Studyguide: Preaching Peter Stevenson,2017-02-20 A step by step guide to learning about preaching and more importantly how to craft and deliver a sermon It offers a student friendly jargon free introduction that requires no prior knowledge of the subject The Lord's Prayer and the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew's Gospel Charles Nathan

Ridlehoover,2019-12-26 Charles Nathan Ridlehoover examines the Lord s Prayer in Matthew s Gospel focusing on the prayer s centrality and showing how this centrality affects our reading of the Sermon on the Mount and subsequently the prayer itself Ridlehoover argues that the Lord s Prayer is structurally lexically and thematically central to the Sermon on the Mount and the means through which disciples of Jesus are empowered to live out the kingdom righteousness it defines In turn the Sermon on the Mount clarifies what the answer to the petitions of the Lord's Prayer might look like in the life of the disciple of Jesus. Whilst the centrality of the Lord's Prayer has been noted by previous commentators, this centrality and its intended purpose has not hitherto been defined or examined in great depth. Ridlehoover fills this gap with a closely argued and in depth study ranging from methodology and the structure of the prayer itself to examining the Father's forgiveness and evil petitions and the relevance of word and deed for hearers and doers. Ridlehoover's examination of the relationship between the Sermon and Prayer advances studies in compositional criticism and intratextuality.

Warlike Christians in an Age of Violence Nick Megoran, 2017-10-03 How should Christians respond to war? This age-old question has become more pressing given Western governments' recent overseas military interventions and the rise of extremist Islamist jihadism. Grounded in conservative evangelical theology, this book argues the historic church position that it is inadmissible for Christians to use violence or take part in war. It shows how the church's propensity to support the just wars, crusades, rebellions, or humanitarian interventions of its host nations over time has been disastrous for the reputation of the gospel. Instead, the church's response to war is simply to be the church by preaching the gospel and making peace in the love and power of God. The book considers challenges to this argument for gospel peace: What about warfare in the Old Testament and military metaphors in the New? What of church history? And how do we deal with tyrants like Hitler and terrorists like Islamic State? Charting a path between just war theory and liberal pacifism, numerous inspiring examples from the worldwide church are used to demonstrate effective and authentically Christian responses to violence. The author argues that as Christians increasingly drop their unbiblical addiction to war, we may be entering one of the most exciting periods of church history.

Handbook on the Gospels (Handbooks on the New Testament) Benjamin L. Gladd, 2021-06-01 A leading New Testament scholar provides an easy-to-navigate resource for studying and understanding the Gospels. Written with classroom utility and pastoral application in mind, this accessibly written volume summarizes the content of each major section of the biblical text to help students, pastors, and laypeople quickly grasp the sense of particular passages. The series, modeled after Baker Academic's successful Old Testament Handbook series, focuses primarily on the content of the biblical books without getting bogged down in historical-critical questions or detailed verse-by-verse exegesis. The book covers all four Gospels and explores each major passage, showing how Jesus is the central figure of each plot. It also unpacks how the Old Testament informs the Gospels.

His Blood be Upon Us Tom Wilson, 2023-11-25 The book explores the antisemitic potential of Matthew's Gospel in the Christian New Testament It begins with a detailed discussion of the occasion of the text before discussing key questions Matthew's fulfillment theology and the use of polemic in the text Three crucial texts are examined in detail The book discusses the reverberations of the blood cry arguing the deicide focused interpretation of Matthew 27:25 is foundational to subsequent blood libels which are also discussed The final chapters explore how to preach from Matthew's Gospel with Jewish people in mind including offering sample sermons to stimulate the reader's thinking about how they might teach from a controversial Matthean text in a way that denies the possibility of perpetuating Christian antisemitism It will be of interest to students and scholars in religion and faith Christianity and interfaith studies
