The Tragedy of Reason David Roochnik, 2021-12-24 First Published in 1991 This book attempts to defend a conception of reason or to use the Greek word logos that I contend can be extracted from the dialogues of Plato The very notion of defending Plato may seem strange Why would a philosopher enshrined for centuries as classic need a defense A defense against whom and what charge What does it mean to defend an author so long dead Can he somehow be revived In other words what significance can a defense of Plato possibly attain for a

Dees, 2008-07-01 Appreciating the magnificence of Jesus gift is difficult How can you appreciate the magnificence of something that you cannot understand Logic a few recent scientific discoveries and two faith choices tell us the purpose of our mortal bodies provide evidence for the existence of our souls and define the nature of our souls Our mortal bodies provide a critical experience that our souls cannot obtain in any other way The nature of the world in which our souls exist as well as the nature of time is then described as well as why mortals and souls experience time differently The two faith choices used in conjunction with these scientific discoveries are that God is love and that we are being created in the image of God When all these things are considered it then becomes possible to understand the necessity and magnificence of Jesus sacrifice Interpreting the Bible and the Qur'an through Love Tareq Hesham

Moqbel, 2025-10-16 This book investigates the role of love as an exegetical resource for interpreting the Bible and the Qur'an Through surveying the ways in which love was used to make sense of the Jewish Christian and Muslim Scriptures this book advocates and argues for a hermeneutical approach that reads the Bible and the Qur'an through the lens of love Engaging various exegetical authorities from the Jewish Christian and Muslim traditions Tareq Hesham Moqbel identifies numerous cases of love informed exegesis covering diverse themes and exegetical techniques The exegetical dialogue presented in this book shows that the idea of love takes on greater meaning when studied from the standpoint of comparative exegesis Moreover by analysing this topic through a comparative lens the book argues for a novel conceptualisation of love as an exegetical tool and a reading ethic that connects the Abrahamic scriptural traditions and can be applied beyond them

Love in Chief: A Novel Rose Kirkpatrick Weekes, The waiting room of Dr Maude's surgery at Monkswell was sparsely furnished with guests mainly because the December weather was of that mild and unseasonable type commonly called unhealthy The darkness outside was pierced by a fine invisible rain borne on a south wind and the waiting room though heat as well as light was spread only by a single gas burner was not cold One patient was with the doctor the details of his complaint could have been overheard by the others if they had cared to listen but they did not sufficient unto them were their own diseases Five centres of self complacent misery were sitting on a cane seated bench the sixth person was leaning against the wall with his hands in his pockets The only other representative of the male sex was eight years old and had come to have a tooth out too stolid to feel nervous he sat sucking peppermints His mother in a decent black mantilla and a square fronted bonnet trimmed with red chrysanthemums was talking to a girl with a baby about wrongs invisible to the unjaundiced eye The young mother's dark eyes and delicate features had the remains of real beauty though two years of matrimony had made her middle aged her pretty young sister sitting beside her showed what she must have been The baby was not handsome its pinkish purple face was framed in a yellow woollen hood and the colour which should have tinged its cheeks had settled upon its ugly little button of a nose and on its chin It wheezed the mother coughed loosely the girl stared before her the young man also coughed but inobtrusively He did not give to phthisis its due dignity The surgery presently discharged its patient and received the small martyr to toothache The young man took the seat left vacant and the gaslight falling on his face showed thin brown features eyebrows strongly arched and strongly marked and bright vagrant eyes which took an interest in everything He edged a little closer to the young mother and looked inquiring Finding that did not answer he plunged into conversation with a speech which was admirable in sentiment but not discreet in wording Jolly baby that Yes he was a fine boy said the girl her tired eyes quickening as she looked down at her child but he's after his teeth now and it's pulled him daouwn awful We didn't have a wink of sleep with him last night You must be pretty tired then quoth the stranger Wonder if the little chap would come to me He don't like strangers said the mother doubtfully She was unused to hear her boy called either a jolly baby or a little chap and she distrusted the abilities of a young man plainly unmarried moreover who used such terms I'll hold him like a patent rocking chair the stranger asserted Come on sonny You won't howl at me will you Great land what a weight you are I never turned ayah before yes put my eye out will you What's wrong besides the teeth He's got a touch of bromtitus I caught it washing day and he took it from me Oh it's crool work washing in the winter our houses hasn't any coppers and we has to do it all out at the back Do you mean you wash the clothes in the open air Every mite of em My husband he's been to the landlord times and again but he won't do nothing for us and they're the cheapest houses round so we just have to put up with it What a beastly shame Who's your landlord Old Fane up at Fanes Ah he is a hard man Last time as Mr Searle went to see him You can take or leave it he says I can get plenty more as won't complain I will not be pestered with discontented gutter birds he says So my husband he come away there wasn't nothing to be done Fane I think you said said the brown eyed stranger upon whose face the tale had painted a gleeful anticipation as he took down the name in a pocket book I'm thinking I'd like a little friendly conversation with Mr Fane Whereabouts is your place Burnt House they call it right out in the fields it is If he d put in one copper for the six houses you wouldn t think he d ever miss the money But he don t care about us poor folks I wish we was in Farquhar s houses that I do Conversation was here broken by Dr Maude who summoned Mrs Searle and her sister and the baby Her short interview left her in tears The doctor had ordered milk which seemed to her as far beyond her means as caviare or turtle soup It would be got but meanwhile Mrs Searle would starve Mr Searle would swear and the debt at the shop would grow The stranger gave her a shilling and fled into the surgery to escape her thanks The place smelt strong of drugs shelves laden with bottles climbed up one wall and the others were decorated with framed photographs and cases of medical books Everything was strictly professional and methodically neat and the doctor slight and dark in appearance cool and composed in manner was the essence of his room embodied

Dialogue of Love John Chryssavgis,2014-04-15 In 1964 a little noticed albeit pioneering encounter in the Holy Land between the heads of the Roman Catholic Church and the Orthodox Church spawned numerous contacts and diverse openings between the two sister churches which had not communicated with each other for centuries Fifty years later Pope Francis and Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew meet in Jerusalem to commemorate that historical event and celebrate the close relations that have developed through mutual exchanges of formal visits and an official theological dialogue that began in 1980 This book contains three unique chapters The first is a sketch of the behind the scenes challenges and negotiations that accompanied the meeting in 1964 detailing the immediate consequences of the event and setting the tone for the volume The second is an inspirational account interwoven with a scholarly evaluation of the work of the North American Standing Council on Orthodox Catholic relations over the past decades The third chapter presents a recently discovered reflection on the meeting that took place fifty years ago by one of the most important Orthodox theologians of the twentieth century expressing cautious optimism about the future of Christian unity

The Extermination of Love Emily Gerard,1901

Love as Common Ground Paul S. Fiddes,2021-09-23 This book explores the way in which the study and practice of love creates a common ground for different faiths and different traditions within the same faith For the contributors common ground in this context is not a minimal core of belief or a lowest common denominator of faith but a space or area in which to live together consider together the meaning of the love to which various faiths witness and work together to enable human flourishing Such a space the contributors believe is possible because it is the place of encounter with the divine This book is the fruit of a Project for the Study of Love in Religion which aims to create this space in which different traditions of love converge from Islam Judaism and the Christianity of both East and West Tools employed by the contributors in exploring this space of love include exegesis of ancient texts theology accounts of mystical experience philosophy and evolutionary science of the human Insights about human and divine love that emerge include its nature as a form of knowing its sacrificial and erotic dimensions its inclination towards beauty its making of community and its importance for a just political and economic life

Henry Gowen,1908 Mystery and Sacrament of Love Marc Cardinal Ouellet,2015 An internationally respected Roman Catholic leader on the mystery sacrament of marriage Marriage and the family are at the forefront of the burning questions being debated by civil society and the church today Cultural changes in our increasingly secularized society have dire consequences in the family sphere requiring a Christian response that is faithful to the Church s tradition says Marc Cardinal Ouellet In Mystery and Sacrament of Love Ouellet clearly expounds a theology of marriage and the Catholic Church s understanding of the sacrament celebrated between spouses and God Developed with influences from Pope Francis the theological intuitions of Vatican II the contributions of Saint John Paul II the pope of the family and the innovative thought of Hans Urs von Balthasar Ouellet s study lays the foundations for a faithful resurgence of well being for families in our contemporary day and age Courtly Love, the Love of Courtliness, and the History of Sexuality James A. Schultz,2006-08-15 One of the great achievements of the Middle Ages Europe s courtly culture gave the world the tournament the festival the knighting ceremony and also courtly love But courtly love has strangely been ignored by historians of sexuality With Courtly Love the Love of Courtliness and the History of Sexuality James Schultz corrects this oversight with careful analysis of key courtly texts of the medieval German literary tradition Courtly love Schultz finds was provoked not by the biological and intrinsic factors that play such a large role in our contemporary thinking about sexuality sex difference or desire but by extrinsic signs of class bodies that were visibly noble and behaviors that represented exemplary courtliness Individuals became subjects of courtly love only to the extent that their love took the shape of certain courtly roles such as singer lady or knight They hoped not only for physical union but also for the social distinction that comes from realizing these roles to perfection To an extraordinary extent courtly love represented the love of courtliness the eroticization of noble status and the courtly culture that celebrated noble power and refinement
