Lubov Catherine de Hueck Doherty,1985 Faith Beyond the Divide: A Christian Reflection on the Separation of Church and Hate Mirabel Grey,2025-10-04 For millions of people of faith something feels broken not with God but with how religion has been twisted Weaponized by fear Hijacked by politics Preached with judgment instead of love Faith Beyond the Divide A Christian Reflection on the Separation of Church and Hate is a bold and healing manifesto for those who know Jesus was never about power but about compassion Drawing deep inspiration from Fugelsang s viral message of reclaiming the Bible from fundamentalists and political extremism this book offers a soulful reflection on what it truly means to follow Jesus in an age of division With clarity conviction and care this book unpacks the core issues that are driving people away from church Why the gospel of love has been replaced by fear and control How Christian nationalism distorts the teachings of Christ The harm done to LGBTQ people immigrants women and seekers in the name of religion And how to rediscover a faith that welcomes heals and transforms Each chapter is a conversation honest unflinching but full of hope Whether you re a believer burned by the church a spiritual seeker or someone trying to reconcile faith with justice Faith Beyond the Divide offers a vision of Christianity rooted in love not legalism This is not a book of rage It s a book of restoration If John Fugelsang s Separation of Church and Hate woke you up this book will walk with you It s time to reclaim the Jesus who broke rules to heal people welcomed outsiders and flipped tables not to control but to free Faith Beyond the Divide is for everyone ready to believe again but differently More honestly More bravely And more like Jesus

The Christian Faith Michael Horton,2011-01-04 Theology the study of God is a concern for every believer not just theologians or those in ministry It s the goal of good theology to humble us before the triune God of majesty as we come to understand him better This is a book of and about good theology Award winning author theologian and professor Michael Horton wrote The Christian Faith as a book of systematic theology and doctrine that can be preached experienced and lived as well as understood clarified and articulated It s written for a growing cast of pilgrims in ministry and laity who are interested in learning about Christ as a way of living as a Christian Who understand that knowing doctrine and walking in practical Christianity are not competing interests The Christian Faith is divided into six parts five of which each focus on an aspect of God while the first part sets up an understanding and appreciation for the task of theology itself addressing topics like The source of theology where the idea of theology comes from and what its limits are The origin of the canon how the modern Bible came about and why we can trust it The character of theology is the nature of theology practical theoretical or can it be both In a manner equally as welcoming to professors pastors students and armchair theologians Horton has organized this volume in a readable fashion that includes a variety of learning features A brief synopsis of biblical passages that inform certain doctrines Surveys of past and current theologies with contemporary emphasis on exegetical philosophical practical and theological questions Substantial interaction with various Christian movements within the Protestant Catholic and Orthodoxy traditions as well as the hermeneutical issues raised by postmodernity Charts sidebars questions for discussion and an extensive bibliography divided into different entry levels and topics At the heart of this book is a deep love for and curiosity about God Its basic argument is that a personal relationship with God goes hand in hand with the pursuit of theology It isn't possible to know God without studying him Happiness and the Christian Moral Life Paul J.

Wadell, 2008 A Sheed Ward book Includes bibliographical references and index Finding a path for life the quest for goodness and happiness Not going it alone friendship and community in the Christian moral life Facing shipwreck and bandits virtues and the quest for happiness Every person's truth made in the image of God called to do the work of God Freedom exploring a dangerous topic False steps on the path to happiness losing our way and finding it back Finding a story worth handing on narrative and the moral life Doing what the good requires conscience and prudence in the moral life The gift that makes all gifts possible learning the language of love Reimagining the world why the happiness of one demands justice for all
