A Look at Life Carol S. Crowder, Shelley W. Penrod, Mary A. Durant, Joe B. Anders, 2000-01 A Look at Life Joe Anders, 1996-07-01 Theism in the Light of Present Science and Philosophy James Iverach, 1899 Trinity and Organism James Eglinton, 2012-03-29 This book explores the organic motif found throughout the writings of the Dutch Calvinist theologian Herman Bavinck 1854 1921 Noting that Bavinck uses this motif at key points in the most important loci of theology Christology general and special revelation ecclesiology and so forth it seems that one cannot read him carefully without particular attention to his motif of choice the organic By examining the sense in which Bavinck views all of reality as a beautiful balance of unity in diversity James Eglinton draws the reader to Bavinck's constant concern for the doctrine of God as Trinity If God is the Father the Son and the Holy Spirit Bavinck argues the creation must be more akin to an organism than a machine Trinity and organism are thus closely linked concepts Eglinton critiques and rejects the two Bavincks one orthodox and the other modern hermeneutic so commonplace in discussions of Bavinck's theology Instead this book argues for a reunited Herman Bavinck as a figure committed to the participation of historic orthodox theology in the modern world

The Inner Voice in Gadamer's Hermeneutics Andrew Fuyarchuk, 2017-07-15 The inner word in Gadamer's hermeneutics refers to the meaning that exceeds anything explicitly said This explanation has been subsumed within metaphysical and theological parameters of interpretation with little regard for the implication of Gadamer's turn to the living language for understanding the inner word Through examining his phenomenology of the inner word The Inner Voice in Gadamer's Hermeneutics reveals its musical rhythmic and tonal dimensions and how they function to harmonize disparate orientations in the middle voice above all for Gadamer those that underlie modes of cognition in both the humanities and the sciences a visual and auditory ethos However understood as constituting the music of language discernible in the middle voice the inner word is also suppressed or forgotten by the technological extension of sight that is print and thus requires a turn of the inner ear or auditory disposition Andrew Fuyarchuk assesses theories of language in evolutionary and cognitive science in light of Gadamer's insights into the nature of thought and he employs them to account for a dimension of language that is inscribed in the lingual minds of our species When recalled by the inner ear this dimension enables us to think such opposites together as we find in the humanities and sciences together This thinking together is expressed in a double account of an object of inquiry such as the one Fuyarchuk puts forward about the inner word in Gadamer's philosophical hermeneutics
