

Self-reflection as...

a personal definition:

"a time to dig deeper into yourself; what worked well or what didn't"

an example to inform practice:

"I learned that I should have a variety of activities..."

an important role in growth development:

"just being able to better yourself for the next person you see."

a varied tool for personal use:

"I self-reflect at a deeper level if I'm outside in nature."

an outcome of OC & CP:

"thinking through before the next day what I could try differently that may be more beneficial to the patient."

Reflection Therapy

Jacqui Stedmon, Rudi Dallos

Reflection Therapy:

Handbook of Reflection and Reflective Inquiry Nona Lyons, 2010-04-07 Philosophers have warned of the perils of a life spent without reflection but what constitutes reflective inquiry and why it is necessary in our lives can be an elusive concept Synthesizing ideas from minds as diverse as John Dewey and Paulo Freire the Handbook of Reflection and Reflective Inquiry presents reflective thought in its most vital aspects not as a fanciful or nostalgic exercise but as a powerful means of seeing familiar events anew encouraging critical thinking and crucial insight teaching and learning In its opening pages two seasoned educators Maxine Greene and Lee Shulman discuss reflective inquiry as a form of active attention Thoreau's wide awakeness an act of consciousness and a process by which people can understand themselves their work particularly in the form of life projects and others Building on this foundation the Handbook analyzes through the work of 40 internationally oriented authors Definitional issues concerning reflection what it is and is not Worldwide social and moral conditions contributing to the growing interest in reflective inquiry in professional education Reflection as promoted across professional educational domains including K 12 education teacher education occupational therapy and the law Methods of facilitating and scaffolding reflective engagement Current pedagogical and research practices in reflection Approaches to assessing reflective inquiry Educators across the professions as well as adult educators counselors and psychologists and curriculum developers concerned with adult learning will find the Handbook of Reflection and Reflective Inquiry an invaluable teaching tool for challenging times

Couple, Marriage, and Family Therapy Supervision Karin Jordan, 2015-12-02 Marriage and Family Therapy MFT is a profession that is expected to grow rapidly over the next ten years This timely text provides the essential knowledge base for all facets of supervision in marriage and family therapy that is required to become an AAMFT Approved Supervisor The book focuses specifically on the distinctive model of supervision used in Marriage and Family Therapy and further examines the unique supervisory issues arising within different approaches to the profession Distinguished by its use of a single case example across chapters to help clarify how different theories differ and overlap the book embraces the full range of theoretical approaches in addition to featuring a nuts and bolts approach to the day to day fundamentals of MFT supervision Grounded in the most up to date literature the text discusses methods and issues of MFT supervision within multigenerational structural cognitive behavioral narrative feminist integrative brief and other supervision models The text also surveys the most important and emerging settings and populations in which marriage and family therapists work including medical and post disaster trauma informed practices It covers legal and ethical issues and discusses how culture gender and ethnicity must be considered during the supervision process The text also addresses how to tailor supervision to the supervisee's developmental level Examples of common supervision dilemmas vividly demonstrate foundational principles With contributions from leading marriage and family therapy educators and experienced supervisors the text is designed for therapists at both the Master's and Doctoral levels who seek the Approved Supervisor Credential and for MFT faculty who teach the AAMFT supervision course Key Features Meets the learning requirements for AAMFT mandated courses leading to certification as an approved supervisor Covers the fundamentals of supervision in the systemic context that lies at the heart of marriage and family therapy Covers supervision in the major approaches to MFT including cognitive behavioral brief narrative structural and other orientations Provides an illustrative case study across all supervision models to demonstrate the uniqueness and similarities of each approach Includes coverage of important populations and settings for MFT such as medical and post disasters Reflection in CBT Beverly Haarhoff, Richard Thwaites, 2015-11-09

Developing skills and competency in CBT is a complex process of which self observation and self reflection are an essential part In this new book leading figures Beverly Haarhoff and Richard Thwaites outline the rationale for a focus on self reflective practice in CBT before offering practical and accessible guidelines demonstrating how this can be achieved in training and practice Highlighting relevant research throughout and using case studies to illustrate theory in practice ten chapters consider reflection in training and in supervision and self supervision reflecting on the therapeutic relationship on our sociocultural perceptions and biases and on client feedback how reflection is vital to self care and to becoming a better therapist supervisor and trainer This is an essential read for trainees in both high and low intensity CBT programmes those on broader CBT courses and for qualified practitioners working independently to enhance their self reflective capacity

Reflective Practice in Psychotherapy and Counselling Jacqui Stedmon, Rudi Dallos, 2009-10-16 Reflective Practice has become established as an essential feature of practice in psychotherapy and counselling in the UK Europe USA and some other parts of the world However the writing on reflective practice is arguably fragmented and scattered and much of it is highly theoretical and abstract This book draws together conceptual and ethical issues regarding reflective practice including the meaning and development of the orientation More importantly it connects theory to day to day practice in psychotherapy and counselling addressing issues such as What does reflective practice look like in practice How do we develop the skills in carrying it out What ways does it assist practice The book offers an exploration of reflective practice within different models of psychotherapy and counselling CBT psycho dynamic and narrative systemic family therapy narrative and community approaches Throughout it employs a range of illustrations from a variety of clinical contexts to illustrate reflective practice in action These include work with children and families adult mental health trauma and abuse learning disability youth offending and bereavement and loss The mix of theoretical background along with practical examples and exercises will be key for students and practitioners in the fields of psychotherapy and counselling The book will be a spur to readers to challenge dominant assumptions and modes of clinical practice and help them fulfil the compulsory requirement for a reflective practice element in their training Clinical Education for the Health Professions Debra Nestel, Gabriel Reedy, Lisa McKenna, Suzanne Gough, 2023-07-19 This book compiles state of the art and science of health professions education into an international resource showcasing expertise in many and varied topics It aligns profession specific contributions with inter professional offerings and prompts readers to think deeply about their educational practices The book explores the contemporary context of health professions education its philosophical and theoretical underpinnings whole of curriculum considerations and its support of learning in clinical settings In specific topics it offers approaches to assessment evidence based educational methods governance quality improvement scholarship and leadership in health professions education and some forecasting of trends and practices This book is an invaluable resource for students educators academics and anyone interested in health professions education Counseling Families Eric Green,Amie C. Baggerly,2015-10-29 Counseling Families Play Based Treatment offers an engaging and practical integration of expressive arts and play therapy within family counseling Building upon the most current research in family counseling this volume presents new and humanistic approaches of family play therapy including family based cognitive behavioral therapy family theraplay and filial therapy Application of these methods is explored with children and families affected by autism divorce and trauma Essential coverage of the ethics of family play therapy as well as the therapist s own self care is also included in this comprehensive and valuable resource Counseling Families Play Based Treatment provides clinicians and family counselors with an integrative and effective model of family counseling that will help children and families understand and develop their mental health needs Reflections on Community Psychiatric Nursing Tony Gillam,2003-09-02 Reflections on Community Psychiatric Nursing provides new insights into many aspects of the CPN s work Written by a practising CPN this is a lively and easy to read introduction to the key debates in community mental health covering issues including professional identity the community and the role of the nurse teaching assessment and clinical supervision good practice and the concept of risk mental health promotion user involvement treatment from medication to psychosocial interventions This text is essential reading for students and those undertaking further training as CPN s In addition practising nurses and other professionals will find it useful in developing their own reflective practice as well as offering a useful overview of an increasingly important area of nursing Revitalising Critical Reflection in Contemporary Social Work Research, Practice and Education Christian Franklin Svensson,Pia Ringø,2022-12-09 Globally social work faces increasingly complex cultural political economic legal organisational technological and professional conditions Critically reflecting on the subject this book heightens critical consciousness among social work researchers educators practitioners and students about the structural dimensions of social problems and human suffering it highlights the inter relationship between agency and structure and discusses strategies to challenge and change both individual and societal consciousness Offering the reader an opportunity to gain in depth understanding of how critical reflection is possible in contemporary social work research practice and education it will be required reading for all social work scholars students and professionals Personal Reflections on Counseling Gerald Corey,2020-02-28 Gerald Corey s Reflections is an absolute delight Each chapter is packed with nuggets of wisdom he has gained over the decades What makes the book particularly engaging is that it invites us into Corey's inner world and we feel as though we are reading a series of letters from a friend. This book could serve as an excellent supplemental reading in an introductory course or as a useful resource for advanced students as they navigate the complexities of graduate school and look ahead to their careers.

Barbara Herlihy PhD University of Texas at San Antonio In this inspirational book Gerald Corey shares his most heartfelt personal reflections and lessons learned as he describes his journey over a 60 year counseling career. He is honest, self-disclosing, humble, and insightful in this compendium that encourages readers to embrace their vision and entertain their dreams. This is a must-read gem that provides an opportunity for counseling students and young professionals to learn from the master.

Robert Haynes PhD Psychologist and author Borderline Productions In an easy-to-read question and answer format, Dr. Corey provides sage insight on a broad range of topics concerning professional issues, career development, the counseling process, and work-life balance. Responding to an array of questions often asked by students over the years, he uses candid personal examples to highlight key lessons and engage readers in an active process of personal and professional self-reflection on their own journeys. Topical question themes include creating your professional path, mentoring, and being a mentee; surviving graduate school; benefiting from personal therapy focusing on self-care and wellness; becoming an ethical counselor; managing value conflicts in counseling; using self-disclosure therapeutically; dealing with difficult clients; getting the most out of supervision; and becoming a writer. In each chapter, reflection questions encourage readers to consider their own views and experiences related to the questions raised, and recommended readings provide suggestions for further information. Theories of Counseling and Psychotherapy Elsie Jones-Smith, 2019-12-18

Theories of Counseling and Psychotherapy: An Integrative Approach is a core textbook for the theories of counseling and psychotherapy course at both the undergraduate and graduate level. It offers an extensive array of theories that includes all the mainstream theories as well as such contemporary approaches as narrative, feminist, LGBT, and post-modern. It offers students an integrative framework with which to assess the various theories with respect to possible clinical application. In addition to listing and describing theories, this text takes it a step further by comparing and contrasting them, showing strengths and weaknesses in a way to help students to apply them flexibly. Students will be challenged to understand what it is about their own personalities that will lead them to accept or reject various theoretical perspectives.
