Lawton,2004 Anna Lawton deftly tells two stories one about the evolution of Russian film since the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991 and the other about Russian life during that same period She managed to capture a vivid portrait of Moscow of the 1990s and to remind us that the Soviet past remains omnipresent in the new Russia Russia 2000 Film and Facts is a must read for anyone who cares about Russia or about film Blair Ruble Director The Kennan Institute of the Woodrow Wilson Center Post-Soviet Women Mary Buckley,1997-07-13 This volume is the first to take a systematic look at the position of women in the post Soviet states of the former USSR Capitalism with a Human Face William Gay,T. A. Alekseeva,1996 Combining the theoretical perspectives of a leading Russian political scientist and an American political philosopher who have collaborated for years Capitalism with a Human Face analyzes the relation between economics and politics in Russia as it moves toward modernization Throughout the book the authors contrast Western media accounts of the Russian situation with less accessible but more relevant data gathered in Russia since 1991 They advocate a new notion of centrism for Russia one that combines democratic politics and a market economy without abandoning the social guarantees on which many Russians have long relied and without which their political and economic life is likely to remain in turmoil This will be an important work for scholars and students of social and political philosophy international relations comparative politics and economics

Inappropriate Relationships Robin Goodwin, Duncan Cramer, 2005-04-11 In one of the great euphemisms of our time an embattled President Clinton admitted to an inappropriate relationship with his White House intern Monica Lewinsky But what exactly is an inappropriate relationship For that matter what is an appropriate relationship And how can an understanding of the rules of appropriateness help us understand personal relationships in our modern world Contributors to this book discuss the personal boundaries and taboos of modern relationships Together they examine the power struggles that can occur when individuals are involved in inappropriate relationships and the ways individuals in such a relationship may attempt to buffer themselves against sanctions or even embrace this relationship as an agent of social change Representing work from a range of disciplines this collection will appeal to scholars researchers students and professionals working on relationships issues in areas across the social sciences including those working in the fields of social psychology family studies social anthropology cultural studies and communication
