Reflections of Encouragement Elizabeth Hall, 2012-07-28 This book is meant to encourage those who ponder the everyday things in life. Those who seek to find purpose or meaning in a daily commute or those who just enjoy the Lord's creation and enjoy reflecting on its meaning may find solace here. The author hopes only to share her personal reflections and encourage others to seek their own perspective. Reflections for Daily Prayer: Advent 2016 to Christ the King 2017 Steven Croft, Joanna Collicutt, Paula Gooder, Helen-Ann Hartley, Libby Lane, Graham James, Helen Orchard, Angela Tilby, 2016-05-30 Reflections for Daily Prayer is a highly valued daily Bible companion based on the Common Worship Lectionary. Each day Monday to Saturday some of the very best writers from across the Anglican tradition offer insightful, informed and inspiring reflections on one of the day's readings for Morning Prayer. Their reflections will appeal to anyone who values both the companionship of daily Bible notes and the structure of the Lectionary. For every day excluding Sundays of the 2016-17 church year there are full references and a quotation from the day's set of Scripture readings, a concise but challenging commentary on the readings and a collect. In addition, the book includes a simple order for morning and night prayer, an introduction to the practice of daily prayer by Bishop John Pritchard and a guide to reading the Bible reflectively by Bishop Stephen Cottrell. The Courage to Teach: Guide for Reflection and Renewal Parker J. Palmer, Megan Scribner, 2007-08-17 Study guide designed to be used in conjunction with Palmer's The courage to teach. Reflections of an African Diplomat MARTINUS L. JOHNSON, SR., 2012-08-01 In this book Ambassador Martinus L. Johnson Sr. recounts his experiences growing up in Liberia, obtaining an education in the United States and ultimately representing his beloved country on four continents. Ambassador Johnson represented the Republic of Liberia for more than 25 years in some of the world's greatest countries as they underwent significant political change: Germany, Egypt, Saudi Arabia, Iran, Kuwait and the former Crown Colony of Hong Kong. During his years as a diplomat, he also served as the First Secretary to the Permanent Mission of Liberia to the United Nations in New York. In reflecting on his career, Mr. Johnson expresses awe at the destruction of Germany during World War II and pride in the United States Marshall Plan in developing Germany following the war. He clarifies the historical relationship between Liberia and the United States and points to an estrangement in that relationship when Liberia established diplomatic relationships with the USSR and China.

Born in Edina Liberia Mr Johnson is uniquely qualified to chronicle the struggles of his beloved country His grandfather was a great grandson of Elijah Johnson who was among the early settlers who immigrated to this small West African country under the auspices of the American Colonization Society Within the context of Liberia s political engagements Mr Johnson weaves his personal recollections from childhood of significant political and sociological events Mr Johnson also presents readers with his personal thoughts and first hand accounts of the major political historical economic and social movements that led to the Liberian civil war the almost complete destruction of the nation and the major impediments facing the Liberian Nation today in its struggle toward recovery
