Architecture and Feminisms Hélène Frichot, Catharina Gabrielsson, Helen Runting, 2017-11-10 Set against the background of a general crisis that is environmental political and social this book examines a series of specific intersections between architecture and feminisms understood in the plural The collected essays and projects that make up the book follow transversal trajectories that criss cross between ecologies economies and technologies exploring specific cases and positions in relation to the themes of the archive control work and milieu This collective intellectual labour can be located amidst a worldwide depletion of material resources a hollowing out of political power and the degradation of constructed and natural environments Feminist positions suggest ways of ethically coping with a world that is becoming increasingly unstable and contested The many voices gathered here are united by the task of putting critical concepts and feminist design tools to use in order to offer experimental approaches to the creation of a more habitable world Drawing inspiration from the active archives of feminist precursors existing and re imagined and by way of a re engagement in the histories theories and projected futures of critical feminist projects the book presents a collection of twenty three essays and eight projects with the aim of taking stock of our current condition and re engaging in our precarious environment worlds      Basics of

Perception in Architecture Jörg Kurt Grütter, 2020-10-14 This book makes the extremely complex process of architectural perception far more transparent and thus contributes to a better understanding of our built environment Why is there so much debate about the appearance of our built environment about the aesthetics of architecture today Why do opinions about the aesthetic quality of buildings often diverge extremely even among experts Why can't we agree on architecture on what is beautiful and what is not Most areas of construction such as statics and building physics are measurable and can therefore be substantiated with objective arguments Yet this does not apply to the unquantifiable aesthetics of architecture Accordingly judgments on aesthetics are always subject specific and strongly dependent on the viewer Nevertheless the aesthetics of architecture is not just a matter of taste Many relationships between buildings as objects and viewers as subjects can be determined objectively with the help of perceptual psychology and information theory as this book demonstrates

Understanding Infrastructure George Rainer, 1991-01-16 Urban Water Infrastructure Planning Management and Operations Neil S Grigg discusses the factors that lead to effective management of water systems in urban areas Journal of the Water Pollution Control Federation Unique in its orientation for managers Urban Water Infrastructure focuses on the productive management of urban water systems by laying out its discussion in terms of the system as a whole how a system s component elements work together how much they cost to build and operate and the sociopolitical forces that guide the productive operation This easily accessible reference is aimed at engineers planners and managers teaching both the theoretical and practical aspects of urban water management 1986 0 471 82914 5 328 pp A Guide to Site and Environmental Planning Third Edition Harvey M Rubenstein Perhaps the strongest feature of the book is the inclusive comprehensive and logical analysis within each of the chapters All in all I can highly recommend this book to anyone engaged in site planning or interested in site plans developed by others Landscape Planning This Third Edition incorporates pertinent research of the past decade and presents an approach to design based on factual information that enables creative talent to be used to its utmost advantage Chapters follow phases used in the development of a site plan and include extensive information on site selection resource analysis land use storm drainage alignment of horizontal and vertical curves specifications sports facilities and play grounds rooftop gardens residential development concepts and much more 1987 0 471 85033 0 410 pp Infrastructure Engineering and Management Neil Grigg Here is the first technical and management book to focus on solutions to complex large scale problems involving major infrastructure projects The wide ranging text covers such systems as roads and streets water and wastewater waste management buildings and structures and energy facilities Infrastructure Engineering and Management gives an in depth knowledge of several key subjects relating technology to management planning programming and budgeting finance organization and private sector involvement operations and maintenance project management and research needs 1988 0 471 84974 X 380 pp

Christianopolis, 2013-06-29 Johann Valentin Andreere 1586 1654 was a multi faceted product of late Reformation Germany A theologian who was firmly committed to the Lutheran confession he could yet see very clearly the flaws in his church and argue for their reform without being an ecumenicist in the modern sense he yet admired many aspects of the society he observed in Calvinist Geneva and he recognised the outstanding merit of individual Catholic scholars A linguist and a lover of art and music he was the friend of scientists and an enthusiastic student of mathematics wh held that science leads both to an appreciation of the wonders of the material world and its rejection in favour of more spiritual concerns In his satirical writing he could be ironic and flippant his rhetoric was often laboured and over elaborate but there is no mistaking the sincerity of his outrage at cruelty inhumanity and injustice Andrerere was optimistic in that he believed that the corruption and deceit the luxm y and deprivation the hypocrisy tyranny and sophistry of the age could be transformed in a second reformation yet there runs through his life a deep rooted pessimism or depression which makes his willingness to continue the struggle all the more admirable As early as 1618 while still a young deacon at the beginning of his career he defined the four ages of l human life as terror error labor and horror A City for the Nation Albert E. National Identity Lawrence Vale,2014-05-01 The first edition of Architecture Power and National Identity published in 1992 has become a classic winning the prestigious Spiro Kostof award for the best book in architecture and urbanism Lawrence Vale fully has fully updated the book which focuses on the relationship between the design of national capitals across the world and the formation of national identity in modernity Tied to this it explains the role that architecture and planning play in the forceful assertion of state power The book is truly international in scope looking at capital cities in the United States India Brazil Sri Lanka Kuwait Bangladesh and Papua New Guinea Human Factors in Transportation Giuseppe Di

Bucchianico,Andrea Vallicelli,Neville A. Stanton,Steven J. Landry,2016-09-19 More and more the most traditional and typical applied ergonomics issues of the activities related to sea shipping vehicle driving and flying are required to deal with some emerging topics related to the growing automatism and manning reduction the ICT s advances and pervasiveness and the new demographic and social phenomena such as aging or multiculturalism With contributions from expert researchers professionals and doctoral students from a wide number of countries such as Australia Austria Canada Italy Germany the Netherlands Norway Sweden UK and USA this multi contributed book will explore traditional and emerging topics of Human Factors centered around the maritime road rail and aviation transportation domains Cahokia Sally A. Kitt

Chappell,2002-02-15 At the turn of the last millennium a powerful Native American civilization emerged and flourished in the American Midwest By A D 1050 the population of its capital city Cahokia was larger than that of London Without the use of the wheel beasts of burden or metallurgy its technology was of the Stone Age yet its culture fostered widespread commerce refined artistic expression and monumental architecture The model for this urbane world was nothing less than the cosmos itself The climax of their ritual center was a four tiered pyramid covering fourteen acre rising a hundred feet into the sky the tallest structure in the United States until 1867 This beautifully illustrated book traces the history of this six square mile area in the central Mississippi Valley from the Big Bang to the present Chappell seeks to answer fundamental questions about this unique yet still relatively unknown space which was designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1982 How did this swampy land become so amenable to human life Who were the remarkable people who lived here before the Europeans came Why did the whole civilization disappear so rapidly What became of the land in the centuries after the Mississippians abandoned it And finally what can we learn about ourselves as we look into the changing meaning of Cahokia through the ages To explore these questions Chappell probes a wide range of sources including the work of astronomers geographers geologists anthropologists and archaeologists Archival photographs and newspaper accounts as well as interviews with those who work at the site and Native Americans on their annual pilgrimage to the site bring the story up to the present Tying together these many threads Chappell weaves a rich tale of how different people conferred their values on the same piece of land and how the transformed landscape in turn inspired different values in them cultural spiritual agricultural economic and humanistic

The Artist and Political Vision Benjamin R. Barber, Michael J. Gargas McGrath, Art and politics are often regarded as denizens of different realms but few artists have been comfortable with the notion of a purely aesthetic definition of art The artist has a public and thus political vision of the world interpreted by his art no less than the statesman and the legislator have a creative vision of the world they wish to make The sixteen original essays in this volume bear eloquent witness to this interpenetration of art and politics Each confronts the intersection of the aesthetic and the social each is concerned with the interface of poetic vision and political vision of reflection and action They take art in the broadest sense ranging over poets dramatists novelists essayists and filmmakers Their focus is on art and its political dilemmas not simply on the artist They consider the issues raised for politics and culture by alienation violence modernization technology democracy progress and revolution And they debate the capacity of art to stimulate social change and incite revolution the temptations of social control of culture and of political censorship the uncertain relationship between art and history the impact of economic structure on artistic creation and of economic class on artistic product the common ground between art and legislation and between creativity and control

Watershed Discipleship Ched Myers, 2016-10-21 This collection introduces and explores watershed discipleship as a critical contextual and constructive approach to ecological theology and practice and features emerging voices from a generation that has grown up under the shadow of climate catastrophe Watershed Discipleship is a triple entendre that recognizes we are in a watershed historical moment of crisis focuses on our intrinsically bioregional locus as followers of Jesus and urges us to become disciples of our watersheds Bibliographic framing essays by Myers trace his journey into a bioregionalist Christian faith and practice and offer reflections on incarnational theology hermeneutics and ecclesiology The essays feature more than a dozen activists educators and practitioners under the age of forty whose work and witness attest to a growing movement of resistance and reimagination across North America This anthology overviews the bioregional paradigm and its theological and political significance for local sustainability restorative justice and spiritual renewal Contributors reread both biblical texts and churchly practices such as mission baptism and liturgy through the lens of replacement Herein is a comprehensive and engaged call for a Transition church that can help turn our history around toward environmental resiliency and social justice by passionate advocates on the front lines of watershed discipleship
