The Great Reflection D. L. Herring, 2007-10-12 Many faithful Christians go weekly to church hear the word and read it for themselves Yet few realize the truths that go unnoticed just below the surface No I am not speaking of Bible codes The Bible has been described as a chest filled with treasures Some are old and comfortable while others are new and challenging Are you a seeker of truth Then dig into The Great Reflection

The Keys of Power J. Abbott, 2022-02-01 This book first published in 1932 demonstrates how the control of certain isms has for long moulded the interpretation of Indian belief and ritual by Western writers particularly In every chapter there is some new coordination often iconoclastic of then accepted theory whilst the new wealth of customs carefully recorded is astonishing Long disputed problems such as that of the Maratha devak or that of the ceremonial sowing of seedlings known to Western scholars as the gardens of Adonis have at last been settled through careful research

Constructive Theology Serene Jones, Paul Lakeland, 2005-01-01 Coordinated by Serene Jones of Yale Divinity School and Paul Lakeland of Fairfield University fifty of North America s top teaching theologians members of the Workgroup on Constructive Christian Theology have devised a text that allows students to experience the deeper point of theological questions to delve into the fractures and disagreements that figured in the development of traditional Christian doctrines and to sample the diverse and conflicting theological voices that vie for allegiance today

Reflections with

Lessons Ric Grubaugh, 2025-05-05 This book Reflections with Lessons: A Journey through Grief could be described as two books in one. One part depicts how a person moves through his life and either grows or regresses in his attempt to find his way forward. The author reflects on many events that occur in his life as he moved from a child to a teenager to an adult and now to a senior citizen. In his reflections of these events he tries to draw a lesson: what did he learn, how did it shape his future, and was it correct or should he have used the reflection to draw a completely different lesson that would have served him better. It is hoped that these reflections and lessons are meaningful and are written concisely and occasionally with a bit of humor, sometimes third grade humor. The other half of the book does not reflect on a child playing baseball or a teenager trying to date the cheerleader or a young child lying to his mom. No, these tell of finding and losing the one, the one person who made sense of the time between the finding and the losing. This book will not find world peace or cure cancer or help you decide between Diet Pepsi or Diet Coke, but it is hoped that upon completion the reader chooses to attack the grief and not let grief or the other bears and wolves of life win. Bang on.
