Family Support and Family Caregiving across Disabilities George Singer, David Biegel, Patricia Conway, 2014-06-11 Family members provide the majority of care for individuals with disabilities in the United States Recognition is growing that family caregiving deserves and may require societal support and evidence based practices have been established for reducing stress associated with caregiving Despite the substantial research literature on family support that has developed researchers advocates and professionals have often worked in separate categorical domains such as family support for caregiving for the frail elderly for individuals with mental illness or for people with development disabilities Family Support and Family Caregiving across Disabilities addresses this significant limitation through cross categorical and lifespan analyses of family support and family caregiving from the perspectives of theory and conceptual frameworks empirical research and frameworks and recommendations for improvements in public policy The book also examines children with disabilities children with autism adults with schizophrenia and individuals with cancer across the life cycle This book was published as a two part special issue in the Journal of Family Social Work

Chronic Heart Failure National Collaborating Centre for Chronic Conditions (Great Britain), Royal College of Physicians of London, 2003 Pulmonary Rehabilitation Claudio Donner, Roger Goldstein, Nicolino Ambrosino, 2005-05-27 Pulmonary rehabilitation programmes are now a fundamental part of the clinical management of patients with chronic respiratory diseases This comprehensive reference book places pulmonary rehabilitation within the wider framework of respiratory disease and the health burden that this now poses worldwide Part one of the book examines the evidence supporting the use of pulmonary rehabilitation programmes new trends and socio economic implications and the scientific bases of techniques used In part two the reader is given important guidance on assessing patients for rehabilitation and what the cost implications are for patients and the health care system The last part of the book provides a general overview and discusses specific problems of delivering pulmonary rehabilitation Throughout the book contributions drawn from a broad range of countries compare and contrast practice around the world where differences have developed and discuss the clinical evidence that supports current thinking Mental Health, Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities and the Ageing Process Vee P. Prasher, Philip W. Davidson, Flavia H. Santos, 2020-12-22 This book brings together findings from research and clinical practice with comprehensive coverage of the important aspects of mental health in ageing persons with intellectual and developmental disabilities It is crucial for professionals involved in the care of persons with all intellectual and developmental disabilities to have a broad understanding of the essential range of issues and therefore this book provides a truly multi disciplinary perspective complete with many figures and illustrations to underline the key points Undoubtedly research and clinical practice are much more advanced in the general ageing population than in persons with intellectual and developmental disabilities and so professionals and academics must be made fully aware of commonalities and idiosyncrasies of older people with intellectual and developmental disabilities This book presents the ongoing developments concerning mental health and aging which will become relevant to the intellectually disabled population Through experience this book also acknowledges that the impact on the persons themselves and on their carers always needs to be taken into account with treatment programs established with a multi faceted team approach in mind Avoiding the jargon of many titles in this area while maintaining the hands on approach of clinical practice this book meshes the practical and scientific worlds with all chapters written by leading experts in the field Beyond the US the IASSIDD support expands the book message worldwide

Rehabilitation Programs Performance And Quality Of Life: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Rehabilitation Programs Performance And Quality Of Life : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Pape, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
