Looking Back At Melrose Its People Places And Pastimes:

Looking Back at Melrose, 1985 Bibliographic Guide to North American History, 1986 Why Students Underachieve Regalena Melrose, 2006-07-28 Here is a timely response to the research findings of the last decade Why Students Underachieve What Educators and Parents Can Do about It focuses on the need to understand how prevalent trauma is in the lives of our students and how it impacts the brain subsequent learning and behavior This book also details what educators can do not only to prevent further harm to our students but also to intervene in ways that give them a promising future Why Students Underachieve Discusses the problem in education as it relates to trauma and children Explains how trauma has a specific impact on the brain and nervous system and how this impact is related to both learning and common behavior problems Presents interventions for students who have been traumatized Details concrete tools that can be readily used in classrooms and school offices to promote success across academic and behavioral domains Suggests ways to prevent traumatization in the event of a crisis at school or in the community A critique of current crisis intervention practices as well as an alternative approach is also presented Michigan Farmer and State Journal of Agriculture, 1921

A Queer Capital Genny Beemyn, 2014-06-20 Rooted in extensive archival research and personal interviews A Queer Capital is the first history of LGBT life in the nation s capital Revealing a vibrant past that dates back more than 125 years the book explores how lesbians gay men and bisexuals established spaces of their own before and after World War II survived some of the harshest anti gay campaigns in the U S and organized to demand equal treatment Telling the stories of black and white gay communities and individuals Genny Beemyn shows how race gender and class shaped the construction of gay social worlds in a racially segregated city From the turn of the twentieth century through the 1980s Beemyn explores the experiences of gay people in Washington showing how they created their own communities fought for their rights and in the process helped to change the country Combining rich personal stories with keen historical analysis A Queer Capital provides insights into LGBT life the history of Washington D C and African American life and culture in the twentieth century

South Philadelphia Murray Dubin, 1996 From mayors and mummies to tap dancers and gamblers South Philly has it all This quintessential Philadelphia neighborhood boasts a complicated history of ethnic strife alongside community solidarity and for good measure some of the best bakeries in town Among its many famous people South Philadelphia claims Marian Anderson Frankie Avalon Mayor Frank Rizzo Temple Owl s coach John Chaney Larry Fine of the Three Stooges and Loving soap opera actress Lisa Peluso For South Philadelphians whether they stay or leave the neighborhood is always happy to give you their opinions and in this book they talk about their favorite subject to Murray Dubin award winning journalist at the Philadelphia Inquirer who also called South Philly home Music and the arts are part of everyday life Baritone Elliott Tessler says I m not a celebrity I m a minor curiosity If Pavarotti lived here he would just be a minor curiosity and probably because he was fat more than because he sang Jean DiElsi remembers finding work in 1943 as a cashier at a diner that would become a South Philly landmark It was the only diner around and it was open 24 hours If you went to dances everybody would go to the Melrose Diner afterwards No there was no Mel or Rose it was named after a can of tomatoes In addition to being Philadelphia's first neighborhood South Philly is the oldest ethnically and racially mixed big city neighborhood in the nation Catherine Williams remembers growing up black on Hoffman Street We had everything We had the Jews we had Italians we had the blacks we even had a Portuguese family You never knew there was a color thing back then I was the only black in my class at Southwark but you never knew In the third fourth grade some of those Italian boys was big but you would have thought they were brothers to me These are some of the people and the opinions that make up South Philadelphia and Murray Dubin will take you on a resident's tour of the ultimate city neighborhood But for every interview there's also a lot of history And Dubin provides an historical examination that spans 300 years from Thomas Jefferson living in South Philadelphia in 1793 to the burning of Palumbo's in 1994 Whether you're a South Philadelphian yourself or just want to understand the South Philly phenomenon this book is a must Author note Murray Dubin was born in South Philadelphia and is a reporter for the Philadelphia Inquirer

Herald of Gospel Liberty Elias Smith, 1914 African-American Life on the Southern Hunting Plantation James "Jack" Hadley, 2000 By the early 1900s virtually all of the rich plantation land in the Red Hills between Thomasville Georgia and Tallahassee Florida had been converted to quail hunting land for the pleasure of Northern owners and their guests To operate these large specialized plantations a skilled management and talented and industrious work force was needed Within these pages are the stories of fifteen African Americans who were closely involved in plantation life in the first half of the century Explored are the unique relationships between the plantation owners and their employees and between families black and white Vintage images depict the various tasks performed by the African Americans on the plantation as well as the recreational activities they enjoyed Told in the voices of those who lived and worked on the plantations this unique collection of oral histories will serve as a valuable educational tool for generations to come
