Close Connections John S. Hatcher, 2005 Close Connections will appeal to anyone interested in spirituality and its link to everyday life For more than twenty five years John Hatcher has studied the nature and purpose of physical reality by exploring the theological and philosophical implications of the authoritative Baha i texts His latest book explains how the gap between physical and spiritual reality is routinely crossed and describes the profound implications that result from the interplay of both worlds

The Story of Baha'u'llah Druzelle Cederquist, 2005 Describes Bah u ll h s life straightforwardly but with drama and a talent for evoking the ambience of the 19th century Persian and Ottomoan milieus Five appendices cover a chronology of the events in the life of Bah ull h s life Bah ull h s family the branches of Islam millennial Christians and his younger half brother M rz Yahy

The Baha'i Faith William S. Hatcher, James Douglas Martin, 2002 Explore the history teachings structure and community life of the world wide Baha i community what may well be the most diverse organized body of people on earth through this revised and updated comprehensive introduction 2002 Named by the Encyclopedia Britannica as a book that has made significant contributions to the knowledge and understanding of religious thought The Baha i Faith covers the most recent developments in a faith that in just over 150 years has grown to become the second most wide spread of the independent world religions

Prophet's Daughter Janet A. Khan, 2005 Prophet s Daughter examines the extraordinary life of Bahiyyih Khanum 1846 1932 the daughter of Baha u llah founder of the Baha i Faith From the mid nineteenth century to the early twentieth century when women in the Middle East were largely invisible deprived of education and without status in their communities Bahiyyih Khanum was an active participant in the religion s turbulent early years and contributed significantly both to the development of its administrative structure and to its emergence as a worldwide faith community Her appointment to head the Baha i Faith during a critical period of transition stands unique in religious history

It's Not Your Fault Patricia Romano McGraw, 2004 This engaging and highly readable book based on the author s professional experience in treating those who suffer from the devastating effects of emotional trauma offers hope for those who suffer and those who care about them Dr McGraw describes how trauma affects the brain and therefore one s ability to carry out good advice explains the subtle and largely hidden processes of attunement and attachment that take place between parents and children examining their impact on all future relationships tells what is needed for healing to occur discusses the profound health benefits of spirituality and a relationship with God in assisting and accelerating the healing process and suggests how members of the helping professions can begin to tap the deepest most authentic parts of themselves to touch the hearts of those they seek to help Advancement of Women Janet Adrienne Khan, Peter Khan, 2003

The equality of women and men is one of the basic tenets of the Baha i Faith and much is said on the subject in the Baha i writings Until now however no single volume created for a general audience has provided comprehensive coverage of the Baha i teachings on this topic and its many aspects In this broad survey husband and wife team Janet and Peter Khan address even those aspects of equality of the sexes that are usually ignored or glossed over in the existing literature The Challenge of Bahá'u'lláh Gary L. Matthews, 2005 Author Gary Matthews documents why he believes that the Revelation of Baha u llah is divine in origin representing a unique summons of unequalled importance to humanity The book contains discussions of Baha i prophecies concerning historical events and scientific discoveries Among the events and discoveries discussed are the fall of the Ottoman Empire the worldwide erosion of ecclesiastical authority the Holocaust and the development of nuclear weapons A new and updated edition The previous edition George Ronald was a limited release and not offered to the U S trade consumer market Seeking Faith Nathan Rutstein, 2002 Many people express a need for spiritual fulfillment but are troubled or at best put off by what is often and loosely called organized religion This is especially true today when once venerated institutions and trusted public figures have become subjects of investigation sources of disappointment and worse People fear becoming victims of crime and alter their daily lives to avoid it Terrorism committed in the name of religion and political causes painfully reminds us of how human capacities can be turned with devastating results against ourselves At times much of the world appears to be in a state of decay and sources of spiritual strength seem scattered and elusive Nathan Rutstein understands this His book Seeking Faith Is Religion Really What You Think It Is describes his personal search for purpose and meaning in life a search that led him to the Baha i Faith and its distinctive perspective on the past its reassuring understanding of the present and its confident vision of the future The Hidden Words Baha'u'llah, 2002 A collection of lyrical gem like verses of scripture that convey timeless spiritual wisdom clothed in the garment of brevity The Hidden Words is one of the most important and cherished scriptural works of the Baha i Faith Revealed by Baha u llah the founder of the religion the verses are a perfect guidebook to walking a spiritual path and drawing closer to God They address themes such as turning to God humility detachment and love to name but a few These verses are among Baha u llah s earliest and best known works having been translated into more than seventy languages and read by millions worldwide This edition will offer many readers their first introduction to the vast collection of Baha i scripture
