Reengineering America:

Reengineering America Dick Formichella, 2005-06 A driven entrepreneur who made millions in the software industry John Payton strongly believes that the American system of government is outdated In fact he is on a mission to convince the American people that they need a new tech savvy Constitution According to John's calculations such a version would be more effective save billions of dollars in taxes and could even establish a form of government closer to pure democracy With the secret help of an ambitious senator and his brilliant chief of staff Payton starts a movement called Reengineering America The group is dedicated to pressuring Congress to pass a Constitutional Amendment mandating that a second Constitutional Convention rewrite the document But Payton's unlikely crusade captures the attention of sinister and powerful forces both in and outside the government Some want to stop him at any cost while others want to ensure he succeeds for their own nefarious purposes Unable to distinguish friend from foe John Payton must ultimately put his fortune and his life at risk trying to convince a dubious nation it's time to modernize a 200 year old system of government

Defense transportation reengineering the DOD personal property program : report to congressional committees, 1999 DOD has long been concerned about the quality service members receive from its nearly 3 billion annual program to transport store and manage the household goods and unaccompanied baggage of its personnel Past problems include poor service from its movers excessive incidence of loss or damage to service members property and high claims costs to the government All of these problems contribute to a poor quality of service for persons using the system DOD first proposed reengineering its personal property program 5 years ago
