth century This book represents the first major scholarly publication on the full range of Hedwig Eleonora s endeavours from the financing of her court to her place within a larger princely network to her engagements with various cultural pursuits to her public image As the contributors show despite her high profile political position and conspicuous patronage Hedwig Eleonora experienced little of the animosity directed at many other foreign queens and regents such as the Medici in France and Henrietta Maria in England In this way she provides a model for a different and more successful way of negotiating the difficulties of joining a foreign court the analysis of her circumstances thus adds a substantial dimension to the study of early modern queenship Presenting much new scholarship this volume highlights one extremely significant early modern woman and her imprint on Northern European history and fosters international awareness of the importance of early modern Scandinavia for European cultural history

Alchemy and Authority in the Holy Roman Empire Tara Nummedal,2008-09-15 What distinguished the true alchemist from the fraud This question animated the lives and labors of the common men and occasionally women who made a living as alchemists in the sixteenth and seventeenth century Holy Roman Empire As purveyors of practical techniques inventions and cures these entrepreneurs were prized by princely patrons who relied upon alchemists to bolster their political fortunes At the same time satirists artists and other commentators used the figure of the alchemist as a symbol for Europe s social and economic ills Drawing on criminal trial records contracts laboratory inventories satires and vernacular alchemical treatises Alchemy and Authority in the Holy Roman Empire situates the everyday alchemists largely invisible to modern scholars until now at the center of the development of early modern science and commerce Reconstructing the workaday world of entrepreneurial alchemists Tara Nummedal shows how allegations of fraud shaped their practices and prospects These debates not only reveal enormously diverse understandings of what the real alchemy was and who could practice it they also connect a set of little known practitioners to the largest questions about commerce trust and intellectual authority in early modern Europe

European Furniture in The Metropolitan Museum of Art Daniëlle O. Kisluk-Grosheide,, Wolfram Koeppe, William Rieder, 2006-05-30 This beautifully produced volume is the first to survey the Metropolitan Museum s world renowned collection of European furniture One hundred and three superb examples from the Museum s vast holdings are featured They originated in workshops in England France Germany Italy the Netherlands Austria Russia or Spain and date from the Renaissance to the late nineteenth century A number of them belonged to such important historical figures as Pope Urban VIII Louis XIV Madame de Pompadour and Napoleon The selection includes chairs tables beds cabinets commodes settees and sofas bookcases and standing shelves desks fire screens ath niennes coffers chests mirrors and frames showcases and lighting equipment There is also one purely decorative piece a superb vase made for a Russian noble family who according to one awestruck viewer owned all the malachite mines in the world The makers of some of the objects are unknown but most of the pieces can be identified by label documentation or style as the work of an outstanding European designer craftsman such as Andr Charles Boulle Thomas Chippendale David Roentgen or Karl Friedrich Schinkel Fashion and Armour in Renaissance Europe Angus Patterson, 2009-11 Of all the riches of the sixteenth century European nobleman none spoke more powerfully of his heroism wealth and taste than his armor clothing and weapons Drawing on the Victoria and Albert Museum s popular arms and armor collection which includes the armor of such notables as Henry IV of France and Philip III of Spain Angus Patterson looks at the suits designed to kill protect and impress Here are parade suits lavishly embossed and gilded decorated with plumes of ostrich feathers and draped with colorful silk sashes as well as swords daggers pistols and gunpowder flasks slung from elaborate belts Paintings sculpture and beautiful new photographs including many close up details bring this very particular aspect of Medieval and Renaissance fashion to life Sculpture Collections in Europe and the United States 1500-1930 , 2021-04-26 Exploring the variety of forms taken by collections of sculpture this volume presents new research by twelve internationally recognized scholars The essays delve into the motivations of different collectors the modes of display and the aesthetics of viewing sculpture bringing to light much new archival material The book underscores the ambiguous nature of sculpture collections variously understood as decorative components of interiors or gardens as objects of desire in cabinets of curiosity or as autonomous works of art in private and public collections Emphasizing the collections and the ways in which these were viewed and described this book addresses a significant but neglected aspect of art collecting and contributes to the literature on this branch of art and cultural history This book evolved from a symposium Sculpture Collecting and Display 1600 2000 organized by the Center for the History of Collecting that was held at The Frick Collection on May 19 and 20 2017 Both the book and the symposium were made possible through the generous support of the Robert H Smith Family Foundation The book is published in association with The Frick Collection EurAsian Matters Anna Grasskamp, Monica Juneja, 2018-05-03 The volume examines the mutually constitutive relationship between the materiality of objects and their aesthetic meanings Its approach connects material culture with art history curation technologies and practices of making A central dimension of the case studies collected here is the mobility of objects between Europe and China and the transformations that unfold as a result of their transcultural lives Many of the objects studied here are relatively unknown or understudied The stories they recount suggest new ways of thinking about space cultural geographies and the complex and often contradictory association of power and culture These studies of transcultural objects can suggest pathways for museum experts by uncovering the multi layered identities and temporalities of objects that can no longer be labelled as located in single regions It is also addressed to students of art history of European and Chinese studies and scholars of consumer culture This eagerly awaited volume offers deep and extensive insights into the fast growing field of material culture studies Its fresh approach to Eurasian objects and materialities will serve as useful reading for all scholars interested in transcultural and global studies A very helpful introductory essay Sabine du Crest University of Bordeaux Montaigne Former Fellow The Harvard University Center for Italian Renaissance Studies
