Recolonization And Resistance In Southern Africa In The 1990s:

Recolonization and Resistance John S. Saul, 1993 A widely respected commentator on South African affairs offers an important analysis of revolution and counter revolution in the countries of Southern Africa today Saul's previous works on Africa include Socialist Ideology and the Struggle for Southern Africa and The Two Edged Sword The Struggle for Liberation in Namibia and Its Legacy with Colin Leys Insurgency and Counterinsurgency in South Africa Daniel L. Douek, 2020 Probes the underbelly of early post apartheid South Africa and the destabilization and assassination campaign unleashed as white rule ended

Sweden and National Liberation in Southern Africa: Formation of a popular opinion (1950-1970) Tor Sellström, 1999 In 1969 the Swedish parliament endorsed a policy of direct assistance to the liberation movements in Southern Africa Sweden thus became the first Western country to enter into a relationship with organizations that elsewhere in the West were shunned as Communist or terrorist This book the first in a two volume study on Sweden the regional struggles for majority rule national independence traces the background to the relationship Presenting the actors factors behind the support to MPLA of Angola FRELIMO of Mozambique SWAPO of Namibia ZANU ZAPU of Zimbabwe ANC of South Africa it addresses the question why Sweden established close relations with the very movements that eventually would assume state power in their respective countries The second volume later this year will discuss how the support was expressed covering the period from 1970 until the democratic elections in South Africa in 1994

Globalization and the Southern African Economies Mats Lundahl, 2004 Focuses on the place of Southern Africa in the globalized economy Identifies the overall economic trends in the African continent and the responses required and actual to the impact of an increasingly interdependent world economy

Norway and National Liberation in Southern Africa Tore Linné Eriksen, Nordiska Afrikainstitutet, 2000 This book documents and analyses the involvement of Norway in the liberation struggle in Southern Africa Apart from focussing on the formulation of official policies and the extensive cooperation with the liberation movements in the field of humanitarian assistance mainly based on the Ministry of Foreign Affairs records the study highlights the popular involvement and commitment to the struggle Separate chapters are concerned with the churches trade unions and solidarity movements such as the Norwegian Council for Southern Africa and the Namibia Committee The book also includes a case study on the battle for sanctions The Study forms part of the Nordic Africa Institute's research and documentation project National Liberation in Southern Africa The Role of the Nordic Countries

Transforming Mozambique M. Anne Pitcher, 2002-11-14 Many of the economic transformations in Africa have been as dramatic as those in Eastern Europe Yet much of the comparative literature on transitions has overlooked African countries This 2002 study of Mozambique's shift from a command to a market economy draws on a wealth of empirical material including archival sources interviews political posters and corporate advertisements to reveal that the state is a central actor in the reform process despite the claims of neo liberals and their critics Alongside the state social forces from World Bank officials to rural smallholders have also accelerated thwarted or shaped change in Mozambique M Anne Pitcher offers an intriguing analysis of the dynamic interaction between previous and emerging agents ideas and institutions to explain the erosion of socialism and the politics of privatization in a developing country She demonstrates that Mozambique s political economy is a heterogenous blend of ideological and institutional continuities and ruptures Arguing Development Policy Raymond Apthorpe,Des Gasper,2014-06-23 This collection shows how policy discourses in the fields of national and international developments are constructed and operate and how they can be analysed Dominant discourses screen out certain aspects they frame issues to include some matters and typically exclude important others More generally different policy discourses construct the world in distinctive ways through language that requires deconstruction and careful review

Debating Development Discourse David B. Moore,Gerald J. Schmitz,2016-07-27 This book combines critical historical analysis and case studies of the theory and practice of post 1945 international development Beginning with a Gramscian analysis of institutional and academic development discourse continuing with critiques of international institutions current neo liberal economic and governance practices and followed by studies of African moral opposition to structural adjustment s scientific capitalism South African housing struggles Zimbabwean development strategies Costa Rican agrarian NGO s and northern Albertan public environmental hearings it advocates deepening radical and popular participatory democracy

Encyclopedia of Conflicts since World War II James Ciment,Kenneth Hill,2012-12-06 This copiously illustrated A Z reference presents the most in depth information available about the various conflicts the world has endured local regional and international since World War II Some 142 conflicts are discussed and analyzed The Encyclopedia of Conflict since World War II with its coverage of all the countries of the world fills a critical need for clear comprehensive explanations of events not covered in such detail in any other reference source Entries end with an extensive bibliography and the encyclopedia includes maps chronologies and a general bibliography as well as an index designed to make the reader understand the correlation and relationships between individual conflicts Africa Air University (U.S.). Library,1994 Cuba, Africa, and Apartheid's End Isaac Saney,2023-01-09 Cuba Africa and Apartheid s End Africa s Children Return examines the history and impressive dimensions of the Cuban Revolution s solidarity with Africa Cuba s role in the southern African national liberation and anti colonial struggle was the largest and most consequential manifestation of the island s commitment to Africa A key moment was the 1987 1988 battle of Cuito Cuanavale which involved Cuba and Angola on one side and South Africa and its allies on the other Cuito Cuanavale contributed the end of apartheid and has assumed legendary status within the Cuban Revolution and the southern African liberation movement The Uncertain Promise of Southern Africa York W. Bradshaw,Stephen N. Ndegwa,2000 In the 1970s and 1980s Indiana University Press published a series of books edited by Gwendolen Carter and others on economic and political conditions in Southern Africa during the apartheid era The Uncertain Promise of Southern Africa is a return to that successful format in the post apartheid era

Leading scholars analyze the economic political social and cultural conditions in Southern Africa and the prospects for the region The first part of the book examines the current political and development situation in six countries South Africa Namibia Botswana Zimbabwe Angola and Mozambique The second part focuses on issues of enduring importance in the region education health gender the law intra and inter regional power relations international commerce and popular culture

Out from Underdevelopment Revisited James H. Mittelman, Mustapha Kamal Pasha, 2016-07-27 Development may be best understood in terms of the interplay among capital accumulation the state and class Subject to globalizing structures classes in turn are examined in light of their interactions with culture especially gender and religion as well as ecology Case studies Brazil the Asian newly industrializing countries China and Mozambique reveal three possibilities for overcoming underdevelopment joining leaving or weaving through global capitalism The conclusions do not fail to present specific principles upon which policies can be based

Women's Activism and Feminist Agency in Mozambique and Nicaragua Jennifer Leigh Disney, 2008 In Women's Activism and Feminist Agency in Mozambique and Nicaragua Jennifer Leigh Disney investigates the contours of women's emancipation outside the framework of liberal democracy and a market economy She interviews 146 women and men in the two countries to explore the comparative contribution of women's participation in subsistence and informal economies political parties and civil society organizations She also discusses military struggles against colonialism and imperialism in fostering feminist agency to provide a fascinating look at how each movement evolved and how it changed in a post revolutionary climate

Kupilikula Harry G. West, 2005-09-05 On the Mueda plateau in northern Mozambique sorcerers are said to feed on their victims sometimes making lions or transforming into lions to literally devour their flesh When the ruling FRELIMO party subscribed to socialism it condemned sorcery beliefs and counter sorcery practices as false consciousness but since undertaking neoliberal reform the party still in power after three electoral cycles has tolerated tradition leaving villagers to interpret and engage with events in the idiom of sorcery Now when the lions prowl plateau villages suspected sorcerers are often lynched In this historical ethnography of sorcery Harry G West draws on a decade of fieldwork and combines the perspectives of anthropology and political science to reveal how Muedans expect responsible authorities to monitor the invisible realm of sorcery and to overturn or as Muedans call it kupilikula sorcerers destructive attacks by practicing a constructive form of counter sorcery themselves Kupilikula argues that where neoliberal policies have fostered social division rather than security and prosperity Muedans have in fact used sorcery discourse to assess and sometimes overturn reforms advancing alternative visions of a world transformed

Uneven Zimbabwe Patrick Bond, 1998 Uneven Zimbabwe examines the influence of domestic and international financial markets and financiers in uneven development in Zimbabwe using and contributing to the tools of radical political economy Theoretically Bond begins with criticism of the classical Marxist concepts of finance capital for focusing on institutional characteristics and failing to grasp underlying dynamics Instead as economic crisis tendencies emerge the power of finance periodically intensifies temporarily displacing crisis through time and space and across geographical scales But the limits of the financial solution become evident when paper assets delink from the productive assets they are meant to represent as well as in the role that finance plays in amplifying uneven development across different economic sectors spaces and scales

Women, Migration & the Cashew Economy in Southern Mozambique 1945-1975 Jeanne Penvenne, 2015 Analyses the lives and livelihoods of the female cashew shellers in Mozambique's capital in the colonial era during which the industry grew to be a major export and relates how the women played a fundamental but previously underappreciated role in the colony's economy Encyclopedia of African History 3-Volume Set Kevin Shillington, 2013-07-04 Covering the entire continent from Morocco Libya and Egypt in the north to the Cape of Good Hope in the south and the surrounding islands from Cape Verde in the west to Madagascar Mauritius and Seychelles in the east the Encyclopedia of African History is a new A Z reference resource on the history of the entire African continent With entries ranging from the earliest evolution of human beings in Africa to the beginning of the twenty first century this comprehensive three volume Encyclopedia is the first reference of this scale and scope Also includes 99 maps Historical Dictionary of Angola W. Martin James, 2011-05-05 The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Angola is a thorough examination of Angola It includes a chronology bibliography maps appendixes and over 600 cross referenced dictionary entries This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Angola Global Shadows James Ferguson, 2006-02-28 A collection of Ferguson's essays that bring the question of Africa into the center of current debates on globalization modernity and emerging forms of world order
