Longman Anthology Of Short Fiction Masterpieces Of Short Fiction:

Thematic Guide to Popular Short Stories Patrick A. Smith, 2002-10-30 Providing easy access to information on nearly 450 short stories this unique guide surveys a wide spectrum of world literature canonical works and contemporary fiction Librarians and teachers will find multiple purposes for this expertly compiled resource which can be employed in much the same way as a standard bibliography Educators will appreciate the concise annotations arranged alphabetically by author that form the core of this work Insightful critical statements synthesize plot summaries and identify the thematic content of each short story A theme guide utilizes the nearly 100 theme headings matching those at the start of each entry allowing the user to quickly locate story titles on related themes and construct reading lists based on individual interests and needs Another component designed to aid librarians offers one bibliography that lists the anthologies from which the stories are drawn Works Cited and one comprised of a number of recent anthologies that can be adapted for the classroom Further Reading In addition to the theme index the general subject and author indexes make this a user friendly and invaluable resource

Longman Anthology of Short Fiction Gioia, 1999-08-01 The Longman Masters of Short Fiction , 2002 An anthology meant to emphasize the individual human origins of great fiction built around the lives works and ideas of a diverse group of significant major authors containing 63 stories by 52 authors from approximately 20 countries

Telling Stories , 2021-11-15 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer s Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research

Subject Guide to Books in Print , 2001 Books in Print Supplement , 2002 Murder 101 Edward J. Rielly, 2009-01-09 This collection of essays examines how college professors teach the genre of detective fiction and provides insight into how the reader may apply such strategies to his or her own courses Multi disciplinary in scope the essays cover teaching in the areas of literature law history sociology anthropology architecture gender studies cultural studies and literary theory Also included are sample syllabi writing assignments questions for further discussion reading lists and further aids for course instruction

Narratives of Community in the Black British Short Story Bettina Jansen, 2018-08-16 Narratives of Community in the Black British Short Story offers the first systematic study of black British short story writing tracing its development from the 1950s to the present with a particular focus on contemporary short stories by Hanif Kureishi Jackie Kay Suhayl Saadi Zadie Smith and Hari Kunzru By combining a postcolonial framework of analysis with Jean Luc Nancy s deconstructive philosophy of community the book charts key tendencies in black British short fiction and explores how black British writers use the short story form to combat deeply entrenched notions of community and experiment with non essentialist alternatives across differences of ethnicity culture religion and nationality
