Evans, 2003 A book by book chapter by chapter detailed look at the historical geographical cultural and economic background of the New Testament A window is opened to the setting of the New Testament enabling a better understanding The Gospel of Matthew Daniel J. Harrington, 1991 Matthew wrote his Gospel from his of Jesus words and life perspective as a Jew It is with sensitivity to this perspective that Father Harrington undertakes this commentary on the Gospel of Matthew After an introduction he provides a literal translation of each section in Matthew's Gospel and explains the textual problems philological difficulties and other matters in the notes He then presents a literary analysis of each text content form use of sources structure examines the text against its Jewish background situates it in the context of Matthew s debate with other first century Jews and reflects on its significance for Christian theology and Christian Jewish relations Bibliographies direct the reader to other important modern studies The Drama of the Messiah in Matthew 8 and 9 Solomon Pasala, 2008 In contrast to the other synoptic evangelists the author of Matthew proceeded differently in many respects Why did he modify the text so much and arrange ten miracle narratives one after the other at one stretch with minor interruptions Why did he place the so called miracle chapters immediately after the Sermon on the Mount Why did he enclose them between two summary statements on either side These are only some of the unanswered questions about chapters 8 and 9 of Matthew's Gospel Beginning with Aristotle's theory of the drama or tragedy the author suggests that the way the evangelist has reworked and reorganized the miracle narratives is similar to the structure of the classic drama By discovering the narrative strategies and the discourse aspect we are able to demonstrate how each episode corresponds to the different moments of a plot such as the initial situation inciting moment complication climax with suspense and finally resolution and denouement By What Authority? Rebecca Ye-Atkinson, 2020-08-31 Hostile encounters between Jesus and Jewish leaders are found throughout the Gospel of Matthew Yet these encounters are rarely explored holistically nor is attention given to the reason for their prominence in the Matthean text In By What Authority Dr Rebecca Ye Atkinson examines seventeen distinct moments of conflict in the first gospel exploring the function of each narrative in light of Matthew's overarching literary and theological purposes An excellent resource for scholars this in depth textual analysis is
