Baumann,2014-07-31 In 1835 Oberlin became the first institute of higher education to make a cause of racial egalitarianism when it decided to educate students irrespective of color Yet the visionary college s implementation of this admissions policy was uneven In Constructing Black Education at Oberlin College A Documentary History Roland M Baumann presents a comprehensive documentary history of the education of African American students at Oberlin College Following the Reconstruction era Oberlin College mirrored the rest of society as it reduced its commitment to black students by treating them as less than equals of their white counterparts By the middle of the twentieth century black and white student activists partially reclaimed the Oberlin legacy by refusing to be defined by race Generations of Oberlin students plus a minority of faculty and staff rekindled the college s commitment to racial equality by 1970 In time black separatism in its many forms replaced the integrationist ethic on campus as African Americans sought to chart their own destiny and advance curricular change Oberlin s is not a story of unbroken progress but rather of irony of contradictions and integrity of myth and reality and of imperfections Baumann takes readers directly to the original sources by including thirty complete documents from the Oberlin College Archives This richly illustrated volume is an important contribution to the college s 175th anniversary celebration of its distinguished history for it convincingly documents how Oberlin wrestled over the meaning of race and the destiny of black people in American society      The Anthology of Black Mountain College Poetry Blake Hobby,Alessandro Porco,Joseph Bathanti,2025-02-05 Founded in 1933 near Asheville North Carolina Black Mountain College fostered experimentation and interdisciplinary learning placing the arts at the heart of its curriculum As such the college was home to and served as inspiration for many modern and postmodern American poets Some of them including Charles Olson Robert Creeley and Denise Levertov appeared in Donald Allen s groundbreaking New American Poetry anthology published in 1960 later becoming part of the American poetry canon However many writers affiliated with Black Mountain College have been overlooked The Anthology of Black Mountain College Poetry features over fifty poets selected with an expansive historical and critical lens including those not typically considered as poets such as composer John Cage architect Buckminster Fuller and visual artist Josef Albers Many years in the making this book presents the clearest picture of the poetry and poetics of Black Mountain College yet      Complete Book of Colleges, 2005 Edition Princeton Review (Firm),2004-07-20 Up to date information on 1 780 colleges and universities      The Laurel Review ,2007
