Reducing Threats At The Source A European Perspective On Cooperative Threat Reduction:

Reducing Threats at the Source Ian Anthony, 2004 The Challenges of Nuclear Non-Proliferation Richard Dean Burns, Philip E. Coyle, 2015-03-12 The Challenges of Nuclear Non Proliferation is an exhaustive survey of the many aspects of non proliferation efforts It explains why some nations pursued nuclear programs while others abandoned them as well as the challenges strengths and weaknesses of non proliferation efforts It addresses key issues such as concerns over rogue states and stateless rogues delivery systems made possible by technology and the connection between nuclear weapons and ballistic missiles examining whether non proliferation regimes can deal with these threats or whether economic or military sanctions need to be developed It also examines the feasibility of eliminating or greatly reducing the number of nuclear weapons A broad survey of one of today s great threats to international security this text provides undergraduates students with the tools needed to evaluate current events and global threats The European Union's Nuclear Non-proliferation Policy Manuel Herrera, 2025-04-15 This book looks at European Union EU attempts to manage the risks associated with nuclear non proliferation and assesses its performance and external challenges The introductory section delves into current academic scholarship elucidating the concepts of contestation and performance The second section provides an overview of the historical and institutional evolution and the third scrutinizes the performance The final section examines present policy with case studies on the EU s bilateral relations with Iran and India Adopting a focus on both the development and performance of the EU s non proliferation and disarmament policy as well as its contestation from non Western countries this book provides a solid and innovative contribution to existing debates on both the EU s non proliferation and foreign policy The book will appeal to scholars researchers and practitioners of International Relations European Union Studies and Nuclear Non Proliferation as it provides an analysis of the intricacy of the EU s non proliferation policy offering fresh perspectives and empirical evidence The Global Partnership Against WMD Alan Heyes, Wyn Q. Bowen, Hugh Chalmers, 2012-08-21 The 9 11 terrorist attacks prompted a new urgency in efforts to deal with chemical biological radiological and nuclear proliferation The potential acquisition and use by terrorist groups of such weaponry was suddenly a much increased threat The G8 Global Partnership against the Spread of Weapons and Materials of Mass Destruction subsequently encouraged some twenty two countries and the European Union to pledge up to 20 billion to address this challenge The creation of the Global Partnership was the first time so many countries agreed to collaborate on a range of non proliferation security and nuclear safety programmes as well as commit such an amount of resources to them Based on extensive primary research this Whitehall Paper assesses the success and shortcomings to date of the Global Partnership and suggests how the mechanism can be bolstered and taken forward Routledge Handbook on the European Union and International Institutions Knud Erik Jørgensen, Katie Verlin Laatikainen, 2013 This Handbook addresses the increasingly contested issue of profound political importance Europe s presence in multilateral institutions It assesses both the evolving role of Europe in international institutions and the transformations in international institutions themselves Countering Biological Threats National Research Council, Policy and Global Affairs, Development, Security, and Cooperation, Office for Central Europe and Eurasia, Committee on Prevention of Proliferation of Biological Weapons in States Beyond the Former Soviet Union, 2009-05-27 In response to a request from the U S Congress this book examines how the unique experience and extensive capabilities of the Department of Defense DOD can be extended to reduce the threat of bioterrorism within developing countries outside the former Soviet Union FSU During the past 12 years DOD has invested 800 million in reducing the risk from bioterrorism with roots in the states of the FSU The program's accomplishments are many fold The risk of bioterrorism in other countries is too great for DOD not to be among the leaders in addressing threats beyond the FSU Taking into account possible sensitivities about a U S military presence DOD should engage interested governments in about ten developing countries outside the FSU in biological threat reduction programs during the next five years Whenever possible DOD should partner with other organizations that have well established humanitarian reputations in the countries of interest For example the U S Agency for International Development the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the World Health Organization should be considered as potential partners EU External Relations Law and Policy in the Post-Lisbon Era Paul James Cardwell, 2011-11-17 This is a collection of works which considers the many different facets of the EU's increasingly important engagement with the world beyond its borders The Treaty of Lisbon marked a change in the powers and competences endowed on the EU the contributions to this collection consider both the direct and indirect impact of the Treaty on the contemporary state of EU external relations The authors are drawn from legal political science and international relations disciplines and consider innovations or changes brought about by the Treaty itself the European External Action Service the roles of the High Representative and President the collapse of the pillar structure and new competences such as those for foreign investment Other chapters cover developments which reflect the latest incremental changes upon which the post Lisbon Treaty arrangements have some bearing including the COREU network the transatlantic and neighbourhood relations and the external dimension of internal security Useful for academics working in the field of EU external relations law and foreign policy as well as the EU law politics European studies market more generally Reducing Threats at the Source , At their meeting in Kananaskis Canada in June 2002 the Heads of State and Government of the G8 countries announced a Global Partnership Against the Spread of Weapons and Materials of Mass Destruction Global Partnership to provide assistance to states in the first instance the Russian Federation that lack the means to implement shared disarmament non proliferation and counter terrorism object The EU is represented by the President of the European Commission and by the leader of the country that holds the presidency of the European Council at the time of the G8 summit meeting To the extent that armed conflict and state collapse in the developing world are recognized to contribute to the causes of and openings for terrorism the relationship of the stockpiles and flows of small arms and light weapons SALW to such conflicts also draws projects to secure and destroy SALW into the sphere of relevance The scope for projects in the area of practical disarmament and under the auspices of the PFP seems to be a particularly wide given the progressively expanded technical coverage of CTR For example the commission is the only actor that participates in all of the G8 the Northern Dimension including NDEP and MNEPR the European Nuclear Cities Initiative ENCI the ISTC and the STCU

A Global History of the Nuclear Arms Race Richard Dean Burns, Joseph M. Siracusa, 2013-04-23 Written by two preeminent authors in the field this book provides an accessible global narrative of the nuclear arms race since 1945 that focuses on the roles of key scientists military chiefs and political leaders The first book of its kind to provide a global perspective of the arms race this two volume work connects episodes worldwide involving nuclear weapons in a comprehensive narrative fashion Beginning with a discussion of the scientific research of the 1930s and 1940s and the Hiroshima decision the authors focus on five basic themes political dimensions technological developments military and diplomatic strategies and impact The history of the international nuclear arms race is examined within the context of four historical eras America s nuclear monopoly America s nuclear superiority superpower parity and the post Cold War era Information about the historical development of the independent deterrence of Britain France and China as well as the piecemeal deterrence of newcomers Israel India Pakistan and North Korea is also included as is coverage of the efforts aimed at the international control of nuclear weapons and the diplomatic architecture that underpins the global nuclear non proliferation regime
