Whitney Lackenbauer, 2019-10-28 This book examines emerging forms of governance in the Arctic region exploring how different types of state and non state actors promote and support rules and standards The authors argue that confining our understandings of Arctic governance to Arctic states and a focus on the Arctic Council as the primary site of circumpolar governance provides an incomplete picture Instead they embrace the complexity of governance in the Arctic by systematically analyzing and comparing the position interventions and influence of different actor groups seeking to shape Arctic political and economic outcomes in multiple sites of Arctic politics both formal and informal This book assesses the potential that sub national governments corporations civil society organizations Indigenous peoples and non Arctic states possess to develop norms and standards to ensure a stable rule based Arctic region It will be of interest to all scholars and students working in the fields of Arctic Sovereignty Security Studies Global Governance and International Political Economy

People's Republic of China-Hong Kong Special Administrative Region International Monetary Fund. Monetary and Capital Markets Department, 2014-07-16 This Financial Sector Assessment Program report on People s Republic of China Hong Kong Special Administrative Region highlights that it has developed a sound framework for the regulation of securities

Building in the Black Sea Yannis Tsantoulis,2020-12-17 Offering theoretical insights on region building this book explores the attempts to formulate a political and institutional vision for the Black Sea region in the post 9 11 era and in the context of the enlargements of the EU and NATO It investigates in depth these attempts viewed as a failure by the key actors involved in order to understand how regions emerge in international politics as well as how and why they may fail to come into being To this end the book explores a range of factors that impacted region building in the Black Sea considering the role of region builders involved their practices and the context of their actions and the spatial representations and security discourses that were integral to the region building process Hence attention is paid to how these factors both enabled and constrained the discursive construction of the Black Sea region thus identifying the elements that distinguish the Black Sea from other successful cases of region building Based on critical approaches towards international relations and political geography this book both expands and deepens the scope and understanding of regions and will thus appeal to academics and students in the fields of International Relations Security Studies Political Geography and Regional Integration Colloquy on Employment Council of Europe, Congress of Local and Regional Authorities of Europe, 2000-01-01 Ideas put forward for improving the flexibility of the job market involve setting up new mechanisms to manage and protect social groups particularly young people entering the market for the first time Towns and regions will become more and more involved in managing the employment market and the seriousness of the unemployment situation means that innovative legislative and administrative measures will have to be taken at national and regional levels This document contains the contributions made at a hearing that developed from co operation between the Congress of Local and Regional Authorities of Europe CLRAE and Naples City Council The Nordic Region – A Force for Peace Nordic Council of Ministers Secretariat, 2022-11-01 Available online <https://pub.norden.org/politknord2022/741> During Iceland's presidency of the Nordic Council of Ministers in 2023 we will diligently work on our three focus areas a green a competitive and a socially sustainable Nordic Region We will strive to support a green and just transition and the participation of all generations A special emphasis will be placed on peace as a prerequisite for welfare human rights and environmental protection where a united Nordic Region can be a force for peace
