A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 1990-01-01 This ambitious undertaking is designed to acquaint students teachers and researchers with reference sources in any branch of English studies which Marcuse defines as all those subjects and lines of critical and scholarly inquiry presently pursued by members of university departments of English language and literature Within each of 24 major sections Marcuse lists and annotates bibliographies guides reviews of research encyclopedias dictionaries journals and reference histories The annotations and various indexes are models of clarity and usefulness and cross references are liberally supplied where appropriate Although cost conscious librarians will probably consider the several other excellent literary bibliographies in print such as James L Harner s Literary Research Guide Modern Language Assn of America 1989 larger academic libraries will want Marcuse s volume Jack Bales Mary Washington Coll Lib Fredericksburg Va Library Journal

Sacred Modes of Being in a Postsecular World Andrew W. Hass, 2021-09-16 How do we talk meaningfully about the sacred in contexts where conventional religious expression has so often lost its power Inspired by the influential work of David Jasper this important volume builds on his thinking to identify sacrality in a world where the old religious and secular debates have exhausted themselves and theology struggles for a new language in their wake Distinguished writers explore here the idea of the sacred as one that exists paradoxically in a space that is both possible and impossible profoundly theological on the one hand but also deeply this worldly and irreligious on the other This is a sacredness that is simultaneously present and absent one which encompasses as Jasper himself characterises it the impossible possibility of an absolute vision The book teaches us that the sacred assumes a renewed potency when fully engaged with the creativity that happens across religion literature philosophy and the arts

Paradise Lost and the Divine Comedy Hitesh Parmar, 2002

Religion, Literature, and Scholarship: The Sumerian Composition Nanše and the Birds Niek Veldhuis, 2021-10-11 This book uses insights from religious studies literary theory and the history of science for understanding the Sumerian composition Nan e and the Birds in the context of the Old Babylonian scribal school The discussions of Babylonian religion literature and scholarship focus on the usefulness and relevance of these modern concepts for categorizing the ancient text The volume presents the first critical edition of Nan e and the Birds as well as editions of the hymn Nan e B and all third millennium and Old Babylonian lexical lists of birds It includes 37 plates with photographs and line drawings including many previously unpublished tablets The final chapter discusses the identity and orthography of all Sumerian bird names in literary administrative and lexical texts
