Nursing in Criminal Justice Services Ann Norman, Elizabeth Walsh, 2014-09-29 At some point in their careers most nurses encounter patients who are directly or indirectly involved with the criminal justice system

whether on hospital wards where prisoners are receiving treatment whilst guarded by prison officers in schools where children have a parent in prison or in a GP practice where patients have substance misuse issues This thought provoking book offers an understanding of the challenges and opportunities of caring for those in contact with criminal justice Written by a range of experts in the field Nursing in Criminal Justice Services takes the reader along the health and justice pathway from initial patient contact with nurses in police stations to nursing care in courts through prison nursing services and finally into the work of the multi disciplinary team in the community where nurses work alongside the probation services It also addresses some of the broader issues facing nurses working in criminal justice settings including governance legislation professional development and the need to reflect on practice Importantly the authors challenge some frequently held beliefs about people in criminal justice settings where staff have to manage the competing priorities of providing care and ensuring security They show how at its best this type of nursing can provide safe compassionate care for vulnerable and often frightened people leading to hugely improved outcomes for offenders and ultimately society as a whole Contents include Recovery and redemption Nursing in police custody Forensic nurse examiners Caring for victims of sexual assault Caring in court Prison nursing On the out Supporting offenders in the community Custodial caritas Beyond rhetoric in caring and custody Caring for vulnerable people Intellectual disability in the criminal justice system Governance and quality in criminal justice health services Learning opportunities from inquests Professional attitudes and behaviours

The Proposed National Assembly for Wales (Legislative Competence) (Local Government) Order 2009 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Welsh Affairs Committee, 2010 The proposed National Assembly for Wales Legislative Competence Local Government Order 2009 is the twelfth Legislative Competence Order on which the Welsh Affairs Committee has reported The Order will give the Assembly powers in respect of the structures and work of local government in Wales at all levels The Welsh Assembly Government has requested this power because it wishes to develop and strengthen the role of community councils and councillors in Wales The proposed Order will allow the Welsh Assembly Government to fulfil its commitment to seek legislation to address issues identified in the 2003 Aberystwyth Report The Committee agrees that a clear need for the proposed LCO has been identified and is consistent with the Government's commitment to build up the capacity of town and community councils The proposed Order is drafted in broad and accessible terms with the minimum of exceptions and interpretation The Committee is concerned however that there are now many terms used to describe the various tiers of local government in Wales and agree with the suggestions put forward that the Minister should speedily undertake a review of terminology relating to local government Specifically the term community is cited as having various meanings dependent on context Furthermore given that there have already been several LCO proposals identified in terms of local government to call this the National Assembly for Wales Legislative Competence Local Government Order introduces the potential for confusion A title such as National Assembly for Wales Legislative Competence Community Councils Order or similar is suggested
