Matisse Rhythm And Line:

Matisse Jacqueline Guillaud, Maurice Guillaud, Henri Matisse, 1987 Never have Matisse's intense colors and vibrant patterns been displayed with such drama and sensitivity This book offers a fresh new vision of the great Fauve colorist with 275 paintings in full color together with important sculpture etchings and facsimiles of books Rhythmical Subjects Laura Marcus, 2024-02-15 Drawing on extensive archival research Rhythmical Subjects shows the ways in which literature dance music the visual arts and architecture drew from and fed into the realms of social and anthropological thought Henri Matisse Henri Matisse, 2016 Vogue for Russia Caroline Maclean, 2015-01-20 Explores the influence of Russian aesthetics on British modernists In what ways was the British fascination with Russian arts politics and people linked to a renewed interest in the unseen How did ideas of Russianness and the Russian soul prompted by the arrival of the Ballets Russes and the rise of revolutionary ideals attach themselves to the existing British fashion for theosophy vitalism and occultism In answering these questions this study is the first to explore the overlap between Slavophilia and mysticism between 1900 and 1930 in Britain The main Russian characters that emerge are Fedor Dostoevsky Boris Anrep Vasily Kandinsky Petr Ouspensky and Sergei Eisenstein The British modernists include Roger Fry Virginia Woolf Mary Butts John Middleton Murry Michael Sadleir and Katherine Mansfield Key Features Draws on unpublished archive material as well as on periodicals exhibition catalogues reviews diaries fiction and the visual arts Addresses the omission in modernist studies of the importance of Russian aesthetics and Russian discourses of the occult to British modernism Challenges the dominant Western European and transatlantic focus in modernist studies and provides an original contribution to our understanding of new global modernisms Combines literary studies with aesthetics modernist history the history of modern esotericism film history periodical studies and science studies Graphic Modernism Art Institute of Chicago, 2003 This exhibition catalog highlights a recent gift of works on paper to the Art Institute of Chicago from the Gecht family longtime Chicago collectors The catalog comprises 135 drawings prints and sculptures from the collection all of which embody a broad definition of Modernism The book spans two centuries and contains artists such as Cezanne and Van Gogh as well as Mark Rothko and Philip Guston Toulouse Lautrec Matisse and Picasso form the backbone of the collection with nearly 30 works of art apiece Suzanne Folds McCullagh curator of prints drawings Art Inst of Chicago provides a short introductory essay that tracks the evolution of the collection Authored by a bevy of contributors the well written entries maintain a consistent tone and quality and strike a good balance between biographical information and interpretations of the work of art itself While the Gecht collection is certainly quite a boon for the institute it is not comprehensive enough in itself to make the catalog essential for all art libraries It does however belong on library shelves with strong modern art and graphics collections Kraig A Binkowski Delaware Art Museum Wilmington 135 colour illustrations The Collected Essays and Criticism, Volume 4 Clement Greenberg, 1986 Clement Greenberg is widely recognized as the most influential and articulate champion of modernism during its American ascendancy after World War II the period largely covered by these highly acclaimed volumes of The Collected Essays and Criticism Volume 3 Affirmations and Refusals presents Greenberg's writings from the period between 1950 and 1956 while Volume 4 Modernism with a Vengeance gathers essays and criticism of the years 1957 to 1969 The 120 works range from little known pieces originally appearing in Vogue and Harper's Bazaar to such celebrated essays as The Plight of Our Culture 1953 Modernist Painting 1960 and Post Painterly Abstraction 1964 Preserved in their original form these writings allow readers to witness the development and direction of Greenberg's criticism from his advocacy of abstract expressionism to his enthusiasm for color field painting With the inclusion of critical exchanges between Greenberg and F R Leavis Fairfield Porter Thomas B Hess Herbert Read Max Kozloff and Robert Goldwater these volumes are essential sources in the ongoing debate over modern art For each volume John O Brian has furnished an introduction a selected bibliography and a brief summary of events that places the criticism in its artistic and historical context The Outline of Knowledge:

Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library. Art and Architecture Division, 1987 The Life and Death of Images Diarmuid Costello, Dominic Willsdon, 2008 The 1990s witnessed a return to aesthetics but one that stressed the independent claims of beauty in reaction to its perceived suppression by ethical and political imperatives Beauty however is just one aspect of the aesthetic In recent years increasing attention has been paid to the ways in which aesthetics and ethics are intertwined In The Life and Death of Images some of the world's leading cultural thinkers engage in dialogue with one another concerning this new gamma aesthetics In provocative and accessible fashion they demonstrate its relevance to a range of disciplines including analytic and continental philosophy art history theory and practice cultural history and visual culture rhetoric and comparative literature New York Magazine, 1987-12-07 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Scribner's Monthly, an Illustrated Magazine for the People, 1914 The Century Illustrated Monthly Magazine, 1913 Russia in Britain, 1880-1940 Rebecca Beasley, Philip Ross Bullock, 2013-09-26 Russia in Britain offers the first comprehensive account of the breadth and depth of the British fascination with Russian and Soviet culture tracing its transformative effect on British intellectual life from the 1880s the decade which saw the first sustained interest in Russian literature to 1940 the eve of the Soviet Union's entry into the Second World War By focusing on the role played by institutions disciplines and groups libraries periodicals government agencies concert halls publishing houses theatres and film societies this collection marks an important departure from standard literary critical narratives which have tended to highlight the role of a small number of individuals notably Sergei Diaghilev Constance Garnett Theodore Komisarjevsky Katherine Mansfield George Bernard Shaw and Virginia Woolf Drawing on recent research and newly available archives Russia in Britain shifts attention from individual figures to the networks within which they operated and uncovers the variety of forces that enabled and structured the British engagement with Russian culture The resulting narrative maps an intricate pattern of interdisciplinary relations and provides the foundational research for a new understanding of Anglo Russian Soviet interaction In this it makes a major contribution to the current debates about transnationalism cosmopolitanism and global modernisms that are reshaping our knowledge of nineteenth and early twentieth century British culture

Mondrian's Philosophy of Visual Rhythm Eiichi Tosaki, 2017-11-15 This volume investigates the meaning of visual rhythm through Piet Mondrian's unique approach to understanding rhythm in the compositional structure of painting drawing reference from philosophy aesthetics and Zen culture Its innovation lies in its reappraisal of a forgotten definition of rhythm as stasis or composition which can be traced back to ancient Greek thought This conception of rhythm the book argues can be demonstrated in terms of pictorial strategy through analysis of East Asian painting and calligraphy with which Greek thought on rhythm has identifiable commonalities The book demonstrates how these ideas about rhythm draw together various threads of intellectual development in the visual arts that cross disparate aesthetic cultural practices As an icon of early 20th Century Modernism Mondrian's neoplasticism is a serious painterly and philosophical achievement In his painting Mondrian was deeply influenced by Theosophy which took its influence from Eastern aesthetics particularly East Asian and Indian thought However Mondrian's approach to visual rhythm was so idiosyncratic that his contribution to studies of visual rhythm is often under recognized This volume shows that a close inspection of Mondrian's own writing thinking and painting has much to tell scholars about how to understand a long forgotten aspect of visual rhythm Rodin's famous criticism of photography athlete in motion is forever frozen can be applied to Muybridge's zoopraxiscope the Futurists' rendition of stroboscopic images and Duchamp's Nude Descending a Staircase Through a comparative study between Mondrian's painting and these seminal works this volume initiates a new convention for the cognition of the surface of painting as visual rhythm Mondrian's simultaneous emphasis on the static and the rhythmic is hardly fodder for a publicist Eiichi Tosaki has taken on the challenge of elucidating Mondrian's theories of rhythm and particularly his conception of static rhythm The result is a tour de force that will forever alter the reader's encounter with the works of Mondrian Prof Kathleen Higgins

Matisse's War Peter Everett, 2010-12-15 At seventy Henri Matisse is a trim clean old gentleman with a passion for naked women He is UN MONSTRE SACRE who depicts with passion and conviction only what he takes pleasure in only what he chooses to see He is art personified If there were no Matisse there would be no art as such He has purged everything from his painting except anxieties concerning structure and colour his struggle is with these alone MATISSE'S WAR is a minutely researched yet fictional account of Matisse's life during the years 1939-1945 It is also a superb portrait of the lives of the major French artists and writers under the German occupation Louis Aragon Malraux Picasso and Bonnard all appear prominently in the narrative

Critical Readings in Impressionism and Post-Impressionism Mary Tompkins Lewis, 2007-03-15 The essays in this wide ranging text capture the theoretical range and scholarly rigor of criticism that has fundamentally transformed the study of French Impressionist and Post Impressionist art

, The Living Line Robin Veder, 2015-04-07 Robin Veder's The Living Line is a radical reconceptualization of the development of late nineteenth and early twentieth century American modernism The author illuminates connections among the histories of modern art body cultures and physiological aesthetics in early twentieth century American culture fundamentally altering our perceptions about art and the physical and the degree of cross pollination in the arts The Living Line shows that American producers and consumers of modernist visual art repeatedly characterized their aesthetic experience in terms of kinesthesia the sense of bodily movement They explored abstraction with kinesthetic sensibilities and used abstraction to achieve kinesthetic goals In fact the formalist approach to art was galvanized by theories of bodily response derived from experimental physiological psychology and facilitated by contemporary body cultures such as modern dance rhythmic gymnastics physical education and physical therapy Situating these complementary ideas and exercises in relation to enduring fears of neurasthenia Veder contends that aesthetic modernism shared industrial modernity's objective of efficiently managing neuromuscular energy In a series of finely grained and interconnected case studies Veder demonstrates that diverse modernists associated with the Armory Show the Soci t Anonyme the Stieglitz circle especially O Keeffe and the Barnes Foundation participated in these discourses and practices and that kin aesthetic modernism greatly influenced the formation of modern art in America and beyond This daring and completely original work will appeal to a broad audience of art historians historians of the body and American culture in general
