Regnal Formulas In Byzantine Egypt:

Regnal Formulas in Byzantine Egypt Roger S. Bagnall, K. A. Worp, 1979
Chronological Systems of Byzantine Egypt: Second Edition Roger Shaler Bagnall, K. Klaas Anthony Worp, 2004
Egypt is the richest source of primary documents for the society of late antiquity. Its thousands of papyri provide insight into everyday life and topics ignored by ancient authors. This handbook is an indispensable tool in navigating these documents.
New Documents Illustrating Early Christianity, 3 G. H. R. Horsley, Stephen Llewelyn, 1997-12-02
This series seeks to keep New Testament and early church researchers, teachers and students abreast of emerging documentary evidence by reproducing and reviewing recently published Greek inscriptions and papyri that illumine the context in which the Christian church developed. Produced by the Ancient History Documentary Research Centre at Macquarie University, the New Docs volumes broaden the context of biblical studies and other related fields and provide a better understanding of the historical and social milieus of early Christianity.
Settling a Dispute Traianos Gagos, 1994
Family squabbles and fights over real estate were no less complex in sixth century Egypt than they are in the modern world. In this unusual volume, Peter van Minnen and Traianos Gagos investigate just such a struggle as described in a two-part papyrus, some five feet long. Composed by the ancient equivalent of a notary public, the papyrus describes the outcome after mediation of a family dispute about valuable real estate. Traianos Gagos and Peter van Minnen offer an English translation and a clear Greek text of the two papyrus fragments as well as an important discussion of the nature of such mediation, its role in contemporary society, a consideration of the town of Aphrodito and its social and political elite as well as many other topics that spring from this kind of document. The use of methodologies from modern jurisprudence and anthropology together with an accessible style of writing mean that Settling a Dispute will be of interest to persons in many fields including history, Classics and Near Eastern studies. All Greek is translated and an extensive commentary offers much helpful information on the text. Traianos Gagos is Associate Archivist of the University of Michigan's papyrus collection. Peter van Minnen is Senior Research Associate in the papyrus collection at Duke University.
Sixty-five Papyrological Texts F. A. J. Hoogendijk, Brian Paul Muhs, 2008
This volume contains editions of sixty-five Greek, Demotic, Coptic and Arabic texts from Egypt, contributed as a token of friendship and respect by forty-six of Klaas Worp's colleagues and co-authors upon his retirement from the Papyrological Institute of the University of Leiden in August 2008. The contents are as diverse as Klaas Worp's own wide range of interests and provide a vivid impression of life and culture in Graeco-Roman Egypt. The texts are written on papyrus, potsherds, parchment, paper and wood. They include both literary and documentary papyri and ostraca and date from the third century BC to the eleventh century AD. They are published fully, most for the first time, with transcriptions and translations and are accompanied by photographs.
Staying Roman Jonathan Conant, 2012-04-12
This is the first systematic study of the changing nature of Roman identity in post-Roman North Africa.
Coptic Perspectives on Late Antiquity Leslie S.B.

MacCoull,2024-12-11 The transitions from Antiquity to the Middle Ages continue to demand explanation in the case of Egypt there is the added question of why the Coptic language died out following the Arab conquests In these studies Dr MacCoull draws on the extensive papyrological evidence in both Coptic and Greek to explore the Egypt of the 6th 8th centuries its culture religion and society One group of articles focuses on the figure of the lawyer poet Dioscorus of Aphrodito in others she examines the adjustments made by Christian Egyptians as they became a minority under Muslim rule as well as the methodologies of studying this society Les differents passages de l Antiquit au Moyen Age n cessitent encore un certain nombre d explications dans le cas de l Egypte s ajoute la question de l extinction de la langue copte la suite des conqu tes arabes Au cours de ces tudes le Dr MacCoull s appuie sur l abondante documentation papyrologique en langue grecque et copte afin d explorer l Egypte du 6e au 8e si cle sa culture sa religion et sa soci t Un groupe d articles se concentre sur le personnage du po te juriste Dioscore d Aphrodito d ailleurs elle examine la fa on dont les Chr tiens gyptiens se sont adapt s alors qu ils devenaient une minorit sous l empire des musulmans ainsi que la m thodologie relative l tude de cette soci t

Bagnall,2003-09-02 The ancient Mediterranean world brought to us by Herodotus Thucydides and Tacitus is one of politics war and the power elite of Greece and Rome There was another ancient world in which ordinary people made a living sold land ran their towns and sued one another This is the world that the papyri bring to life this book is about how they do so Reading Papyri Writing Ancient History demonstrates how historians can put together information from scattered and often badly damaged documents to build up a picture of the society economy and culture of the multicultural world of antiquity Through discussion of contemporary historical work on the documents Roger Bagnall scrutinises alternative ways of approaching these sources He shows how the ancient historian can use the methodologies of anthropology comparative history and statistics alongside more traditional tools to turn these texts into questions and answers Students and teachers of ancient history will find Reading Papyri Writing Ancient History an indispensable guide to using these ancient texts in their own work The Journal of Egyptian Archaeology ,1984

Greek, Roman and Byzantine Studies ,1979 Egypt in Late Antiquity Roger S. Bagnall,2021-05-11 This book brings together a vast amount of information pertaining to the society economy and culture of a province important to understanding the entire eastern part of the later Roman Empire Focusing on Egypt from the accession of Diocletian in 284 to the middle of the fifth century Roger Bagnall draws his evidence mainly from documentary and archaeological sources including the papyri that have been published over the last thirty years

Hellenistic and Roman Egypt Roger S. Bagnall,2024-12-11 This second collection by Roger Bagnall brings together a further two dozen of his studies this time covering Hellenistic Roman and Byzantine Egypt published over the last thirty years Many of the articles deal with issues of historical and papyrological method the restoration of papyrus texts the direction of archaeological work in Egypt economic models for Roman Egypt the usefulness of postcolonial theory and approaches to the defective literary tradition for the Library of Alexandria Others concentrate on particular bodies of evidence ranging from inscriptions to ascetic literature from registers to women s letters     The Oxyrhynchus Papyri Bernard Pyne Grenfell,Arthur Surridge Hunt,1920     The Christian Epigraphy of Egypt and Nubia Jacques van der Vliet,2018-04-20 Collected Studies CS1070 The present book collects 31 articles that Jacques van der Vliet a leading scholar in the field of Coptic Studies Leiden University Radboud University Nijmegen has published since 1999 on Christian inscriptions from Egypt and Nubia These inscriptions are dated between the third fourth and the fourteenth centuries and are often written in Coptic and or Greek once in Latin and sometimes partly in Arabic Syriac or Old Nubian They include inscriptions on tomb stones walls of religious buildings tools vessels furniture amulets and even texts on luxury garments Whereas earlier scholars in the field of Coptic Studies often focused on either Coptic or Greek Van der Vliet argues that inscriptions in different languages that appear in the same space or on the same kind of objects should be examined together In addition he aims to combine the information from documentary texts archaeological remains and inscriptions in order to reconstruct the economic social and religious life of monastic or civil communities He practiced this methodology in his studies on the Fayum Wadi al Natrun Sohag Western Thebes and the region of Aswan and Northern Nubia which are all included in this book
